Woodburn — A wedding of February 5 was that of Miss Joanne D. Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Simmons of Woodburn, route 2, to Henry S. Wittington of El Monte, Calif., in the Seventh Day Adventist church at Monitor. The Rev. C. W. Untereher of Portland officiated at the candle-light ceremony. Decorations in the church were daffodils and ferns. Soloists were Mrs. Floyd Seltzer of Portland and Mrs. R. C. Schwartz, of Gladstone, accompanied by Mr. Seltzer.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin wedding gown, fashioned with fitted bodice and long pointed sleeves and the neckline was outlined with seed pearls. Her veil of finger-tip length was held in place with a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white bouquet of carnations and gardenias.

Miss Mary Ann Simmons was maid of honor for her sister wearing a gown of green satin styled with a V-neck, deep cuff sleeves and long full skirt. Miss Bonnie Mills of Woodburn, route 2, as bridesmaid, wore a gown of gray satin fashioned like that of the honor attendant and each of the attendants carried a nosegay of pink hyacinths and yellow acacias, centered with doufield college and Edward Nagel, Portland, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The candlelighters were Miss Mary Merriman and Miss Theola Grover, wearing orchid and pink gowns. Daffodils with white satin bows were on each pew. The church was decorated with baskets of daffodils and snapdragons.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore the traditional white satin gown with full train. She wore a fingertip veil edged with Mary Stewart lace which hung from a Juliet cap and she carried a white orchid on a white Bible. The pearls she wore were a gift from the bridegroom.

The matron of honor was the bride's aunt, Mrs. Al Nagel, who wore pink taffeta. The junior bridesmaids were Dianne and Darlene Bigoni who wore yellow and pink frocks and carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Little Susan Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Jones, dressed in pale green, was the flower girl. Little Gary Palmer, Portland, was the ring bearer and carried the rings in a calli lily.

Acting as best man was Earl Johnson, Portland. Ushers were the bride's brother, Harold Lyon, Dwan Howard and Johnnie Nolton, Portland.

A reception followed in the fireplace room. A five tiered wedding cake with a bride and bridegroom ornament, graced the table which was covered with a lace tablecloth.

The cake was cut by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Arlando Bigoni, Portland. Mrs. Arthur Sohrwald, Dayton, assisted in serving.

Mrs. John Capps, McMinnville poured and Mrs. Tom Huffman attended the punch bowl. Miss LaVerne Hopkins and Mrs. Francis Mather were in charge of the gifts and Miss Ruby Clark took charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a winter white suit, with orchid coat and pink accessories. They left on a trip to San Francisco. Upon their return they will make their home at 72nd and Sandy, Portland.

The bride is a graduate of Dayton high school, class 1951 and is employed with Farmers Insurance Co., Portland.
