Six Persons Die in Movie House Fire

Guadalajara, Mexico (AP)—Six persons died Wednesday night when fire broke out near the screen of the Alameda movie theater, then spread to the rest of the buildings.

Patrons on the ground floor of the building escaped, but one exit from the balcony became jammed with terrified fans trying to reach the streets. Six bodies were found near the door. Some were trampled and some burned.

Five University of Alaska students in 1951 scaled 13,200-foot Mt. Hess in the Alaska range for the first time.

Sylvia Sidney, 41½, Wouldn't Want to Go Back to Naive 20

Hollywood, (AP)—Sylvia Sidney's 41½ today. But, she confesses, she refuses to hide the fact because she likes being 40 better than 20, anyway. Many a middle-aged movie queen occasionally shifts her birth up a notch and takes up young men and poodle haircuts. But the tiny Miss Sidney insists she'll always tell the truth about the number of candles on her birthday cake. "Women who try to hide their age just call attention to it," she shrugged. "Why lie about it? I don't feel any younger . . . I don't look any younger. "Somebody finds out about your age eventually. It's easier to be frank about it." Besides she went on, she wouldn't go back to being a naive 20 for a couple of Oscars. "People who are very young get emotional about themselves," she said. "They're in a constant torment. When you're in your 20's, you think you're mature and important. "In the 30's you're just beginning to grow up. By the time you're 40 you're just beginning to get your foot in the door of life. "I've enjoyed every age in my life. I've never wanted to go back. "But there's an overemphasis on age in this world. Youth is a wonderful thing, but our pattern of life is to emphasize everything youthful. The pressures brought on men and women in their middle years aren't good."

Quonset Huts Made by Hrubetz & Bushnell

Quonset huts are still on the market, it was revealed here Thursday by the announcement of the firm of Hrubetz & Bushnell that they are dealers for them in the Salem area that stretches to Albany on the south

The big-eyed star just finished playing in 20th Century-Fox' "Les Miserables" her first movie after five years of stage plays. She still has her 34-24-34 trim shape for that role, too.

But when she returned to the studio, she smiled, the wardrobe girls eyed her "for scars to see if I'd had my face or body lifted."

"What's wrong with being 40?" she said. "Men aren't attractive until they're that age. I've never in my life gone with a man who was under 40."

and Oregon City on the north. The steel fabrication plant at which the huts are made is situated at Front and Shipping streets and is designed to market huts designed for use as dairy barns, grain warehouses, cattle sheds, machinery houses, stores, skating rinks, churches and many industrial uses. Partners in the company, which prefabricates the huts that can be set up on any site, are Frank Hrubetz and E. O. Bushnell. Stran Steel Products are the sales organization behind the local firm.
