

Polk Red Cross Girds for Drive

Dallas—Nearly all 15 of the districts that comprise the Polk county Red Cross chapter are ready to begin work on the 1952 fund campaign by the first of March, according to Mrs. H. D. Peterson, fund drive chairman.

Supplies were given out to solicitors at a no-host supper at a meeting Monday evening at the Dallas Chamber of Commerce. Some of those present were Mrs. John Simmons for the Orchard Heights area; Mrs. Robert Yungen and Mrs. Robert Shepherd for the Lincoln, Zena and Spring Valley district; Mrs. K. W. Harrit for Brush College; Miss Vivian Carr representing Mrs. Perry De Lapp for Eola; Mrs. Hans Boeder for Smithfield; Dr. William Charles for Dallas; L. C. Lynch for Bethel-McCoy; Lae Beyerle for Mrs. L. C. Gilson of Perrydale.

Carl A. Gerlinger, Walter White and R. E. Smith have nearly completed solicitation of business and industry in West Salem. Rev. H. W. Black of the West Salem Methodist church will act in a liaison capacity for the residential coverage, which includes Kingwood Heights, Glen Creek road, Gehlar road and near Salem proper.

The total county budget is $10,000 of which $340 is the national portion.

Solicitation of areas outside of Dallas but included in the district are: Oakdale, Mrs. R. E. Smith; Liberty, Mrs. Joe DeWitt; Ellendale, Ellendale Woman's club; Pioneer, Pioneer Community club; Salt Creek, Mrs. Ben Lange and Mrs. J. H. Voth; Bonmouth cut-off, Mrs. LeRoy Layton; S. Main St., Mrs. Lynn McCullery; Fiverville and Bowersville, Mrs. Del Reinemer; Oak Villa to North Dallas Junction, J. N. Urness. C. H. Greenwood is chairman for industry in Dallas, Mrs. Oscar Hayter for churches, Mrs. Kenneth Jacobson for advance gifts, Mrs. Earle Richardson for publicity, Mrs. Paul Morgan for business solicitation.
