Teen-Agers Moaning Over Tony Curtis, New Movie Hero

Washington (AP)—The teen-age or low-wheel, set is moaning over a new screen hero.

He is Tony Curtis. He will be 27 come the end of June. He got to Hollywood by way of Hell's Kitchen, New York.

He is handsome, has ink-black hair, and is 5 feet, 10 1/2 inches tall.

He also is cocky as they come and has a gift, which Hollywood esteems, for saying the wrong thing at the wrong time.

Tony, who gets rapturous hoots and hollers from the young set every time he appears any place in person, can hardly believe it.

That morning when he arrived in Hollywood Tony had $4.12 in his wallet.

He has a lot more than that now. He also has something else he didn't have then. A beautiful wife. Name of Janet Leigh.

Headaches and Remedies

By J. E. WILLEY

In treating a headache correct the source of the trouble and you eliminate the headache . . . if it is caused by nervousness and you can relax the nerves it is cured, if it comes from a disorder in the stomach and you clear up the condition your headache disappears.

These are two common sources of headaches, unfortunately there are many others and some extremely complicated. For these seek a doctor's advice. Most headaches can be relieved with a prescription from your doctor.

Have that prescription filled by a trusted pharmacist.
