National VFW Head Expected

Willamina — VFW national commander-in-chief, Frank C. Hilton will make his official visit to Oregon at the Willamina post Monday evening, April 21. A banquet will be held at 7 p.m. at the VFW Memorial hall.

The Willamina post is host to the top officials of the organization as the result of a membership drive which showed an increase of 200 per cent for the post.

District and state officials are expected to attend the banquet, which will be presided over by Gary Hanson, district commander; Wayne Ellis, commander; and Ray Morrison, past commander.

Commander Hilton enlisted as a private in the army in 1942, later going overseas to Europe, where he was assigned to the Allied Forces headquarters, and had a year of active service in the Italian campaign, returning to the U. S. as a captain.

Commander Hilton is a member of the Loyal Order of Moose, Rotary International, the Grange and Christ Episcopal church in his home city of Reading, Pa. He is also a 32nd degree Mason.

Woodburn — The regular meeting of the Woodburn Toastmasters' club will be held Tuesday, April 22, with a dinner meeting at 6:15 p.m. at the American Legion hall. Ralph Pickering will preside; James Peterson will be toastmaster; Glen Ahre, master evaluator, and Arvid Ostrom, table topics chairman.

Speakers will be Philip Branson, Lester Lundblad, Clair Nibler, Ralph Pickering, Lyman Seely and Mark Thompson, with Malvin Bilyeu, Gerald Butcher, William E. Dunn, Jr., William Downs, Lloyd Froom and Lynn Simon, as evaluators.

Charter night has been set for May 13, when wives of the members will be guests. Invitations have been extended to the Salem and Capital Toastmasters and their wives to attend. Evan T. Hamilton of Portland, district governor of district No. 7, will present the charter and Earl T. Hayes of Albany, governor of district No. 2, and Lt. Governor John W. Buck of Corvallis will also be present.

Woodburn High Presents Play

Woodburn — A full house greeted the presentation of the junior class play, "The Show Off," a comedy in three acts by George Kelly, at the high school gymnasium Friday evening, April 18, directed by Mrs. Helen Jones.

The cast included Harriet Weigel as Clara; Eve Allen as Mrs. Fisher; Phyllis Roberts as Amy; Merrill Smith as Frank Hyland; Stanley Johnson as Mr. Fisher; Robert Baumann as Mr. Gill; Joyce Yuraneck as Mrs. Rogers; San VanArsdale as Joe, and Willard Thompson as Aubrey Piper, the "show off," who handled the difficult role with ease. Members of the cast were well suited to the roles portrayed and the play was well presented.

Members of the production staff included: Dixie Rudd as assistant director; Ervin Werner and Don Slover, set designers; Ervin Werner, stage manager; Donald Slover, assistant manager; Wayne and Kay Workman and Harlan McCormick, stage crew; Shirley Knox and Lorna Henderson, business and ticket managers; Benton Dailey, business advisor; Marjorie Chitwood and Martha Austin, prompters; Miss Leona Hopkins, Dollie Cummings and Sherwood Thompson, programs; Karen Magnuson, Shirley Baglien, Lois Hansen, Mary Yuraneck and Janice Painter, properties; Pat Brundidge, Mildred Parton, Shirley Anderson and Wanda Zaring, costumes.

Dorothy Rice was head usher, assisted by Wanda Zering, Shirley Anderson, Delmar Wolf, Wilma Parton, Duane Baird and Jim Huggill.

Large Group Joins Legion At Lebanon

Lebanon — The American Legion, Santiam post, initiated 35 new members Thursday night, the largest single initiated group in state history. Congratulations to the local post were offered by James Murphy, district commander from Junction City, who initiated the class.

Lebanon membership now stands at 416, which is 41 over the quota set by the state, but nine under the national quota. Post Commander Cecl Botkin pledged an April drive to meet the national figure before May 1.

Assistant State Fire Marshal Chuck Taylor was present and pictures were shown by George Neep of the Neep Equipment Co., Portland. Mayor Martin of Stayton attended and offered an address of welcome to the group.

The next meeting will be held in Brownsville, May 21, and further competitive drills will be held. Leonard J. Thoma, Lebanon, formerly of Stayton, is president of the association.

Farmer's Night For Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel — "A Farmer's Night" will be held at the May 12 meeting of the Mt. Angel Business Men's club, it was decided by members of the club when they met for a dinner meeting Monday evening in the Mt. Angel hotel.

Farmers' night will be held in the St. Mary's school dining hall, with each member bringing two farmer friends.

The club voted a full scholarship to a pupil from St. Mary's grade school to attend the 4-H club summer school at Corvallis this summer.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. A. J. Bigler, 4-H club leader; Mrs. Mae Melchior, owner of the new Flora-Jo Ladies' Apparel shop, which she opened March 1, and Wilbert Aman, farmer living west of town.

A report was given by George Schmidt, union broker, who flew to Washington, D. C., to attend a price stabilizing board meeting.

William Bean, sports chairman, reported on local baseball prospects, with Mt. Angel entering the league, with two teams from Eugene, one each from Albany, Salem, Silverton and Mt. Angel. Substantial individual donations were made, together with the $300 backing by the Business Men's club. The general opinion appeared that outright donations to the baseball club was preferred to the varied contributions demanded by the Flax Festival.

RESULTS of the rugged 1415.4 mile Mobilgas Economy Run to Sun Valley dramatically prove the inherent economy of 1952 cars under high speed operation.

CLASS WINNERS WERE: CLASS A, Ford "6" Mainline, 25.46 mpg; CLASS B, Kaiser De Luxe, 24.64 mpg; CLASS C, Mercury Monterey, 25.40 mpg; CLASS D, Hudson Wasp, 20.46 mpg; CLASS E, De Soto Firestone 8, 6 pass., 21.27 mpg; CLASS F, Chrysler Saratoga, 19.02 mpg; CLASS G, Lincoln Capri, 22.35 mpg; CLASS H, Chrysler Saratoga, 8 pass., 17.85 mpg; CLASS I, Chrysler Crown Imperial, 16.23 mpg; Special Lightweight 4-Cyl. Class, Henry J Corsair, 30.85 mpg; Special Lightweight 6-Cyl. Class, Plymouth Concord, 23.07 mpg. The Mercury Monterey took the sweepstakes prize with a figure of 25.40 miles per gallon. Running under identical competitive conditions, the 26 strictly stock American cars averaged 22.0 miles per gallon.

WINNERS . . . were picked in 11 classes, each car being judged on its performance, pound for pound, compared to others within that price class. Winners were selected on a handicap basis so that every competitor had equal chance. Handicapping was on a "ton-mile" basis: car weight is multiplied by the number of miles, and per gallon" figure. The sweepstakes winner is that car which delivered the highest "ton-miles per gallon" of all participants in all classes.

IT WAS OFFICIAL — was sanctioned and supervised by the Contest Board, American Automobile Association.

GASOLINES WERE STRICTLY STOCK — Drivers used Mobilgas or Mobilgas Special (premium), whichever they preferred. Regular Mobilgas protected the engine, and all running gear was lubricated with Mobilgrees.

TO GET ALL THE MILEAGE YOUR CAR CAN DELIVER — Economy Run drivers urge these three rules: drive sanely, keep your car in good mechanical condition, and use Mobilgas.
