

Miss Dorothy Wagner

Presbyterial Sets Meeting In Eugene

"We Have Found Him... Come!" is the theme for the 61st annual meeting of the Willamette Presbyterial society, April 24, 25 at Eugene. Mrs. Glen Sanders, Salem, is program chairman.

The principal speaker for the two-day meeting will be Miss Dorothy Wagner of San Francisco, secretary for the board of foreign missions for the western area. Miss Wagner was graduated from Washington university at St. Louis with Phi Beta Kappa honors and later received her master's degree from the same institution. After one year of college teaching in this country she went to China as a missionary under the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterial church where she engaged in evangelistic and educational work in Hualiyuan Changsha. Her topics will be "Wanted People," "Tragedy and Triumph in Korea," and "China Calling."

State Senator Philip S. Hitchcock of Klamath Falls, chairman of social education and action of the synod of Oregon, will be the speaker of the evening April 24 on the subject, "The Challenge to the Church in Social Education and Action."

Other women going from Salem are Mrs. E. A. Collier, Mrs. Paul Poling, Mrs. Walter Pugh.

To augment the theme of the two-day meeting will be music by choir, male quartet, women's trio and special solo numbers. All sessions will be held at Central Presbyterial church with Fairmount church assisting.

Commemorating the sesquicentennial year of the board of national missions of the Presbyterial church, Mrs. Harry Van Orsdale of Woodburn will speak on "One Hundred and Fifty Years of National Missions."

Mrs. A. B. Cutler of Portland, president of the Oregon Synodical society, will lead a conference on world service. There will also be conferences for all local and Presbyterial officers.

Attending from this area will be women from Aurora, Woodburn, Gervais, Mill City, Dallas, Independence and Salem. From Salem will be Mrs. N. J. Lindgren, president of the Missionary society, Miss Elizabeth Hogg, vice president, Mrs. Paul Shepard and others.

Representing the Presbyterial society from Salem will be Mrs. J. C. Singleton, recording secretary; Mrs. Eugene Manack, children's secretary; Mrs. Glen Sanders, vice president; from Woodburn, Mrs. Harry Van Orsdale, world service secretary; Mrs. Robert Harper, chairman of nominating committee from Gervais. Also from Gervais will be Mrs. D. B. Durette, Westminster fellowship adviser and from Mill City, W. W. Allen, overseas and national missions sewing.

Other women going from Salem are Mrs. Paul Poling, Mrs. H. J. Lantis, Mrs. J. C. Singleton, Mrs. Walter Pugh and Mrs. Glen Sanders.

Mrs. Keller Heads DAR

Woodburn — Mrs. Lester Keller of Hubbard was elected regent of Belle Passi chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at the regular chapter meeting, Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Ronald Pomeroy at Pedee. Mrs. Keller succeeds Mrs. A. G. Douglas of Woodburn.

Other officers elected are Mrs. Ray Baker, vice regent; Mrs. Drexel White, chaplain; Mrs. Karl Engelman, secretary; Mrs. Mark Thompson, treasurer; Mrs. A. G. Douglas, registrar; Mrs. H. F. Butterfield, librarian, and Mrs. W. J. Wilson and Miss Amy Harding, historians.

The new officers will be installed May 15 at the annual mother-daughter tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Karl Engelman at Butteville when the "good citizenship" girls sponsored by the chapter will be honored. The girls to be honor guests are Miss Dorothy Rice of Woodburn high school and Miss Marlene Connor of North Marion high school.

A no-host luncheon preceded the meeting Thursday.

A report on the state conference at Eugene on March 16, 17 and 18 and on the Washington state conference at Longview on March 19, 20 and 21, were given by Mrs. Douglas, who attended both conferences. She was formerly regent of the Longview chapter.

Plans were made to decorate the graves of deceased members on May 29 at Belle Passi, Hubbard and Rock Green cemeteries.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. G. T. White of Monitor, Mrs. Kate Pomeroy of Salem, Mrs. Lance White of Elliott Prairie and Mrs. Ann Campbell of Hubbard.

At Amaranth Meeting

A social meeting was held Saturday night for Hanna Rosa court, Order of the Amaranth. The group met for dancing and cards at Masonic temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Cummings Reid and Mr. and Mrs. L. Reece of Sweet Home were guests. Mr. and Mrs. Reid presented a skit for the group. Other entertainment included a reading by Jim Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. James Barrell were refreshment committee chairmen and were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Herfig, Mr. and Mrs. Don Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Brownie Bangert, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gilmer.

Legion Groups At St. Paul

Official visitor at the St. Paul meeting of the Marion County assembly Friday evening, April 18, was the president of district No. 2, American Legion auxiliary, Mrs. Fred Lucht of the Mt. Angel unit.

Mrs. Lucht announced the progress of the project program, stressing membership to complete the assigned quota which lacks only a few members to make the goal.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Frank Sems of Scio, Mrs. Rae Pursley of Aurora, vice president, presided.

The next meeting of the council and assembly will be with the Hubbard and Kingwood units as host groups, at Hubbard.

Mrs. Ted Ullakko, Salem, flag code chairman, and her assistant, Mrs. D. D. Hatcher, were complimented on their arrangement of directing the flag code program in the schools and the presenting of cash awards.

Flag code school winners were: First division, St. Paul; second, Central Howell and Macleay; third division, Victor Point; fourth, Bethany, and fifth, Stayton. The classifications were according to number of students in the contests. Honorable mentions were given to Lash Center, Broadacres, Willard, Pioneer, Union, Sunnyside, Cloverdale, Silvercrest, Shaw, Donald, Brooks, Monitor, Aumsville, Silverton, Woodburn and Keizer.

Twelve auxiliary units of Marion county were represented at the assembly.

Following the business session the assembly members were guests of the council, the men's group, for the showing of sound colored movies of Sun Valley, Idaho.

Supper was served to both the council and assembly members by the St. Paul unit and post.
