

In The Valley

By MIKE FORBES

Cub Scouting Awards Made

Woodburn — Four Webelos awards, the highest rank in Cub Scouting, were presented to Douglas Kersten, Monte Palmer, Joe Nibler and Pat Gamroth, at the regular meeting of the Woodburn Cub Scout pack Friday night at the Washington school. Sam Smith, Scoutmaster of troop 59, received the four boys into the Scout troop and also presented the tenderfoot Boy Scout badge to Pat Gamroth. Johnny Klapp of Salem, executive from the Salem Scout office, was present and assisted Cubmaster Ralph Pickering in the presentation of the Webelos awards.

A new boy accepted into the Cub Scout pack is Timothy Heiden.

Other awards presented by Cubmaster Pickering are: Keith Nibler, lion silver arrow; Jimmy Coleman, wolf badge; Robert Manning, lion badge; Billy Barrett, lion gold arrow; Gary Simon, wolf gold and silver arrow; Jody Greeninger, wolf gold arrow; Joe Nibler, lion silver arrow.

"Growing Things" was the theme for the month, with the boys dressed in costumes representing vegetables and bugs. Timothy Heiden presented a cucumber garden in a cake pan and Keith Nibler exhibited a flower pot of growing nasturtiums.

Den 1 received the award for the month for having the most parents present.

The next meeting, which will be the last meeting of the season, will be May 23.

Softball teams are being organized and will be playing during the summer months. A summer picnic is also planned.

May 17 is the date set for a trip to the Portland airport, when the Cubs will be guests of Bob Renn of Woodburn, copilot for Governor Douglas McKay.

Willamina

Willamina—The Pinocchio club met Tuesday at the home of Thelma Mulford in Sheridan. Roseada Haenny won high, Marjorie Willhite second and Clara Krauthoefer low. Etta Ladd and Ann Denton won pinocchio prize. The next meeting will be at the home of Kay Sparks in Sheridan.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stillwell of Willamina are the parents of a baby daughter, Judy Ann, born April 19 in McMinnville. Grandparents are Mrs. Daisy Stillwell of Sheridan and Mr. and Mrs. John Brendon of Willamina.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bailey of Willamina are the parents of a son, John Thomas, born April 20, at the McMinnville hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bailey and Even Evenson are grandparents.

Johnny Mode, Don Booth and Phillip Mitchell arrived home this week on leave from the navy in San Francisco. Del and Ronny Eggert, who have been at boot camp at San Diego, are also home.

The fire department was called out Tuesday night for a chimney fire at the K. E. Shetterly home. James Stillwell arrived home Tuesday by plane from Guam, where he is stationed with the navy, to be with his wife and new baby daughter.

Funeral services were held Friday, April 25, in the chapel of Holman, Hankins and Rillance in Oregon City for Wesley Charles McNeil, 35, who was killed Monday night near Bellevue, when his car left the highway and turned end over end for 262 feet. Vault entombment was in Mountain View cemetery.

McNeil was the owner-operator of the Willamina tavern and hotel for the past four years. His divorced wife, eJanne, and son, Wesley Charles, Jr., about 7, live in Jennings Lodge, and his mother, Mrs. Lavada McNeil is a resident of West Linn.

A marine recruiting sergeant from the Salem office is now at the local post office every Tuesday morning to interview young men and women interested in the marines.

Mr. and Mrs. Miner C. Clark of East Arlington, Va., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Gladys Nella, to Donald Elton Colburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Colburn of Willamina.

Miss Clark received a Bachelor of Education degree from Castleton State Teachers college and a Master of Arts degree from Ohio State university. She is now an instructor at New York State college for teachers at Buffalo.

Mr. Colburn received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Asbury college in Kentucky and is now studying for a Bachelor of Divinity degree at Drew Theological seminary in Madison, N. J. Plans are being made for a late summer wedding.

Webfoot

Webfoot—Honoring Mrs. Anna Holdredge, charter member of the Webfoot Social club when it was organized in 1908, a surprise birthday party was held at her home Friday, April 25. It was her 82nd birthday.

She received gifts, cards and letters and each member brought her a plant. Ice cream and cake were served.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Holdredge, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Roberts, Mrs. Gertrude Morgareidge, Mrs. Geneva Morgareidge, Mrs. Oden Morgareidge and two daughters, Mrs. Clayton Richards and Mrs. John Johnson.

Amity

The Three Links club of Industry Rebekah lodge held its April meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Rose Wood, Wednesday evening, April 23.

New officers elected were: Mrs. Cordie Morrison, president; Mrs. Gertrude M. Richter, vice president; Mrs. Ralph Wood, secretary; and Mrs. John Gibbs, treasurer.

Membership committee members are Cora Newman, Verishia Newby, Hazle Gibbs and Elma Nason, to remember shut-ins.

Plans were made for the annual dinner, May 28, and committees appointed to complete the arrangements. The dinner will be served at the IOOF hall at 7 p.m.

Mrs. A. W. Newby won the prize and was presented with a clump of yellow primroses.

C. A. Fuller, 77, a former business man of Amity, recently of Alturas, Calif., died Sunday, April 20. He was born in Winona, Minn., July 13, 1875. Funeral services were held in Alturas Tuesday, April 22.

Surviving are the widow, and four sons: Ernest Fuller, Orthena, Idaho; Francis, Isee, Oregon; Arthur of Alturas, Calif.; Paul of Twin Falls, Idaho; nine grandchildren, one great grandchild, one brother John Fuller, Salem. Fuller was office manager of the Lovelace Logging company in Candy, Calif.

Amity high school band and chorus were judged excellent at the spring music contest at Linfield college.

Amity, a class C school (less than 250 students), received the following ratings: Band, a 2 rating, along with four other bands; Girls Glee club, A rating, the highest of all the choruses from the class C schools. The Amity grade school competed for comment only, and received very constructive criticism.

The director was Ted Mesang of OSC. Joe M. Barr was director for Amity bands and chorus.

Unionvale

Unionvale—Mrs. Lewis Hackworth was honored with a pink and blue shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon Tuesday evening. Mrs. Howard Dixon was co-hostess.

Games were played and the prize winners were Mrs. Hackworth, Helen Hackworth and Mrs. Reeder. Audrey Zintner won low.

Mrs. Worthington baked and decorated the large chiffon cake. Mrs. Dixon baked a pink and blue cake. Mrs. Hackworth opened the gifts.

Marie Davis and Maxine Stacy assisted in serving cake, jelly, coffee and tea.

Mrs. Everett Hackworth of Portland came the farthest to attend. She is a sister-in-law of the guest of honor.

Members of the Unionvale home extension unit attended the afternoon meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Noble Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Alma Wells gave the lesson on "Better Buying of Food." Mrs. Noble served refreshments. This is the last regular meeting for the season. The opening meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stockhoff next October.

Newly elected officers of Unionvale unit are chairman, Mrs. Carrie Kidd; vice chairman, Mrs. Clark Noble; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Jacob Tompkins.

Nine members of the Unionvale home extension unit attended the joint meeting with the Hopewell unit held Thursday at the Hopewell Evangelical United Brethren church. Miss Virginia Magness of Wheatland district talked on her recent trip to Mexico. The noon dinner featured Mexican food.

The home extension unit's spring festival will be held at the 4-H club building in McMinnville Thursday May 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker of Unionvale called on the Earl Fleming family at Philomath Wednesday evening.

Earl Fleming with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fleming and family, are former residents of Unionvale.

Silverton PTA To Meet May 1

Silverton—Mrs. C. B. Calkins, president, is announcing the Thursday evening, May 1, meeting of the parent-teacher association at the Eugene Field auditorium. The program theme is "Evaluations."

At the close of the planned program, Mrs. Fred Corn of Depoe Bay, PTA regional vice president, will install elected officers for the coming school year term.

Miss Marguerite Halleck will give a review of the history of the local association of the past year. Mrs. Carleene King will tell of the state PTA convention to which she went as a delegate from Silverton to Pendleton.

M. B. Ford, principal of the Eugene Field grade school, will show movies on the plans of civil defense for local protection regularly and in case of emergencies.

The "Reorganization Bill," under direction of the Holy Report, will be explained by Robert Miller, dean of boys, as a member of the senior high school faculty.

Miss Geraldine French, supervisor and instructor in the Bible classes under direction of the Silverton ministerial association, is presenting in a brief concert, the "Mother Singers" choral group.

The Saturday PTA baked food sale, given at the Sproutz-Keitz store, is for the tape-recorder school fund.

Independence

Mr. and Mrs. Riley J. Roads are the parents of a daughter, Katherine Bonnie, born April 14. The baby weighed 8 pounds and 1 ounce.

Mrs. L. J. Melsha and children of San Francisco are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hall, and expects to be here for about six weeks. Mr. Melsha is on a trip with the Navy to Japan on a weather ship.

Mrs. W. H. Thurston, who recently underwent heart surgery at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, is reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

Mrs. C. E. Bisbee underwent surgery at the Salem General hospital Monday and is reported to be doing very well.

Mrs. Al Vernon has been released from the Salem General hospital and is convalescing at home. She will be confined to bed for a week or more, but is recovering satisfactorily.

House guests for the past week at the home of Mrs. Walter Smith were her father, N. F. Gillespie of Centralla, Wash., and her brother, James F. Gillespie of Sacramento, Calif.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Popoff and family were her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Kirechenko and children of Santa Rosa, Calif.

Alan Harwood of Aberdeen, Wash., spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harwood.

W. E. Reynolds and his mother, Mrs. Sadie Reynolds, left by plane for Johnson, Kans., called there by the death of a son-in-law. Mrs. Reynolds plans to remain in Kansas with her daughter for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Averill and two sons, James and Raymond, of San Mateo, Calif., returned to their home last week after spending some time with Mrs. Averill's mother, Mrs. Gusie Caley, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caley and two children.

Mrs. Eva Arnold of Coon, Iowa, and Mrs. Florence Wright of Bedford, Iowa, have been guests for the past two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bullock.

The neighbors of Woodcraft held a potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. Charles Kurre Friday afternoon. Those present were Mesdames W. P. Ramey, Joe Oberson, Percy Dickinson, F. Wattenbarger, William Mattison, Martin Gentemann and Henry Stortle.

The last meeting of the year for the Kill Kare Bridge club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Williams in Salem. A pot luck supper preceded the play of bridge. Mr. and Mrs. G. Mattison won high score for the year.

Amity

Amity—Mrs. W. H. Loop was hostess to the Baptist Women's Mission circle Friday afternoon, April 25. Mrs. Edward Lehman presided.

New officers elected were: President, Mrs. Andrew Wake-man; vice president, Mrs. E. H. Lehman; secretary - treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Loop.

The new officers will be installed in May. The various department chairmen gave reports of the year's work.

Mrs. E. H. Lehman will be the hostess in May. Reports from the Baptist women's rally in Carlton, April 17, were given.

Mrs. J. O. Casteel gave the lesson.

Rev. Richard Ice, pastor of the church, and Mrs. Audrey Bruch and her two small daughters were guests.

The Amity grade school held open house Thursday evening.

Sheridan

Sheridan — Plans have now been made for the annual May Day celebration at the Sheridan high school. The date has been set for May 3. Queen Louise Jones will rule over the May Day celebration. The coronation will be held at 10 a.m. and the day will end in the evening with a dance at 8:45 o'clock. The Melody Makers will furnish the music.

Queen Louise I will be escorted by Richard Shaw, and the maid of honor, Doris Rogers, will be escorted by Eugene Anderson. Marlyn Billeter, the junior princess, will be escorted by Neal Sanders, and Jeanne Aaron, the other junior princess will be escorted by Jerry Dailey.

Committees for the annual May Day celebration have been named. They include: Coronation, Mrs. Fern Eberhart, advisor; Jessie Tuttle, Laureen Hadley and Gladys Nordin; open house, Miss Neal, advisor; Erna Hutchins, Mary Lou Henton, Minnie Kampstra, Verla Kunzler, Barbara Tatom, Lester Cody, Malinda Jones and Vernon Birks;

Decoration of dance, Mr. Norman Vandehay, advisor, Mary Ivie, Leonard Hampton, Marlyn Sparks, Dick Kunzler, Donna Tatom, Clair Thomas, Roberta Tolman, Dennis Jones, Barbara Byrkit; decoration of grounds, Mr. Barker, advisor, Janet Graves, Lee Yoder, Larry Williams, Don Stuck, Roger Peterson, Norman McKibben, Charles Rogers, Betty Lou Kooy, Charlene Mulford and Vietta Pruitt;

Publicity, Miss Dennis, advisor, Byron Woods, Jerry Dally, Derry Dally; programs, Miss Foshag, advisor, Margie Flateau, Helen Mykleby, Marie Walton, Dolores Smith; dance refreshments and programs, Mrs. Harrison, advisor, Bonnie Wallace, Joann Crammer, Sharon Brandt, Ronda Jossi; construction, Mr. Vandehay, advisor, Frank Nelson, Donald Blanchard, Bob Baller, Don Baird, Harris Sanders, Donald Halferty, Dick McGuffin, Ron Booth, Jerry Pervis; Grounds, Mrs. Blaser, advisor, Ronnie Herron, Larry Chamberlain, Ted Crammer, James Crammer, Robert Duncan, Larry Green, Gerald Hamilton; cleanup, Mr. Barker, Mr. Blaser, advisors, Wayne Lash, Bill Byerly, Don Cranfill, Neal Sanders, Weldon Wood, Phil Stuck, May Wilder, Bill Smith; refreshments and concessions, Mrs. Harrison, advisor, Virginia Holdgrafer, Mary Daeges, Joyce Nelson, Frances Peterson; sports committee, Mr. Barker and Mr. Blaser, Francine Girsberger, Patty Hammersmith and Gene Anderson.

Committee appointments have been made for the annual Phil Sheridan Day's celebration, which will be June 20 and 21 this year. They include: General chairman, Cliff Brite and R. R. Board; junior parade, PTA, Dorothy Krauthoefer and Thelma Mulford, co-chairmen; junior queen and court, FL club, Elaine Bloom, committee chairman; park program, Otto W. Heider; dances, Bob Criger and Art Hebert; Phil Sheridan parade, Saturday, Fred Bozeman, chairman; hotcake breakfast, Ed Horswill; street and business house decoration, Vincent Russell; carnival chairman, Francis Bradley; publicity, Dean Holmes, B. O. Swails; honored guests, E. J. Bayliss, and finance chairman, Frances Flynn.

Students at the Sheridan high school who are on the honor roll include:

Freshmen: Yvonne Blair, Barbara Hughey, Elsie Peterson and Susie Stutzman. Sophomores: Suzann Brandt, Elizabeth Eastburn, Gerald Gardner and Jerry Papen.

Juniors: Jeanne Aaron, Jerry Holdgrafer, Frances Peterson, Dolores Smith, Maree Rose Walton and Ted Williams. Seniors: Mary Daeges, Laureen Hadley, Margery Flatau, Erna Faye Hutchins and Mary Ivie.

Capt. Lewis Powell, pilot of the New York-Los Angeles airliner which crashed and burned last week near Los Angeles, was a former Sheridan resident. His sister is Mrs. Floyd Baird of Sheridan. He attended school here, and also visited here many times during the 21 years he was a pilot. Immediate survivors are his widow, a daughter and two sons.

Mrs. Fred Lucht, Mt. Angel, president of district two, department of Oregon, American Legion auxiliary, will make her official visit to Sheridan Monday, April 28. All members are urged to attend. Earl Smith of McMinnville, Yamhill county probation officers, will speak on child welfare. A tea will be held Monday afternoon from 3 to 5, honoring Mrs. Lucht, at the

David Neitling Speech Winner

Stayton — In a close elimination contest Friday night at Stayton, David Neitling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Neitling of Stayton, edged out Jerry Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Martin, to become the delegate from this area to join the "United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth this summer."

Under sponsorship of the IOOF, David will join 350 other delegates this summer (of whom 14 are from Oregon) on a cross-country trek by chartered bus, through parts of Canada as well as the U. S., and ending in New York for six days observation of the United Nations in action. Many points of historical and current interest will be visited en route.

The choice of a delegate was on the basis of extemporaneous speeches based on conducted tours through Salem industries made by the six finalists Friday. Written essays and general background were also taken into consideration.

Scotts Mills

The PTA held its regular meeting recently for election of officers. Elected to serve the coming school year were Marion Groshong, president; Mrs. Harry Turner, vice president; Mrs. Frank Fink, secretary; Mrs. Russell Nelson, treasurer.

The Scotts Mills Lumber company is having erected a garage and machine shop for use of the mill. John Jacobson is owner.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinnie Sowa are building a new house on their ranch near Lone Pine.

Ivan Smith returned home from a visit with relatives at Mayville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Melton and sons moved from their home on Butte Creek road to the residence formerly occupied by the Elmo Schears.

Mr. and Mrs. John Talley have returned from a motor trip to Oklahoma.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Cathey came to spend a vacation at their summer home on Butte Creek Road.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ballard moved to Forest Grove.

Mrs. Arthur Rich is visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson in Portland.

Kurt Wiedeman and Miss Edna Bohm were married recently.

Mrs. John Plas and daughter, Anna Louise, are leaving by train for points east, including Chicago and New York City where they will visit relatives.

Kitchenware Party

Wheatland—Mrs. Arnold Braat entertained 20 friends at a kitchenware party at her home in the Wheatland district, beginning at 10 a.m. Friday.

home of Mrs. A. J. Titus in Sheridan.

Fred Lucht, district American Legion vice commander, will visit Monday, April 28, at the Sheridan post.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kroft of Harrisburg are the parents of a daughter, Judith Marlene, born April 17. Mrs. Kroft is the former Iris Evers of Sheridan.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Sackett of Portland are the parents of a son, Jeffrey Martin, born April 20 at the Portland Sanitarium.

Donna Mae Ryan and Barbara Smith were honored on their birthdays this week at a party given by their mothers, Mrs. Ann Ryan and Mrs. Olive Smith. Guests included Betty Jo Ellis, Linda Carlson, June Blair, Kathleen Ivie, Joan Schader, Ina Mae Kunzler, Carol Jean Epley, Sharon Cole, Shirley Willhite, Mary Lou Vincent and Helen Aaron.

At the Cub Scout pack meeting this week many awards were made, including bobcat pins to Larry Thompson and Jimmie Delker; wolf badges, Sage Farris, Harold Levy, Ricky Funk, Tommy Nelson, Douglas Stewart, John Hebert, Raymond Evans, Wayne Fisher, Philip Ever; bear badges, Dennis McCord, Bruce Halseth, Roger Carlson, Kenneth Swails, Lloyd Roberts, Dolph Eberhart, Douglas Dailey, Douglas Bryant, Dennis McQueney; gold arrows, Lloyd Roberts, Howard Ellis, Alton Anderson, Douglas Dailey; silver arrows, Howard Ellis, two to Alton Anderson, two to Dennis Smith, Douglas Dailey.

Den Chief Gene Mendenhall finished his electives in the bear and lion books, to receive two gold arrows and two silver arrows.

The Methodist church will hold church school from June 2 to 13. The school will be held in the church.

Buena Vista

Mrs. Olan Culbertson has returned home from a Salem hospital where she had surgery.

A former resident, Wilbur Devine, died last week. They used to live in Buena Vista. His wife will be remembered as Leah Nash.

Little Carolyn Adams of Eugene spent the last week with her great grandmother, Mrs. Georgia Prather. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Murry Adams, came for her Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Prather drove to Portland and helped celebrate Paul Doty's birthday. He had dinner at the Doty home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krauger entertained for her father, Andrew Anderson, over the weekend. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Gosselin, Mrs. Ted Paulson. Miss Done Wood of Vancouver, B. C.

Cleaning day at the community hall Thursday was done by Mrs. Leon Loy, Mrs. Evadna Prather, Mrs. Olive Wells, Mrs. Cecil Hultman, Mrs. Willard Pruett, and Mrs. Jonas Graber, a general cleaning, curtains laundered, windows washed, floors waxed and a serving table made. The next club meeting will be Wednesday, April 30, with Mrs. Anthea McLaughlin and Henrietta Busby as hostesses with Mrs. Perry Wells having the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Withrow attended the wedding of Johnny Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Peterson, of Oak Point. The wedding was in Eugene.

Little Gary Moore is much better after his long illness. He still has to stay in town to be

President's Council Meets at Woodburn

Woodburn—A meeting of the President's Council was held Friday night at the library with Mrs. O. R. Randall, president of the Woodburn Woman's club, substituting as presiding officer for Charles Tyler, commander of the Woodburn post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, who will preside at the next meeting, May 23.

Organizations represented were the Woodburn Rotary club by Rev. Arthur Goble, Woodburn Jaycees by Philip Branson, Junior Woman's club by Mrs. Wayne Bueers, Jaycee-Ettes by Mrs. L. H. Hildebrandt, Business and Professional Women's club by Mrs. O. J. Adkinson, American Legion auxiliary by Mrs. Floyd Maricle and Woodburn Woman's club by Mrs. O. R. Randall.

near the doctor, but is out of the hospital now.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Withrow were visitors at the Cecil Hultman home Monday evening, and Mrs. Herman Moritz of Albany was a visitor Wednesday.

EL SINORE

Open at 8:45 P.M.
RIGHT NOW!
2 Gems from MGM!

JANET LEIGH - PETER LAWFORD

"Just this Once"

— and —

Star-Filled Co-Hit!

JOHNSON - MCCUIRE - ROMAN

INVITATION

— Extra! —

Tom & Jerry Cartoon

Warner News

GRAND

Continuous from 1:00 P.M. Daily!
TOMORROW!

A Great Mid-Week Double-Hit Bargain
Program Loaded with Entertainment!

The slickest CON MAN of them all!

ROBERT CUMMINGS
TERRY MOORE - JEROME COURTLAND

"THE BAREFOOT MAILMAN"

— Plus this 2nd Star-Studded Treat! —

EDW. G. ROBINSON - CUMMINGS
RICHARD GREENE

Operation X

— FOR YOUR ADDED ENJOYMENT! —
WARNER COLOR CARTOON - FOX NEWS

It's marvelous...
It's a miracle...

GREASE-PROOF...STAIN-PROOF...FADE-PROOF

SLOANE
Koroseal*Tile
SPECIAL

only 14¢
per 9" x 9" tile

Wipe off any stain with a damp cloth.

Yes, dried ink will wipe right off.

You won't believe it until you see it! Here's a floor that won't chip, scratch, or crack. It's the new vinyl plastic. The colors are locked in for life. Most floors get shabby in spots. Koroseal won't—it stays beautiful!

A dream for wear and the only care needed is a quick once-over with a damp cloth. Dirt can't cling to its non-porous surface. Create your own floor design. You have six lovely colors to choose from. And you can install it yourself—only $14.98 to cover a 6 x 10 kitchen.

Come in and let us show you this miracle floor today!

R. L. Lefstrom Co

340 Court

We give 24¢ Green Stamps

Shattuc's Chatteau

OPEN EVERY MONDAY

Hollywood
Salem's Only Home-Owned Theatre
NOW SHOWING - OPEN 8:45
MASON - GARDNER
Technicolor
PANDORA AND THE FLYING DUTCHMAN
Second Feature
"TALES OF ROBIN HOOD"