St. Paul

St. Paul — The union high school junior-senior prom, open to the public as well as the students of the St. Paul high school, will be held Friday night, May 2. The dance is a semi-formal event that will be held in the St. Paul city hall under the sponsorship of the junior class. Music for the dance will be provided by Ussel Wolfer and his orchestra, of Salem. Chaperones for the dance will be the parents of the junior class students. Honored guests for the evening will be the senior class and their dates, the faculty of St. Paul union high school, Mayor and Mrs. E. C. Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. Keiso Draper. Dancing will begin at 9:00 and continue until 12:00 p.m.

The St. Paul Rod and Gun club is sponsoring a shoot at the St. Paul Rod and Gun club grounds south of the St. Paul rodeo grounds on Sunday, May 4. The club held a successful shoot several weeks ago at which time it dedicated its new clubhouse and it hopes that folks interested in trap shooting will turn out again as well as they did in the past. Cascade hams and bacons will be given for prizes and there will be ammunition for sale on the grounds.

The St. Paul union high school will have an up-to-date athletic plant with the start of the next school year. At this time the Salem Sand and Gravel company has just completed building a modern football and baseball field as well as a track on the grounds of the new high school.

The football field has been tiled and a crown put in the center of the field to aid in quick drainage during the fall wet weather. Several inches of top soil have been added and a turf is now being planted. The baseball field also has been leveled and a new backstop installed. The infield will be seeded into a turf as soon as school is out.

A 440-yard track has been graded around the football fields but it will not be completed further until a later time. At present it will remain a dirt track.

Coaches returning to the high school faculty next fall are Ned Gleason for football and track and Buck Weatherill for basketball and baseball.
