

In The Valley

By MIKE FORBES

Hopewell

Hopewell — Rev. H. E. Widmer showed pictures of mission work in Ecuador at the evening service April 27.

The local church conference will be held at the Hopewell E. U. B. church Thursday evening, May 1, at 8 o'clock, with Rev. W. C. Hines of Portland, superintendent of the Oregon conference, in charge.

The budget for the local church will be decided, stewards of the church appointed, and a delegate and alternate will be elected for the annual conference to be held in Salem in July. All officers and members of the Hopewell church are urged to attend.

The Hopewell Community club will hold its May meeting April 30 at 8 p.m. A play, presented by the Spring Valley Sunshine club and the Spring Valley Community club members, will provide entertainment, and refreshments will be served, with a charge, the proceeds to be divided equally between the Hopewell and Spring Valley clubs.

Signposts for the roads of Hopewell are in process of building and will be erected soon.

The annual election of officers of the church, Sunday school and youth fellowship will be held May 4.

The Hopewell and Unionvale Home Extension units held a joint meeting at the Hopewell church April 24. Election of officers was the main business of the morning. Thelma Van Dorn was elected chairman; Mary Robinson, vice chairman, and Dorothy Tarter, secretary-treasurer. The installation will take place at the May 28 meeting.

Mrs. Ross Rogers was in charge of the program in the afternoon on Mexico. Mrs. Adolph Hrabka of the Unionvale unit spoke on the geography of the country, and Mrs. Jane Ediger gave a whistling solo, "Estrellita," and accompanied the singing. Mrs. Barbara Fuqua gave a book report, Mrs. Lenna Wilson told of the significance of the bull fights, Mrs. Rogers talked on the history of the Mexican War, and Miss Virginia Magnus told of her trip to Mexico City, and the customs and life as she observed it.

Spring festival of the Yamhill county Home Extension units will be held in McMinnville May 1, and the Hopewell unit will have an exhibit on public sanitation. Mrs. Ethel Geisler and her group of Hopewell unit members will present a Mexican dance in the afternoon. Those taking part are: Dorothy Tarter, Virginia Magnus, Rona Will, Mary Tompkins, Mary Robinson, Jean Benedict, Lenna Wilson and Lois Wright.

The mother and daughter banquet at the Hopewell church was attended by about 80 mothers and daughters. The dinner was served under the direction of Peter Parvin, and the inter-mediate and junior boys waited on the tables.

Helen Ojua and Ila Taskinen gave two piano duets. Miss Helen Deedon of Portland gave the toast to the mothers and told of her work in week-day Christian education in Portland. John Kilpack of Portland was the speaker, telling of his work among the high school youth, in crime prevention, and of the need for guidance and Christian training. He was overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Rogers. Miss Deedon spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deedon.

Wanda and Barbara Evey of Manning, nieces of Mrs. Art Reed, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reed and attended the mother and daughter banquet. The Reeds took them to their home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Bertha Magnus returned to her home after a visit of two weeks with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Underhill of Dufur, Ore. Miss Ella Rogers, sister of Ross Rogers, of Portland, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and attended the mother and daughter banquet. Mrs. Verner Setala and three daughters, of Sherwood, were also at the banquet and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gusti Setala.

Willamina

Willamina—About 200 high school music students from the Northwest competed at Linfield college recently in a music festival, including 19 schools.

Musical groups or soloists that received the one or excellence rating in Saturday's competition were: woodwind ensembles, senior division, Willamina high school saxophone trio.

Among Yamhill county students receiving excellence ratings Friday included the Willamina high school band, under the direction of Phillip Green. The high school PTA presented Sally Edmiston and Phillip Green in a benefit concert April 25 at the high school. They were accompanied and assisted by Joyce Stevens.

Mrs. Mary Alice Armitage passed away in the Masonic Home near Forest Grove, April 25, and final services were held Monday from the Sheridan Methodist church, with interment in Sheridan Masonic cemetery. Mrs. Armitage, who was 88, had lived in the state since she was two years old, and had lived in Sheridan for 37 years before going to Forest Grove six years ago.

Survivors include a son, Hugh Walter Armitage of Sheridan; two daughters, Etta Cantford and Dortha Dickey, both of Portland; two brothers, Grant Wertz and J. S. Wertz both of Medford; and 10 grand children.

At the annual Phil Sheridan days Princess dance, held Saturday night at the VFW hall here, Sandra Clay of Sheridan was named queen for the 1952 Rodeo celebration. She will have Carol Schukar and Marlene Greenlaw, both of Willamina, as her princesses.

Scio

"Take Care of My Little Girl" will be presented by the junior class May 1-2.

May Day activities and field meet for the grade schools will be Friday, May 2, beginning at 9:00 a.m.

Teachers and mothers are busy planning and rehearsing the May Day program, as many costumes have to be made.

There will be a ball game in the afternoon.

The talent show was well attended Friday night, sponsored by the Pep club of the high school.

Olivette Nutter had charge of the numbers.

Jon Balchweid was winner. Other winners were Nancy Thurston, Kenny and Randy Kalina.

The Shelburn Community club had a cakewalk at its hall Saturday night.

The high school baseball team has come out at the top of its league. This puts Scio in the district playoff, which will start May 9.

Richard Buckovik from Oregon State college has been hired by the union high school district to teach agriculture here.

The home ec. girls and their teacher, Mrs. Nutter, served dinner to their parents Wednesday evening.

The dinner was served family style.

Mrs. Jack Goar presided at the PTA Monday evening.

Guest speaker was Miss Joy Hills of Salem.

Nancy Thurston and Kenny Kalina presented some musical numbers.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by Mattie Bruce and Anne Gabrielsen.

The "Seven Castles" of Portland will be in Scio for both services on Mothers Day at the Baptist church.

Helping with the final high-schoolers luncheon for this term were Bess Philippi, Alice Buck, Mrs. R. Thurston, Mrs. R. M. McDonald, Mrs. Laddy Elliott and Mrs. Glen Thurston.

Missionary Eric Fryenberg was the speaker.

A group of men are planning to attend the men's brotherhood in Lacombe Friday night.

Rev. Elvin Fast will be the speaker.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2 o'clock for Clifford Griffin, 78, an old-timer and native son of this neighborhood.

Fisher funeral home of Albany had charge. Rev. Elvin Fast officiated.

Singers were Mrs. Laddy Elliott and Donna Thurston, accompanied by Mrs. Glen Thurston.

Interment was in the Franklin Butte cemetery.

Hubbard

Hubbard — The Hubbard Extension unit won fifth prize of $1.50 on their exhibit at the 9th annual homemakers festival of Marion county extension units.

Under the theme of 10 years of achievement, the Hubbard exhibit was on "holiday decoration," with Mrs. A. L. Murphy, Mrs. R. C. Mains and Mrs. E. T. Rose on the exhibit committee.

Thirty-six units competed for prizes and assisted with other activities to make the festival successful.

Attending the festival from here were Mrs. Rose, president of the local unit, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Charles Morgan, Mrs. Lester Keller and Miss Louise VanderAhe.

The grade school softball teams lost both games to the Aurora boys scored 8 to 5 and the girls 17 to 12 over the local teams. The next game is tentatively scheduled for May 9, with Whiskey Hill coming here.

The Aurora Lions club has given a half 4-H scholarship for a Hubbard boy or girl, as well as giving one at Aurora also.

Other half scholarships have been given by Thalia Rebekah lodge, the Parent-Teacher association and the Hubbard Extension unit.

The Super-Duper 4-H cooking club held its last meeting for this term Thursday afternoon.

The members selected their entries for the spring show and will exhibit cup cakes and cookies. Plans for attending the parade on May 9 were made and members will wear cook's costumes. A banner is being made by Don Miller and Floyd Dominick.

New students enrolled last week in the grade school were Betty Norris in the 4th from Santa Clara, Calif., and Jack Weathers from Prospect school near Salem, in the 6th.

Following staff practice on Wednesday evening, the Pythian Sisters of Arion temple held a surprise birthday party on Mrs. Harold Colgan and honored her with a shower of cards and handkerchiefs at the K. P. hall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hatcher are vacationing in California after selling their farm east of Hubbard.

Harold Penney is reported as greatly improved following an accident south of Hubbard and expects to be home from a Portland hospital in about two weeks.

Experiments indicate that a hive of bees can gain as much as 40 pounds in a day through storage of honey and pollen and growth of the bees in the hive.

Gates—A post-nuptial shower complementing Mrs. Pat Schroeder, nee Jo Anne Lake, was held at the recreation rooms of the high school. Hostesses were Mrs. Merle Devine, Mrs. Glen Henness, Mrs. Burrell Cole, Mrs. Harold Wilson and Mrs. Albert Millasp.

Sharing honors with Mrs. Schroeder was Mrs. Marshall Lake, a recent bride, who was presented several gifts. Following the opening of gifts, refreshments were served by the hostesses to the honored guests, Mrs. Schroeder and Mrs. Lake and to Mesdames Fred Ratzeburg, of Salem; Frank Powell, Silverton; Roy Miller, Portland; Martha Bowes, Henry Eccleston, Gerald Garrison, Norman Garrison, Floyd Volkel, Elmer Klutke, Peter Etzel, Cecil Haun, Charles Tucker, Clarence Rush, Clara Henness, Joe Joaquin, Miss Lorena Devine, Miss Betty Tucker, Mrs. Maxine Schroeder and Mrs. Cherie Edison.

Those sending gifts were Miss Joan Ryal, Mrs. Lillie Lake, Mrs. David Barnhardt, Mrs. Dan Morrison, Mrs. Ellis Hill, Mrs. Rosa Roten, Mrs. Louisa Wriglesworth and Mrs. Edmund Davis.

The next meeting of the Gates Home Extension Unit will be held Tuesday, May 6. This will be an all day session at the La Vista trailer court in the recreation room. The making of fabric gloves will be demonstrated by the project leaders, Mrs. Elmer Klutke and Mrs. Glen Hearing.

Those attending are requested to bring a sack lunch, outfit flannel that has been laundered, a tape measure, pencils, needle and thread and a pair of sharp scissors.

The honor roll for the fifth six-week period at the Gates high school included the following students: 7th grade, Otis Chance; 8th grade, Charles Kuhlman, David and Shirley Moore; 9th grade, John Barnhardt, Eddie Butler and Patty Stewart; 10th grade, Mervin Haun and Elda Webster; 11th grade, Joan Ryal and Betty Yucker; 12th grade, Marlin Cole, Carolyn Brejcha, Lorena Devine and Maxine Schroeder.

Of this group Carolyn Brejcha and Lorena Devine earned all ones on their card.

Teachers who have signed contracts to teach in the local schools for the coming year are Don Miley, superintendent; Howard Means, of the high school faculty; Mrs. Gwen Schner, principal of the grades; Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt, Mrs. Letha Bently and Mrs. Janet Harold.

Mrs. Mary Champ, who taught the primary grades for many years is retiring. Mrs. Dorothy Wood and Mrs. Elizabeth McMullen, whose husbands graduate from Willamette University this June, will not teach here again. Contracts were presented all of the teachers who had taught the past year. Mrs. Verner Evans has not yet signed for another year.

Three local boys, Wilmer Crites, Jerry Larson and Earl Heness, accompanied their leader, Joseph Bowes, to Klamath Falls to attend the DeMolay conclave held in that city two days last week.

Mrs. Don Miley and Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson were in Salem the last of the week attending the Northwestern Toastmasters convention. Both ladies hold office in the Mill City Toastmasters club.

Mr. and Mrs. George Child, Jr., who had spent a twenty-day furlough in Gates at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Child, Sr., left the first of the week for San Rafael, Calif., which city is near the Hamilton air base where Cpl. Child is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gregory of Portland spent part of their honeymoon in Gates, where Gregory had spent much of his boyhood. While here he visited many of his old acquaintances.

Mrs. Lillie Lake was the guest of Mrs. Frank Powell in Silverton for several days recently while receiving medical attention there.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millasp accompanied their daughter Mrs. Edmund Klecker of Stayton, to Madras where Mr. Klecker is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Davis and Mrs. Veima Carey accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schroeder of Mill City to Portland Saturday where they attended the Graf-Scharfe nuptials. The groom, Willis Graf, was a former Gates boy, who attended both grade and high schools here. He is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder.

Baptismal Rites
Mt. Angel—Baptismal services were conducted by Rev. Michael Fleming, assistant pastor St. Lukes church, Woodburn, Sunday, for Edna Ann LeDoux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond LeDoux of Woodburn. Corporal and Mrs. Richard LeDoux were sponsors. Mrs. Raymond LeDoux and infant daughter are at the L. A. LeDoux home, while Raymond is confined at Veterans Hospital, Portland, where he underwent eye surgery.
