Dallas

Following two weeks of campaign activity students of Dallas high school have elected officers for the ensuing year, they are: Earl Curtis, president; Mary Lou Chamber, vice-president; Loma Lawrence, secretary; and Le Roy Bates, sergeant at arms, and Shirley Henry, treasurer.

The annual style show and card party sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary will be in the chamber of commerce room of the Dallas city hall, Friday, May 9.

Starting at 8 p.m. the latest spring styles will be modeled with Mrs. Clifford Hood as master of ceremonies; Mrs. Robert Woods, narrator, and Mrs. Art Quirin in charge of music. Mrs. Jack Eakin, Sr., is in charge of decorations.

Dessert and coffee will be served during the show by Mrs. Kenneth Jacobsen and committee, followed by canasta and bridge with Mrs. William Woods as chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Muir have returned from a three-week trip to southern California and Arizona. In Phoenix they visited Mrs. Muir's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Savory, former Dallas residents. They plan to visit Dallas this summer.

Rev. and Mrs. G. E. McGarvey of the Alliance church have left on a trip that will take them through Nevada, Texas, New Orleans and Miami, Fla., and to Atlanta, Ga., for a council meeting of the Christian and Missionary Alliance. They expect to return by the end of the month.

Installation of new officers will take place Friday evening, May 9, at the Morrison school when the Junior high school PTA holds a no-host supper. Officers are Mrs. Jesse Hague, president; Mrs. Dick Wilson, vice-president; Mrs. Helen Stanbrough, secretary and Mrs. Claude Beebe, treasurer.

D. N. Cooper of Roseburg has been named dispatcher for the local forestry district headquarters. His family will move here in the near future.

Mrs. Adeline Kendall of Portland will be speaker at the Dallas Woman's club Tuesday afternoon. She will discuss "Handicrafts and Room Accessories" and will have a display of handiwork. The Cecilians choral group directed by Miss Louise Woodruff will provide several numbers.

Willamina

Special guests at the Civic club Thursday included state president, Mrs. Hildred Zell, of Wasco, Mrs. Hall of Hillsboro, Mrs. Trexler, third district president of Portland, Mrs. W. Walkley of Grand Ronde and Mrs. Murray House of Grand Ronde.

Election of officers was held, with the following being elected: Mrs. Ray Morrison, president; Mrs. Arthur Soules, vice-president; Mrs. Allen Louden, secretary; Mrs. Hugh Schlatter, treasurer; Mrs. Ralph Dundan, board member.

Plans were made for a music festival to be held at the Willamina high school May 13. Mrs. Guy Call and Mrs. Laurence Fox are in charge of arrangements.

The Corbett Acres club met with Mrs. Raymond Carlson last week. Mrs. Haake was elected president and Mrs. Emil Kluth, secretary. Mrs. Thomson will be hostess for the next meeting. Attending were Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. Lyman Johnson, Mrs. Canno, Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. Rudd, and those previously mentioned.

Larry Drill, who has been confined to bed with rheumatic fever, has recovered enough to be allowed up one hour each day.

Mrs. Violet Kihlstedt entertained the Bunco club at her home Wednesday. Arleta Delker won first, Charibel Spangler second and Edna Graham the consolation prize. Others present were Frances Vollman, Emily Ellis, Sylvia Carlson.
