In The Valley

By MIKE FORBES

Dallas

Dallas — The national guard recruiting week resulted in six new members for the local unit, according to Lt. Carl Wood.

They are Woodrow Bays and Wallace D. Voigt of Dallas; Frank C. Bosch of Willamina, and Richard D. Perdue, Frank C. Bevsin and Marvin J. Jonsburg of Independence.

The dance sponsored by the local guard for last Saturday night was successful and another one will be held prior to the annual encampment June 14 to 28.

Recently appointed to the Dallas police force is Jim Greene, recently discharged after 11½ years in the marines. He served in W. W. II with Lester Wood of Dallas and was discharged following injuries in Korea.

Cpl. Johnnie Cox, wounded in Korea in January, has received the Purple Heart. He was serv- with the 40th division and hopes to return home this summer.

Miss Velma Hiebert is spending a 10-day leave at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hiebert. She is now on duty at Chanute field near Chicago, Ill. She enlisted about five months ago as did her twin sister who is now stationed at the Wright-Patterson air force base near Dayton, Ohio. Their brother Raymon, who also enlisted at the same time, is at Luke AFB at Phoenix, Ariz.

Richard Benson, recently returned from Japan, is spending 14 days at home with his wife and small son. He will report to San Diego for assignment.
