The 1953 legislature will be asked to appropriate funds for the annex, which will join the present school and the rejuvenated heating plant. Reds Carrying on Whispering Campaign Against FBI Head

By LYLE C. WILSON

Washington, (UPI)—A whispering campaign which never dies, an undercover operation which never rests, is directed at booting Director J. Edgar Hoover out of the FBI.

The ordinary run of yeggs and hoodlums probably would be in favor of ousting Hoover. He makes things tough for them. They have nothing to do with the campaign to get him out of office and to cut the FBI down to the size and scope of operation desired by its real enemies.

These enemies are communists, fellow travelers, and de-luded left wingers. Communists and fellow travelers want Hoover bounced because he inter-feres with their subversive ac-tivities, plants spies in their treason cells, and enables the government from time to time to send them to jail.

So the communist party line is that J. Edgar Hoover and the FBI are the enemies of civil liberties in the United States. Not only communists peddle this story. It is told in strange places. Once in a while the comrades think they have Hoover on the run and one of their front organizations comes up with a public campaign to oust him.

The National Lawyers Guild is subject to such seizures. The National Lawyers Guild is de-scribed by the House Un-American activities committee as "just one more highly de-ceptive communist-operated front organization, primarily in-tended to serve the interests of the communist party in the United States."

Not much has been heard of the oust-Hoover movement of late. A great many Americans are enlisted for the duration in a solid effort to bat that movement down anytime, any-where. All hands, then, would be interested in a booklet just reprinted from the Iowa Law Review, Iowa City, Iowa.

It is "Civil Liberties and Law Enforcement: The role of the FBI." The author: J. Edgar Hoover.

"Here is America's great problem today," Hoover wrote, "to maintain the basic civil liberties of the individual, which are the foundation stones of free government, yet, at the same time, to protect the security of the nation." In 20 pages Hoover states his philosophy of liberty, the law, and the enforcement thereof. The booklet is recommended reading for everybody—espe-cially those innocents who have listened to the phony wails of the communist party lines. (Ron Gemmell, Capital Journal reporter, who served under J. Edgar Hoover for five years, says his integrity, ability and approach to the national crime situation—where the bureau has jurisdiction over more than 120 violations, is beyond re-proach.)
