Four Corners — The Salt and Pepper 4-H cooking club with Mrs. Carol Capps and Mrs. Fred Gephardt co-leaders, which was organized in January, has completed the first year's cooking course. There are six girls in the group.

They exhibited their work at the Willamette area camp fire council held at Leslie junior high school May 3. Only nine of the group were able to attend, the rest had chicken-pox.

They have been making gifts for their mothers in preparation for their mothers party to be held in the home of their leader, Mrs. Thomas Dench Thursday, May 22. Mrs. Larry Wagner and Mrs. Donald Judson are co-hostesses with Mrs. Dench for the party. It will be the last regular meeting of the year. Sandra Pittinger is chairman this month.

The Four Corners volunteer fire department held their annual firemen's banquet and entertained their wives at Marshall's inn Monday evening. Covers were laid for 70. Melvin Scott was master of ceremonies. Ex-fire chief, W. R. Gould was honored as a special guest. Guest speakers were Chuck Taylor, chief deputy of state fire marshal's department, and R. W. Sandstrom from state civil defense office.

Plans for the coming year were discussed.

McKay Likely to Head Delegation

Ralph H. Cake, republican national committeeman of Oregon, has called a meeting of the 18 elected delegates to the republican national convention to be held in Salem on June 7.

Cake, who did not run for re-election because of poor health, will serve until the conclusion of the convention which opens in Chicago on July 7. On his retirement, Jess Gard, who won the election for national committeeman over Lowell Paquet, Oregon Taft manager, will become the national committeeman from this state.

At the Salem meeting the delegates will perfect an organization and it is probable that Governor Douglas McKay, who led the ticket for delegate-at-large, will be named chairman.

It is probable that plans for traveling to the republican convention in July will also be discussed by the delegates at the Salem meeting.
