Willamina

Willamina—The community music festival, sponsored by the Civic club, was a success. Ellen Fox and Ann Call were in charge and Dale Johnson was master of ceremonies.

The program began with an invocation by Rev. Leo Woodruff. The audience sang America, after which the grade school rhythm band played the "President's March" led by Skippy Calligan, with Rosa Mitchell, Barbara Bowen and Sandra Delker as twirlers; and "Liberty Bell," led by Barbara Bowen, with Dee McBee as majorette.

Zona Boyer and Jeanette Carlson played a clarinet duet; and the girls sextette from the high school sang "November" and "Tea for Two." The lower grade music classes sang "The Willamina Train," Ellen Fox sang "Friend O'Mine" and "Can't Help Lovin' That Man of Mine," accompanied by LaVelle Hofrichter. Skippy Calligan and Sharon Turner did a tap dance.

Sharon McGrew and Susie Johnston played two piano duets, and Jeanette Singleton played a flute solo. Mrs. Wilma Nylen sang "Be My Life's Companion" and "Tell Me Why," accompanied by Lucinda Flatau. Dale Johnson sang two numbers accompanied by LaVelle Hofrichter. A chorus directed by Mr. Johnson sang "Little Boy Blue" and "I Love You." The Paul Armstrong dancing school presented three tap dances.

FL club met last week at the home of Dottie Pinnick, with Evelyn Neely as co-hostess. The president appointed several committees. Ethel Tolom was a guest. Barbara Stone won the door prize and a game prize, and Nancy Coddington won a game prize. Members attending were the hostesses, Nancy Canby, Neva Lee, Jeri Boundy, Viola Sisk, Avis Brock, Nancy Coddington, Ruth Skophammer, Barbara Stone and the guest.
