St. Paul Lions Install Officers

St. Paul — Judge Val D. Sloper of Salem served as the installing officer at the St. Paul Lions club "Ladies Night Dinner dance" Monday evening.

The meeting was the last regular meeting until September for the club as the policy of the organization is to not meet during the three busy summer months.

Judge Sloper gave a talk on Lionism and then introduced the new officers for the coming year. J. W. Richardson was re-elected president of the club. John Smith was installed as first vice-president; Carl Smith as second vice president and Ivan Blosser as third vice-president. Al Smith was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Lawrence Bunning was installed as the club's new tail twister and Edwin Woodruff as the new lion tamer.

New directors named were Harry Kessler, Raymond P. Smith and H. W. Bowers. Following the dinner and program, music was furnished by Norman Ernst, Art Faber and Ivan Blosser.

About 40 members were present at the semi-formal party. A special feature of the evening was the presenting of a gift to the club's president and his wife in recognition of their 20th wedding anniversary.

Dayton

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shawyer have returned from a 10-day trip to Victoria, B.C.

They had a Dayton Buckaroo sticker on their car, and to their surprise when they got to Port Angeles, Wash., to take the boat across to Vancouver Island, a man came up to them and asked if they were from Dayton, Ore. He was distributing literature to tourists, about Victoria and the island. He asked about many Daytonites and said he usually came for the old timers picnic in July, and said his name was Wilson. Upon the return of the Shawyers, it was decided the man was Herman Wilson, who lived here many years ago. In checking in the Old Timers registration book, he was registered in 1950 from Port Angeles, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dundas accompanied their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pomeroy, on a trip Sunday which took them to Detroit dam and on the Warm Springs to the Simnasho Corral. They went there in the interest of wild horses for the coming Buckaroo scheduled for the last of June. Also there in the same interest were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Art Schwoid.

Bill Belts and his father, W. Belts, of Lafayette, flew to Siltcoos Lake where they spent until Wednesday fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Parmenter and daughters, enjoyed a birthday dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Graham, on Sunday. This was Mrs. Parmenter's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Hart spent the week-end holiday in Dallas and at Pacific City.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Christenson of Carlton and her sister, Miss Edith Ott of Portland; and Mrs. Jess Stubbler of Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Heider, Fritz and Steve, enjoyed an outing several days last week at Yachats.

Mrs. Sina Christenson had her family at home over the several days this week-end.
