Dallas Selects VFW Delegates

Dallas — The Dallas auxiliary to Dallas Post No. 3203, Veterans of Foreign Wars elected Mrs. Garry Hanson and Mrs. Lillian F. Bilyeu as delegates to attend the national encampment to be held at Los Angeles in August.

Mrs. Ruby Carlson reported the sale of 2000 poppies netting $252 on May 23 and 24. Mrs. Hanson reported that eight hours were spent in cleaning 45 graves of veterans and members at the Dallas cemetery prior to Memorial day and that a number of markers and flags had been taken away.

Mrs. Schroeder reported the cleaning of three graves at Falls City. Mrs. Carrie Ware announced that the cooked food sale brought in $31.65, this money is for delegates expenses to the state encampment in July at Astoria.

Officers elected at the meeting of district No. 19 in McMinnville Saturday evening were: President, Mrs. Garry Hanson, of Dallas; senior vice-president, Mrs. Hazel Owens, Newberg; junior vice-president, Mrs. Effie Morrison, Willamina; treasurer, Mrs. Rozella Schroeder, Dallas; chaplain, Miss Fannie Dempsey, Dallas; conductress, Clarice Ellis, Willamina; guard, Grace Parson, McMinnville.

A life membership in the national home at Eaton Rapids, Mich., was voted in the name of Mrs. Bertie Martin, one of the oldest auxiliary members. The home is for the widows and dependent children of veterans. The auxiliary voted a half campship for the daughter of a veteran to attend Girl Scout sessions at Camp Kilowan this summer.

Monmouth

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas of Denver were callers recently at the home of Mrs. Sylvia Robinson. They were neighbors 44 years ago, and have been friends for 55 years. They have a son who lives in Roseburg. Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Russell celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary last Thursday with a 12 o'clock luncheon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Russell in Turner, and a 6 o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Yung in Salem. Miss Blanche Russell accompanied them.

The Monmouth postoffice has adopted a summer time schedule. Window opening will be at 7 a.m. and the closing is set for 5 p.m. According to Postmaster Gentle, this is not a day light time matter, but just an attempt to better adjust working hours to the public demands.

Monmouth Grangers "Go to Church" Sunday fell by allotment this year to the Monmouth Christian church's morning service Sunday and there was a good turnout. A pot-luck dinner was served in Helmick park following church service. Five or six of the park dining tables were placed end to end to accommodate the more than 50 people who gathered for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Trace Tunnicliff have returned from a trip to Nehalem, Wheeler and Manzanita.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln McNaughton and her father, Mr. Sharp of North Bend, were visitors at the Shannon home Saturday, on their way to Portland.

James Wheelock of Monmouth has been initiated by the Oregon State college chapter of Pi Mu Epsilon, national honor fraternity in mathematics. Wheelock, a graduate student in science and mathematics, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wheelock, Rt. 1, Monmouth.

A progressive dinner was enjoyed recently by the young adults Sunday school class of the Monmouth Baptist church. Beginning at the Hal Snair residence for juice, the group went to the Joe Silley home in Rickreall for soup, to the Verle Skeels home for salads, the Geo. Knaupp Jr., home for chicken and trimmings, and to the Q. Jacobson home for dessert and devotions.

Mechanical pickers, planters and cultivators are more commonly used in Western states of the United States in the raising of cotton than is the case in the southeast.

Smithfield

Smithfield — The Dallas EUB church went to the Neskowin beaches in a body to celebrate the holiday last week. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Boeder and their family were among the members who went. Miss Theima Brock, a school chum of Hilde, accompanied the Boeders.

The Sol Edigers and Rev. and Mrs. S. Peter Neufeldt and children, who have just recently returned from a trip to the mid-west, attended the parade at Dallas Friday morning together. Later they visited the Dallas and the Salt Creek cemeteries after which they motored to Rickreall to attend their family reunion. Late that afternoon the Edigers went to Belcrest in Salem, and also visited the Frank Wedels.

John E. Wall together with E. A. Bennett and other helpers are chopping hay for silos.

According to the lush garden at the Lloyd Stouffers, it is now spinach freezing time. The crop is exceptionally tender and bountiful this year.

The Rempel-Friesen clan gathered at the grange hall in Rickreall on Decoration Day for their annual reunion. A one o'clock basket dinner was served and a short business meeting held immediately after the dinner, presided over by the president, G. V. Rempel. Marriages, births and deaths were reported on by the secretary.

Marriages included that of Muriel McKnight and Karl Byers last June, and Robert McKnight and Phyllis Schwarz this April. Among the births reported were a boy, Philip Bruce, born to Dr. and Mrs. Robert Sandilands in Africa; a boy, Steven Craig, born to Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Heier in California; a girl, Billie Karen, born to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Heinrichs in Oregon; a boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Diehm, and a girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Diehm, both in Oregon; a boy, Kenneth John, born to Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Wall in California; a daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. George Huysa.

One death had occurred in the family, that of Abraham G. Rempel, last December.

Officers elected were G. V. Rempel, president; David Rempel, vice president; Mrs. Henry Toews, secretary-treasurer.

There were 48 people present. They were G. G. Rempel, Perrydale; Mrs. A. G. Rempel, North Dallas; Elisabeth Rempel, J. H. Rempel, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Neufeldt, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Friesen, all of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. B. Friesen, Monmouth; Mr. and Mrs. David Rempel and two boys of Perrydale; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wiebe, Polk Station; Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Rempel and Marvin, and Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ediger and Joyce, all of Smithfield; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Neufeldt and four children, of Crowley Station; Mr. and Peter Heinrichs of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Heinrichs and two children, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich Diehm and four children, Dallas; Rev. and Mrs. S. Peter Neufeldt and three girls of Carlton; and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Domes of Oak Grove. Merle and LeRoy Neufeldt had as their guest Kenny Marx of Bethel, who spent the whole Decoration Day weekend at the Neufeldt home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stouffer and two girls attended the wedding of her niece, Vera Giesbrecht and Lyle Wilson at the Salt Creek Baptist church the evening of May 30.

Sunday afternoon guests at the Allyn Phillips home included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phillips of Monmouth, who had just recently returned from a fishing trip to East lake. They had caught the limit and were bringing a sample for the junior Phillips. Miss Ross Simpson called to deliver a graduation gift to Ann who graduated from the eighth grade at Perrydale. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stouffer and girls also called.

The Frank Wall house is receiving a face-lifting these days. That sea-green harmonizes well with the new coat of red shell stain on the roof.

Little Sammy Wall was very ill over the weekend with congestion of the lungs and a severe cold. He is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reimer of Salt Creek visited with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reimer on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wall attended their circle meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Friesen on Sunday afternoon.

Furniture Burns As Truck Takes Fire

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Isa of Bruno, Idaho, who arrived recently and were temporarily staying at the Wyomere Motel on the highway, lost a large part of their furniture Sunday afternoon by fire.

The fire started from some unexplained cause in the cab of their truck on which the furniture was stored awaiting a place to reside. The Woodburn fire department was called and managed to save part of the furniture, the greatest loss being the electric stove, refrigerator, davenport and mattress.

They were aided by members of the Presbyterian church with trucks who secured a house and moved the rest of the furniture. Mr. Isa moved to Woodburn to take over the position of librarian at Woodburn high school.
