In The Valley

By MIKE FORBES

Hopewell

Hopewell — Children's Day and Promotion Day was observed at the Hopewell E.U.B. church, Sunday, June 8. Delbert Smith, superintendent of the Sunday School was in charge of the program. Special music was provided by the Primary Department, with Myrtle Smith as accompanist.

Those who were promoted from Beginners' to Primary class were: Irvin Widmer, Arthur Finn, Charles Stephens, Frances Massey, Billy Owens, Linda Owens. From Primary class to Junior class: Norma Stephens and Richard Crannell. From Intermediate Boys' class to the High School class, Dean Brown, Richard Widmer, and Wallace Wood.

At the morning service, Max Morgan of the Jennings Lodge seminary, was the speaker. Delbert Smith was in charge of the evening service.

Next Sunday is Father's Day and Rev. H. E. Widmer will again occupy the pulpit on his return from Kansas at the wedding of his son, Nathan.

June 17 is the date of the annual Silver Tea of the Hopewell Missionary society. It will be held at the Hopewell E.U.B. church on the lawn. Mrs. Andrew Wakeman of McMinnville, formerly a missionary to Africa, will be the speaker, and Mrs. W. J. Jones of Dayton will tell of her experiences in South America. A free will offering will be taken for the support of Gladys Ward, formerly a missionary in China, now awaiting assignment.

A large number of friends of Miss Ila Taskinen from this side of the hills, attended her wedding at the Christian church in Amity Sunday afternoon, June 8, to Kenneth Schuhardt. A reception followed in the church parlors. A bridal shower is being planned for the young couple on June 18. Mr. Schuhardt reports again for army duty June 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Madison and sons, Marion and Sanford from Scoggan's Valley were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Fuqua. Mr. Madison is Mr. Fuqua's uncle.

Henry Kiminki, 58 of Hood River, Ore., formerly a resi- passed away in Salem, June 2, after a long illness. The funeral was held at Rigdon's in Salem on Saturday, June 7. The burial was beside his mother in the Hopewell cemetery. Surviving are two brothers, Toivo and Fritz Kiminki, and one sister, Mrs. Lilian Lawrence, all of Portland. One other sister preceded him in death, Mrs. Hilda Niemi.

Mrs. John Puutio of Hood River has been visiting old friends and neighbors for the past few weeks.

Miss Bertha Magness is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ned Underhill of Dufur, Ore., for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Underhill sprained her back but is recovering satisfactorily.

Mrs. Marvel Brown, Dean and Beverly spent the week-end at home, as they are assisting Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Gilchrist of Brooks with their strawberry harvest. They attended Ila Taskinen's wedding and returned to Brooks Sunday afternoon.

William Collinson, uncle of Mrs. N. O. Pearse, passed away at the Silverton hospital, Saturday morning, June 7. He was 83. The funeral was held at the Ringo Funeral Home in Woodburn, June 10 at 2 p.m., with burial in the Champoeg Pioneer cemetery near Donald. One brother, Joshua Collinson survives. He is in the Woodburn Nursing Home at present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Charles Johnson and Mrs. Larson of Alhambra, Calif., were Monday evening guests of the Pearse family. The Johnsons had come to Oregon to attend the graduation of their son, Charles, from Oregon State college, in the same class as William Pearse.

Gene Jaenicke of Eugene was a guest of his folks, Mr. and Mrs. John Geisler this week.

Dayton

Dayton — Bigger and better than ever. That's the way the annual "strawberry feed" was at Jacob Mayer Lodge No. 108 AF&AM at Dayton.

About 125 members of the craft together with Grand Officers, gathered last week for this highlight meeting of the year.

Worshipful Master Royal Hibbs opened lodge and then had Most Worshipful Brother Ralph S. Nesbitt, Grand Master of Masons in Oregon escorted to the East, where he was given the private grand honors. The Grand Master introduced members of his official family: Past Grand Master's Harry D. Proudfoot; H. Wayne Stanard; and Shalor Eldridge; Ernest Bollinger, SGD; Leonard Hammer, JGS; Enoch Carlson, Grand Marshall; John Savage, Grand Tyler; Jess Hayes, Richard Carlson, Cy Young and Earle Coburn, all D.D.G.M., also Elbert Bede, editor of the Oregon Mason was introduced.

A short business session followed and the lodge was closed by G. M. Ralph S. Nesbitt. A bountiful "strawberry shortcake feed" was served by the stewards and assistants and seconds were furnished to all with the necesary capacity.

Brief remarks were made by P.G.M. H. Wayne Satnard and P.G.M. Shalor Eldridge. A talk was given by Ralph Nesbitt, G.M. Oden Morgareidge, Jr., Warden and master of ceremonies again thanked all for their presence and closed the meeting.

There were 12 ladies who accompanied their husbands and were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Coburn, where they enjoyed Samba and home-made strawberry shortcake.

Miss Eileen Lehman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lehman, Dayton, a junior at Oregon State college, was given special recognition at the annual honors and awards convocation, by being pledged into Phi Kappa Phi, national all-school scholastic society.

She, with others, was selected on the basis of scholarship and campus activities and outstanding graduate students, seniors and juniors.

Lyons

Lyons—The regular business meeting of Santiam Valley grange was held at the hall Friday evening with Johnnie Lambreacht presiding over the meeting. At the lecturer's hour a short flag day program was presented with Wilson Stevens giving a talk on the origin of the flag. A tableau on "Growing Things" was presented by Blanche Wagner with Leo Russell as reader.

Johnnie Lambrecht, master of Santiam Valley grange, left Monday for La Grande where he will attend Oregon State Grange.

Last Friday Rev. and Mrs. Rinne Feenstra visited with old friends at Newberg. Mrs. Feenstra spoke on "Citizenship" at the Ladies Civic Improvement club.

Mrs. Benford of Corvallis spent last week at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olmstead.

Mrs. Alex Bodeker, Mrs. Clyde Bressler and their father, Elmer Hiatt, went to Roseburg Friday where they spent the remainder of the week at the Leroy Hiatt home. Sunday a dinner was held honoring Leroy on his birthday anniversary.

The annual school meeting of Mari-Linn school district 29J will be held Monday evennig, June 16 at 8 p.m. standard time at the school house.

W. R. Stevens of Lyons went to Portland Sunday, where he will attend Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star as a delegate from the Mill City lodge.

Guard Alerted At Woodburn

Woodburn—The main body of the Woodburn National Guard company will entrain here Saturday, June 14, at 8:30 a.m. for two weeks training at Fort Lewis, Wash., with the 41st division.

The local unit is the largest in history to represent the community at an annual summer encampment, the roster of 100 enlisted men and seven officers exceeding last year's record of 93 men and six officers. Captain J. J. Anderson is commander.

The Woodburn unit, the tank company of the 186th infantry division, will board a special train here at the Southern Pacific depot along with the rifle company from Silverton and will go direct to Fort Lewis. They will return by the same route June 28.

An advance motorized detail to prepare the camp site left here Thursday morning and will include eight enlisted men under command of Lt. C. E. Enos. Another detail with the balance of the company's motor equipment is scheduled to leave Saturday morning. Lt. Stanley Coleman and six enlisted men will make up the unit.

The Woodburn company will be attached to the 803rd tank battalion of Washington again this year for training and will have 10 tanks this year instead of five for training purposes. Next week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the company will be on the range firing 76 m.m. guns from tanks and June 24-26 will take platoon tests. The annual 41st division review is scheduled for Saturday, June 21, and the public is invited to attend.

Officers in charge of the Woodburn company will be Capt. Anderson, 1st Lt. C. E. Enos, 1st Lt. Darrell Anderson of Cutler City; 1st Lt. Weatherill of St. Paul; 2nd Lt. Stanley Coleman, 1st Lt. William Bentley and Warrant Officer (jg) Harold Gilbert.

Sublimity

Catherine Elizabeth is the name of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Neal of Seattle, Wash., date of arrival was Sunday, June 1. Mrs. Clara Neal is the paternal grandmother.

Word comes from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hetschel, who have been spending the past few weeks at Excelsior Springs, Mo., that they will start the trip homeward next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ruebel and family left last week for a visit with relatives in South Dakota.

Sister M. Lilliosa visited the Beitel and Lulay families the past week-end.

The annual reunion of the Benedict families was held in the Stayton park Sunday. Members coming for the occasion were:

Mrs. Teresa Smith, Mrs. Mary Zuber, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Istonivic and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Elia and family and Sister M. Kathleen, Sister M. Eulalia and Sister M. Rosalia all of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Van Loo of Verboort; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Grossman and Sandra, Mr. and Mrs. Debs Darby and family and Lawrence Grossman.

Rev. Jos. Scherbring and Rev. Franz Schubert are attending the priests retreat at Mt. Angel this week.

Preparations are being made for the annual Corpus Christi procession around the parish grove Sunday, June 15, following the 10 o'clock mass. Each of the corner altars to be taken care of as on previous years.

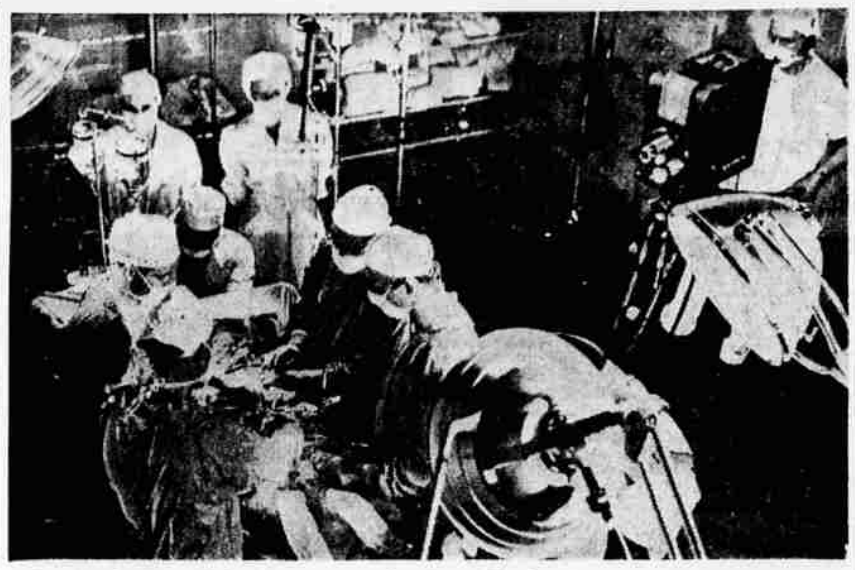
Sunday, June 29, will feature a parish picnic on the parish grounds. Each family will bring their lunch for an outdoor dinner.

Drinks will be furnished and various games will be played during the afternoon.

Miss Jeanne Porter, bride-elect of William Ripp, was honored with a bridal shower given by Miss Annette Ripp.

Those bidden were Mrs. Arthur Forette, Mrs. Cyril Forrette, Mrs. James Ripp, Mrs. Jos. Wolf, Mrs. Gus Hendricks, Mrs. Harold Etzel, Mrs. Cecelia Ditter, Mrs. Dorothy Minten, Mrs. Jeannie Bordiglinner and the Misses Genevieve Porter, Bernice Wolf and Patricia Wolf.

The wedding of Jeanne Porter and William Ripp will be an event of Saturday, June 14, at 11 a.m. at the Catholic church in Lyons.



Surgery in Your Living Room—In conjunction with the American Medical association convention in Chicago, this major operation on the stomach of a 60-year-old man reached the homes of thousands via television. Viewers, coast to coast, through a network hookup, were able to see and hear a team of surgeons perform the operation upon the ulcer damaged stomach of a patient in Wesley Memorial hospital who was identified only as "Mr. T." (Telephoto)

Independence

Members from the community at the west end of Monmouth St., just outside the city limits, met with members of the town council at the city hall Thursday evening to discuss annexation with the city of Independence.

Mayor Ralph Spencer and councilman James Hart and city attorney, Fred Calef, represented the council.

The purpose of annexing this property is to help sanitary conditions both in the district and in the city. Following a discussion the group adjourned without taking action, but proposed meeting after definite plans are drawn up.

The city council set next Thursday, June 12, for drawing up the city budget. A resolution was passed to have Mayor Spencer enter the soap box derby at Salem, July 13. Al Loucks, mayor of Salem, has challenged surrounding mayors in a derby and the council decided that Independence should be represented.

Leslie Huff, former principal of the grade school, and his family will leave soon for Austin, Texas, where they will make their home.

Firemen of the Independence fire department spent two hours fighting a fire at the McLaughlin hop ranch Wednesday afternoon. The fire started in the trash pile and spread towards the woods, but was brought under control and extinguished.

Rev. Lynn Sparks, pastor of the Assembly of God church, has resigned and will leave soon with his family on an extended tour. They plan to spend some time in California before visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sparks of Henryetta, Okla., and then go on a preaching tour.

Harold Nelson, local jeweler and chairman of the Polk county Infantile Paralysis association, is in San Francisco, Calif., attending the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis meeting.

The Earl Jaynes property on the Gun Club road has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herbst, who plan to take possession soon.

Meter Buster Arrested by Lebanon Cops

Lebanon — City police this week arrested Fred Modderman, Rt. 1 resident, on charges of damaging parking meters. He was cited into court on a warrant.

Officers indicate this may the wave of meter destruction which has prevailed during the past month. Modderman, they said, given an overtime parking ticket shortly before the vandalism was first noted.

The man's arrest came after several persons witnessed a man snapping meter handles. License number of the man's pickup was obtained. Police say he confessed to the breakage.

The American Legion's "Tide of Toys" has sent more than 10 million toys overseas.

Mill City

Mill City — Daily vacation Bible school will conclude in Mill City Friday with a meeting in the Presbyterian church at 7:30 p.m. The school has been held jointly in the two churches, Presbyterian and Christian.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Oderman and two children of Aumsville, former Mill City residents, are moving to Fortuna, Calif., where he will be employed. The Oderman children, Kathy and Jimmy, are spending the week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Swan, before going to California this week-end.

Johnny and Kathy Schroeder, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schroeder of Forrest Grove are spending two weeks with their grandparents, the Herbert Schroeders.

Richard Morris of Salem is spending some time this summer at the home of his uncle and aunt, the Fred Duffys. Richard is a senior in the Salem high school.

Among Mill City those who attended the Lewis and Clark college graduation exercises in Portland Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. James Barton and daughter, whose nephew was among the grads and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Toman, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Albert Toman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott and Mrs. Harry Mason to see Miss Mildred Toman graduate from the college.

Visiting friends in Mill City over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vaughn and family of Lebanon, former residents here.

William Jull, son of Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Jull, left the first of the week for Seattle, Wash., where he was called by the Naval Reserves for active duty. William Jull taught school during the past year.

Mrs. Milan Weston and daughter and Mrs. Lloyd Collingwood, both of Klamath, Calf., visited at the Ernest Podrabsky and Arey Podrabsky homes during the Memorial week-end. Mrs. Weston and Mrs. Collingwood are former Mill City high school grads.

Special services were held last Sunday in the new building of the Assembly of God church, although the building is still in the process of construction. Guest speaker for the day was Rev. P. C. Walcher of Stayton.

Evangelistic meetings are being held there this week conducted by Rev. Phil Wayman of Everett, Wash. Rev. W. D. Turnbull is pastor of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Toman, Sr., honor the graduating high school class in Mill City annually with a forman dinner party. The class of '52 was entertained Saturday evening in the Toman home followed by games and group singing. The hostess offered prizes for the games of which Dolores Poole and Patricia Cree were in charge. Present were: Denny Marttela, Gary Peterson, David Keyes, Bob Shelton, Delmer Skillings, Ardith Jones, Vera Loucks, Dolores Poole, Patricia Cree, Donna Cooke, Lela Kelly and Mrs. Edith Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chaney.

Mill City Pioneer Dies at Portland

Mill City—Mrs. Sarah J. Taylor, 91, pioneer resident of the Mill City district, died in a Portland rest home Wednesday morning. She had been bedfast since 1943.

Mrs. Taylor was born Sarah J. Konitz, Feb. 27, 1861, in Iowa and came to Oregon in 1879 where she had resided since. She married Andrew Taylor Sept. 24, 1882 and they made their home on the old homestead north of Mill City for more than 50 years.

Mr. Taylor preceded her in death in 1921 and Mrs. Taylor moved Portland in 1923 where she had made her home since.

Mrs. Taylor leaves two sons, Irven E. Taylor, Woodlake, Calif., and Frank A. Taylor, 1231 Elm St., Salem, Ore.; seven grand children and 11 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Standard Time, Friday, June 13 at the Weddle Funeral Home, Stayton. Interment will be in the Mill City cemetery.

Hubbard

Hubbard — Four-H scholarships have been received by Roberta Downs of the cooking club and Velma Reed and Jo McNary of one sewing club. The scholarships were given by the P.-T. A., Thalia Rebekah lodge, Hubbard Extension unit and the Aurora Lion's club, for Hubbard club members. Four-H summer school begins June 17 through June 27, at Corvallis.

Summer church school at the Hubbard Community church was held for three days only last week. Numerous cases of measles kept the attendance down. Rev. E. H. Hastings, Mrs. C. K. McNary, Mrs. James Lamb, Mrs. Tom Cannell and Mrs. Russell Rollofson were instructors.

Donald Gregg of Hillsboro has been hired as the new instructor at the Hubbard grade school.

The Hubbard grade school district will hold election for one director to the board of education, Monday, June 16, 8 to 9 p. m., PST, at the school. Howard Jones, now chairman of the board, is the outgoing member.

Dr. A. F. deLespinasse was brought home from the Woodburn hospital Tuesday afternoon.

Dale Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Miller, was brought home Wednesday from the Salem Memorial hospital.

Dr. Edward Schoor came home from a Salem hospital the first part of the week.

Mrs. Jack Moomaw and two sons left Wednesday by train for Southern California to visit relatives and attend a high school reunion. She expects to spend about a month in the southland.

The Wesley Courters spent part of last week at the coast. Mr. and Mrs. George Rollofson of Spokane are visiting their son and family, the Russell Rollofsons.

Mrs. Bahne Paulson was brought home from an Oregon City hospital Friday in an improved condition.

Mrs. Birdie Butler was taken to the Hutchinson hospital, Oregon City, last week.

NIGHT BASEBALL 8:15
TONIGHT!
VICTORIA
— vs. —
SALEM SENATORS
Grandstand $1.00
Bleachers 65¢

SUNDAY DINNER
A quiet, dignified place to eat a dinner 1.50 prepared by painstaking people who are more interested in quality than quickness.
NO LIQUOR PLEASE
We also serve daily luncheons at 85c to clubs, business houses and to individuals.
THE PINE INN "WHEN YOU TRY YOU WILL LIKE"
AIR CONDITIONED
1½ Miles North of Underpass on 99E

HOLLYWOOD
"Salem's Only Home-Owned Theatre"
NOW SHOWING - OPEN 6:45
WITH A SONG IN MY HEART
The JANE FROMAN story
TECHNICOLOR
— Special 30-Min. Featurette —
"THE GUEST"
HOLLYWOOD KIDS MATINEE
Tomorrow - 1:00 to 4:00 P.M.
3 CARTOONS - SERIAL
Special Matinee Feature
"LAW OF THE GOLDEN WEST" with
Monte Hale as Buffalo Bill also
BENSON'S BIRTHDAY CAKE
for
Richard Church, Carol Fochtman, Linda Wallace, David Cramer, Allan Franz, Yvonne Kiely, Norman Walters, Diane Mauer, Marvelon Vandervort, Billy Davis, Marianne Karl, Mike Genna, Jessie Bergin, Larry Bergin, Robert Norton, Lynne Horsman, Bruce Wallace, Anna Marsh, Gary Alkire, Richard Mason.
Sat. Eve. Show Starts 6:00 p.m.

SALEM FAIRGROUNDS
Sponsored by Lions Club
TUE. JUNE 17
One Day Only Performances at 3 and 8 P.M.
ALL NEW
IN PERSON!
CLYDE BEATTY 3 RING CIRCUS
★ TERRIFIC NEW EDITION
WITH THE ILLUSTRIOUS SCREEN, RADIO AND TELEVISION STAR — "MR. CIRCUS" HIMSELF
CLYDE BEATTY IN PERSON
GREAT CON COLLEANO
DANCING, TUMBLING, SOMERSAULTING TOREADOR OF THE TIGHT WIRE.
3-HERDS OF ELEPHANTS-3
INCLUDING THE SMALLEST BABY ELEPHANT ON EXHIBITION WITH ANY CIRCUS.
56 OUTSTANDING NEW FEATURES
Res. Seat Tickets on Sale Show Day Only at Stevens & Son Jewelers
State at Liberty
Same Prices as Showgrounds

THE GREATEST THRILL SHOW ON EARTH!
DEATH DEFYING CRASHES
30 THRILL EVENTS!
THE ORIGINAL NEW 1952 EDITION
JOIE CHITWOOD'S AUTO DAREDEVILS
1952 INTERNATIONAL OPEN STUNT CONTEST AND COMBINED THRILL CIRCUS
COME TO THE SHOW!
Head-on crash at 60 MPH impact, drivers at wheel
SLIDE FOR LIFE. Stepping from rear of speeding cars into pools of flaming gasoline
HI-SKIS Riding on two wheels and a prayer — in a New Car
CRASHING PLANK WALLS ON MOTORCYCLES
DIVING OFF PRECIPICES WITH NEW CARS
Bill WARD'S Competing for DISTANCE AUTO BROAD JUMP
CANADIAN ACES Runners up in the 1951 International Stunt Contest
AKI KIMURA and his DRAGON DRIVERS
JAPANESE STUNTMEN on World Tour
★ CRASH of FLAMING DEATH
Plus: A GREAT TROUPE OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST DAREDEVILS FROM THE NATION'S MOTOR LOTS AND RACEWAYS!
LUCKY WALTER'S
ANGEL LOPEZ
DAREDEVIL CLOWNS Risking DEATH for A Laugh!
★ Cyclotroncycle RACING
Salem Hollywood Bowl
SUNDAY, JUNE 15TH
TWO PERFORMANCES ONLY 2:30 P.M. - 8:30 P.M.

ELSINORE
STARTS SUNDAY!
Humphrey Bogart's Academy Award Winning Performance!
The GREATEST ADVENTURE a Man Ever Lived... With a Woman!
Color by Technicolor
Humphrey Bogart Katharine Hepburn
BOGART - HEPBURN
THE AFRICAN QUEEN
with ROBERT MORLEY
Directed by Two Time Academy Award Winner
JOHN HUSTON

Kids Show TOMORROW
Cartoons! Serial! Prizes!
2 Big Features!
DOORS OPEN AT NOON
GRAND

THE SALEM DRIVE-IN Theatre
2-7829
GATES OPEN 7
SHOW AT DUSK
ENDS SATURDAY
"RIO GRANDE"
John Wayne
— Plus —
'DOUBLE DYNAMITE'
Groucho Marx
TONITE (Fri.) at Dusk
Cartoon Carnival
4 Big Cartoons
See a show from your car
Open Rain or Shine!

ELSINORE
NOW! - Open at 6:45
ERROL FLYNN RUTH ROMAN
Mara Maru
And: - In Color!
"THE HIGHWAYMAN"

CAPITOL
NOW! - Continuous!
THE WILD NORTH
starring Stewart GRANGER Wendell COREY Cyd CHARISSE DANGER TRAIL THRU FROZEN WILDS!
ANSCO COLOR
And: - "JET JOB"

GRAND
NOW! - Continuous!
THE BATTLE AT APACHE PASS
with JEFF CHANDLER
TECHNICOLOR
JANET LEIGH - PETER LAWFORD
"Just this Once"

STATE
• NOW! •
3 STARTLING HITS
HONKY-TONK GIRL
ONE NITE OF BLISS... A LIFETIME OF REGRET SHAME and SORROW!
ADULTS ONLY!
DARING TRUE STORY OF AMERICA'S NEWEST NARCOTIC MENACE!
DEVIL'S HARVEST
A PUFF OF SMOKE CHANGED THEIR WHOLE LIVES!
MARIJUANA
Extra! - Special!
DID SHE SHOW TOO MUCH LIL!
Lili St. Cyr
BUBBLE BATH
SEE IT!
Love Mood
- Extra! - Color Cartoon - News
ADULTS ONLY!