

Mt. Hood and Timberline Lodge—The famous, rugged Timberline Lodge on the southern slopes of Mt. Hood is one of the outstanding attractions of Oregon. Both visitors from out of state and Oregonians enjoy the beauty of the lodge and mountain.

Gillis Commands Woodburn Post

Woodburn — Ray Gillis was elected commander of Woodburn post No. 46 of the American Legion at the annual election of officers Wednesday night at the American Legion hall. He succeeds James Petshow.

Other officers elected are: Waiter Miller, first vice commander; Warren Donner, second vice commander; Burton Wilford, Jr., adjutant; Harold Eichsteadt, finance officer, (re-elected); William Merriott, alternate to the board of control; Harold Ingram, Ross McDougall and James Petshow, executive committee.

Installation of the new officers will be held Aug. 13 and reports of the convention given.

Delegates elected to the convention, which is to be held at Klamath Falls in July, are Milton Coy, Ross McDougall, Karl Kistner and John Cook. Four delegates-at-large are to be named later.

Commander Petshow reported the Americanism award to an outstanding high school boy by the post had been presented to Sherwood Thompson and that Sam Van Arsdale had been selected to attend Beaver Boys' State. Petshow also thanked Walter Taylor for taking charge of the Memorial Day services.

Announcement was made that the Marion county council will meet at Hubbard June 13, at the Hubbard Legion hall.

Regular meetings of the post will continue through the summer months.

Hubbard Legion Elects New Officers

Hubbard—The American Legion post 188 of Hubbard elected the following new officers at a recent meeting. Fred Strubhar, commander; John Stauffer, vice commander; Duane Hatcher, adjutant and finance officer; Wencel Doubrava, sgt. at arms; Levi Miller, chaplain; Verl Hershberger, service officer and Eldon Sanders elected to the executive committee. They will be installed at the June 11 meeting.

The 13-mile electric transmission line from Willamette falls at Oregon City to Portland, lighting 55 are lights on June 3, 1889, was the first long-distance power line in history.

Falls City

Rev. and Mrs. R. J. Fine and daughter's family, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Drew, all of Salem, were at the Free Methodist church Sunday evening.

Mrs. Geo. Kitchin, Mrs. William Poland and Mrs. Marie Sullivan were shopping in Dallas Saturday.

Ray Ansen and daughter, Alice, and Alice's friend, of Salem, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Anna Sorenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Sundstrom gave a birthday dinner at their home in Dallas Sunday evening honoring her mother, Mrs. L. C. Westbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Hicks and daughter, Juanita, of Valsetz, returned home Saturday after a 10-days vacation trip to California and old Mexico. They visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gladden.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Grippin and family were Dallas visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Ivy Gay returned to her home at Sweet Home Tuesday. Miss Marion Mills is visiting in Portland for two weeks with relatives.

T. A. Glover is in the Memorial hospital in Salem.

Mrs. Neva Poland and Mrs. Maxine Finn were at Independence Monday.

Mrs. George Kitchin entertained the Poinsettia club last week.

The hostess served refreshments to Mesdames Freda Shoemaker, Orphie Gilbert, Jean Walsh, Mildred Wray, Hilda Mars, Ruth Lorimer, Shirley Dickinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lowery and son, Marlin, Mrs. Louie Grippin and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Lowery spent Sunday with relatives at Brooks.

Fae Frink and Virginia Rancore won the scholarships in the 4-H sewing club work and Rae Frink won the scholarship in the 4-H rabbit club. They will all attend the summer school in Corvallis for two weeks this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lehnert and family have moved to Moses Lake, Wash., to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. B. Parsons returned home Friday from California. While there they visited their daughters family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hix.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Roake have bought property at Monmouth and have moved there.

Latest figures show that there are 882,773 acres in 32 individual tree farms in the Douglas Fir region of Oregon.

includes

A STOP AT YOUR SPUDNUT SHOP

455 Court Street

Be sure to buy your fresh Spudnuts before leaving on your summer vacation. List Spudnuts Number One on your list.

"Don't Say Doughnut, Say Spudnut"

445 Court St.

Phone 2-6794

Pomona Grange Meets June 18

Waldo Hills—The third quarterly meeting of the Marion county Pomona Grange will be held Wednesday, June 18 at 7:30 p.m. with Waldo Hills Grange No. 918.

The hall is on the Silverton-Stayton highway five miles south of Silverton.

Pomona Master, Mrs. George Benson, will preside at the business meeting. Reports will be heard from delegates to the state Grange meeting at LaGrande and a memorial service will be held for the late W. A. Jones.

Each of the 12 Granges has been asked to bring from one to five entries of roses for display and not judging, according to Mrs. Thomas W. Bump, lecturer.

Independence Opens Vacation Bible Class

Independence—A daily vacation Bible school is being held at the First Baptist church June 16-27, 9 a.m. until noon daily except Saturday and Sunday. The Teachers who will be in charge of the school are coming from the Fuller Evangelistic Foundation which is connected with the Old Fashioned Revival Hour.

Plans have been made by the Methodist and Presbyterian churches to have a Vacation Bible school, with sessions being held simultaneously in both churches during the mornings of the week of July 7. Classes will be held for primary, junior and intermediate age children.

Thirty years ago Oregon Caves, now a national monument in Southern Oregon, were called the Josephine Caves, named after the county in which they are situated.

Pedee

Mr. and Mrs. T. Till, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kleeman and son Paul of Salem, attended church services here Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Till were dinner guests of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maddeux.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Brassfield of Los Angeles visited over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brassfield.

Mrs. Rufus Dodge, Mrs. Lave Edwards, Mrs. Kittle Kerben were hostesses at the Woman's club meeting at the club house Wednesday. During the meeting, Mrs. Herman Amos was elected president; Mrs. William Place, vice president, Mrs. Sam Yates, secretary and treasurer. There will be no business meeting during the summer months, but the club will meet once a month for a social time.

Mrs. Emma McDowell of Newberg spent the week end with her cousin, Mrs. Lena Turner, Mrs. Dora Bangham and J. T. Willet of Monmouth were Sunday guests of Mrs. Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Blankenbaker and granddaughter, Rosemary Boilett spent from Thursday until Sunday at Fort Lewis as guests of her daughter, Sgt. and Mrs. Dale Snider and family. Their son, Nick Blankenbaker, who recently returned from three years service in Germany, is now at Fort Lewis.

Fetes 96th Birthday

Independence—C. F. Hotchkiss, who celebrated his 96th birthday Sunday, received more than 90 callers at the Wilson home and opened 79 birthday cards and many gifts. Mr. Hotchkiss lives with one of his daughters, Mrs. Pearl Wilson, and enjoys an active life. He cares for a garden plot, attends church regularly, is still able to sing solos, and entertains with his harmonica. Five generations were present at his birthday party.

The Light—
Right
Touch to Any Summer
Costume

Sunny

our WHITE PIQUE dutchie

$1.98

that young heads adore

Miller's

2nd Floor