Willamette U Names New Assistant Football Coach

By CHRIS KOWITZ, JR.

Portland boys down to Willamette.

When Ogdahl and Frei worked together at Grant, the General football teams racked up a record of 15 wins, two losses and three ties.

Frei's record as head coach at Lincoln was six wins, seven losses and one tie. His Cardinal team of last year was in front place for several weeks, but finally finished in a tie for third.

Frei is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He played on the Wisconsin varsity football team as a guard in 1942, 1946, 1947 and 1948. The interruption was due to war services.

He will report to Willamette September 2, date of the opening of football practice. In addition to serving as line coach of the Bearcat grid machine and head frosh hoop coach, he will be an instructor in the university's physical education department.

Frei is married and has two children, a three-year-old boy and a one-year-old girl.

Betsy Rawls, Betty Jameson In Finals

Chicago (AP)—Elizabeth Earle Rawls, the Phi Beta Kappa golfing gal known as Betsy, Saturday tries for her first Women's Western Open crown in an all-Texas pro showdown with her met jinx, rebounding Betty Jameson.

Miss Rawls, who nearly has stroked to her first $10,000 this year as a sophomore pro, is making her fourth stab at the Western Open title. Her best was a quarterfinal surge in 1951.

In two other shots, Betsy was knocked out early by the sister pro from the Lone Star state she encounters in Saturday's 3-hole championship match at Skokie Country Club.

Fresh from winning the $5,000 Weatherlane tourney, medalist Rawls Friday polished off three-time Western champion Louise Suggs, 2 and 1, after lagging by two holes going into the sixth. Her quarterfinal victim was another veteran pro, Peggy Kirk.

Betty toyed with 19-year-old Barbara Romack, Sacramento, Calif., amateur Friday over Skokie's rain-deluged acreage for a 4 and 3 victory.

In the quarterfinals, Miss Jameson had ended Betty Berg's quest for a record fifth open crown with a 5 and 3 victory. Betty's first two conquests were 7 and 6 walkaways.

Rains Delay PGA Golf Tourney for One Day

Louisville, Ky. (AP)—The tournament committee Saturday ordered a day's delay in resumption of the battle for the PGA championship after torrential rains turned the big spring course into a lake.

The committee's decision means that the final will be played next Wednesday, instead of Tuesday.

Navy's Frosh Crew Victor

Syracuse, N. Y. (AP)—Navy's favored crew on the freshman race, opening event in the Intercollegiate Rowing Association's wind-deluged regatta on Onondaga Lake Saturday.

The middies, aided by a brisk tail wind, were timed at 10:16.9—a record for the two-mile course here.

Cornell was second, a shade ahead of Princeton with Syracuse fourth, Pennsylvania fifth, Columbia sixth, N. I. T., seventh and Wisconsin eighth and last.

The start of the regatta was delayed 55 minutes because of strong winds.

Randle Oil, Rock Wools, Bears Score Softy Wins

Bunching eight hits for five runs, the Randle Oilers downed Teamsters 5-1 in a City softball league game at Olinger field Friday.

The Oilers scored two runs in the third on two walks, an error, and a single by Hoy. A pair of doubles in the seventh, by Daryl Girod and Skip Eshelman, along with a single by Jones, tallied three more runs for the Oilers.

The Teamster tally came in the second on an error and Johnson's Triple.

Home runs by Gordy Morris and Chris Christenson spearheaded Campbell Rock Wool to a 6-2 victory over Hallmark Cards in another City loop clash, this one at Leslie field.

George Kealey homered for the losers in the sixth frame. Campbell's got a total of seven hits off Hallmark hurler Lloyd Jones, bunching five of them in the sixth for five runs.

Commercial league play saw the Bears wallop Commercial Seat Cover, 16-8. Highlight of the game was Bob Oche's seventh inning homer. Jim Stewart hit five-for-five for the winners.

Browns, Senators Battle 18 Innings to Standstill

(By United Press)

Baseball's newest curfew law came in for a howl of protest from weary but still enthusiastic St. Louis Browns fans, who were deprived of sitting in on a history-making event when an 18-inning battle with the Senators was called a 5-5 tie at 1:04 Saturday morning.

The finish provided nothing but frustration and the game will have to be played in its entirety since the league rule on games suspended by a curfew, throws out all extra-inning battles.

The game did wind up as the longest tie-battle in night game history in the majors. But proved nothing else, except that when ever the Browns and Senators get together this year, things are likely to be tedious.

The rules provide that no inning can start after 12:50 a.m. local time and the Browns wound up their 18th time at bat at 1:04. Ageless and indestructible Satchel Paige went 10 scoreless innings and gave up five hits before Dave Madison took over to hurl the 18th.

What was remarkable about it was that on June 3, the same teams had battled 17 innings in Washington as Paige finally came through with a 3 to 2 decision, just inside the 12:50 a.m. curfew. Prior to this year there was no deadline and in 1951 there was a 19-inning battle in which the White Sox topped the Red Sox. The way things were, this one probably would have gone longer.

Washington tied the score at 5-5 with two runs in the eighth when Paige came in and cut off the scoring. Joe Haynes, who pitched scoreless ball from the fourth until the 11th, and Sandy Consuegra who blanked the Browns the rest of the way, shared the frustration for Washington. Before the pitchers took over, Eddie Yost and Ken Wood homered for Washington and Bob Nieman homered for St. Louis.

The White Sox battled to an 11-inning, 8 to 5 victory over the Yankees, decided on a three run homer by Sam Mele. The win put Chicago three games out of first place. It was Chicago's first triumph over the Yankees this year, after seven defeats. Yogi Berra homered for New York.

The Indians snapped a six-game losing streak against Boston, 9 to 2, as Bob Lemon pitched five hit ball and got three hits, including a homer. Jim Fridley and Larry Doby also homered.

The Athletics topped the Tigers, 3 to 1 at Detroit on the eight hit pitching of Harry Byrd as Gus Zernial and Ferris Fain drove in the marginal runs with singles.

Things were a little calmer, but not much, in the National League as the Dodgers and Giants both won last ditch struggles. Brooklyn stayed five games in front by topping the Pirates, 5 to 4, in the last of the ninth on a two-run pinch-hit homer by Shogun Shuba, while Whitey Lockman plunked a line drive double into center in the 10th to give the Giants a 4 to 3 victory over the Cubs.

The Braves made 10 runs in the sixth to top the Cardinals, 12 to 7, even though the losers bounced back to score all of their runs in the seventh. Robin Roberts pitched the Phils to a three-hit, 3 to 1 victory over the Reds as Del Ennis supplied a two-run homer and Hank Edwards ruined Roberts' shutout with a cinch homer.

Wasley Regains WIL Individual Swat Leadership

Chicago (AP)—Outfielder Mel Wasley of Spokane was back in first place among Western International league hitters with a stout .352 average.

Howe News Bureau statistics showed Saturday the 33-year-old baseball veteran also was leading in runs batted in with 47. The statistics included games of June 16, except Salem at Vancouver and Tri-City at Victoria.

Behind Wasley in hitting were Walt Pockey, Wenatchee catcher who was leading last week, .347, and Cece Garriot, Victoria, .346.

Charlie Oubre of Wenatchee and Cal McIvin of Victoria were the pitching leaders, each with eight wins and two losses.

Demos Defeat Repubs, 6-3

Washington (AP)—Democratic congressmen defeated their republican colleagues 6-3 Friday night in the annual congressional baseball game and promptly claimed it meant victory for the democrats in November.

It was the fourth straight victory for the democrats in the traditional puffing match between the representatives that originated 40 years ago.

This Is Getting To Be a Habit

Senators Lose 9th Game In Last 10 WIL Starts

Victoria—The Salem Senators suffered their ninth loss in their last ten games as the Victoria Tyees handed them a 4-1 loss here last night.

Salem got only five hits off lefty Ben Lorino, the Western International league's top moundsman. The win gave the Canadian southpaw his 11th victory in 14 starts this season.

The Tyees have now won 12 of their last 14 games and have a full seven-game lead over Spokane.

Sal DeGeorge went the route for Salem. He gave up six hits and three walks.

Victoria got off to a 2-0 lead in the fourth inning. Salem closed the gap 2-1 with a tally in the eighth. That was the first run scored off Lorino in 25 innings.

Victoria bounced back with a pair of markers in the bottom of the eighth for its advantage.

Dick Bartie, one of the leading hitters on the Salem team after a slow start this season, led the Senators at the plate with two hits, including a double.

Connie Perez, Cuban third baseman for the Senators, was hooted from the game by umpire Eiler for arguing over a called third strike early in the game.

Salem and Victoria in a split doubleheader today. One game will be played in the afternoon, one at night.

Salem then spends Sunday traveling to Tri-City, where the Solons open a series Monday. Salem doesn't return

Vince Martinez Welcomed to Big-Time Boxing

New York (AP)—Vince Martinez, an electric-appliance draftsman of Patterson, N.J., was welcomed warmly to big-time boxing Saturday because of his electrifying victory over middleweight Sammy Giuliani in their television bout at Madison Square Garden.

Vince's explosive right fist earned the unanimous 10-round decision Friday night over wild-hooking Giuliani of Stamford, Conn., who was floored once and staggered several times.

Matchmaker Al Weill said he would try to pair Martinez with the winner of the return bout between Chuck Davey and Chico Vejar, scheduled for Detroit, June 25. The Martinez match would be staged in Detroit or Chicago.

Martinez, 23, is a welterweight who was slightly over-stuffed Friday night at 151 pounds. Giuliani, 20, registered 154 1/2.

Handsome, rangy Martinez—who never had fought more than six rounds before—was tired but still terrific in the late rounds; and he brought the "studio" crowd of only 2,938 to its feet several times as he threatened to knock out swingin' Sammy—or get belted out himself.

Washington State PITA Meet Slated

Yakima (AP)—Headed by Arnold Riegger of Kelso, 150 veteran gunners will compete in the state Pacific International Trapshooting association shoot here June 27-29.

Practice rounds will be fired Thursday, the day before the official launching of the first clay bird. Opening day will feature the 200-bird 16-yard event and the doubles.

Saturday's schedule calls for 100-target shooting at 16 yards, 100 birds at handicap distances and doubles again. Finals in the doubles and 16-yard event will be fired June 29.

Ed Scott, PITA president, said shooters were expected from Oregon, Idaho, Washington and California. Riegger is generally regarded as America's greatest trapshooter.

Women's Golf Tourney Opens At Woodburn

Woodburn—The women's annual handicap golf tournament opened at the Woodburn Golf club Thursday and must be completed by July 3. Thirty-six holes of medal play are to be turned in, the winners determined by the lowest net scores after deducting handicaps.

Players are divided into A, B and C classes and the committee in charge includes Mrs. Mayme Cutsforth, Mrs. Myrtle Smith and Mrs. Anne DeArmond.

Twenty women were out for play with Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Katherine Hooper as hostesses at the luncheon hour.

The committee for next Thursday will be Mrs. Ruby Henn and Mrs. Alma Timm.

Friday a group of the Woodburn women were to go to the Riverwood club near Newberg for a three-way match between Riverwood, Oak Knoll and Woodburn.

When the University of Florida won the Southeastern conference baseball title this season, it was the Gators' seventh conference crown since the loop was formed in 1933.

Tucson Cowboy Rodeo Leader

Salinas, Calif. (AP)—Buckshot Sorrells, veteran Tucson rodeo competitor, won both the calf roping and wild cow milking contest in Friday's go-round of the 36th annual California rodeo here.

Other winners:
 Saddle bronc, Casey Tibbs, Fort Pierce, S.D.; steer wrestling, Bill Hogue, Fort Ord, Calif.; bareback bronc riding, Wag Blessing, North Hollywood; bull riding, Milt Fabinson, San Francisco; team roping, Vern Castro, Livermore, Calif., and Clay Carr, Visalia, Calif.
 Ross Dollarhide of Lakeview, Ore., picked up a third in steer wrestling and a tie for fourth in team roping. Sonny Tureman, John Day, Ore., tied with Jim Shoulders of Tulsa for third in bareback bronc riding.

Wolfe Beats Turner

Klamath Falls—Dick Wolfe, 154, Portland, won a split decision over Earl Turner, 158, Richmond, Calif., in a 10-round main event boxing match here Friday night. Ralph Weiser, 139, Klamath Falls, won a unanimous decision over Bobby Dahl, 141, Boise, in a six-round preliminary.

Trux Oil B Team Practices Monday

The Trux Oil team of the Salem B junior baseball league will conduct a practice at Keizer field at 6 o'clock Monday evening, announces Coach Don Ettner.

Fights Last Night

(By The Associated Press)

New York—Vinnie Martinez, 151, Patterson, N. J., outpointed Sammy Giuliani, 154, Stamford, Conn., 10.
