

In The Valley

By MIKE FORBES

Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel—Mrs. John Schmitz (Anne Wavra) entered Providence hospital, Portland, Thursday for surgery scheduled for Friday morning.

Sam Fennimore is at Providence hospital, Portland, where he underwent surgery on Monday.

Mrs. Peter Burger submitted to surgery Monday at the Salem Memorial hospital.

Mrs. John Jaeger returned home from the Silverton hospital after undergoing major surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Manion are the parents of a son born Tuesday at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland. The baby, weighing 9 pounds, 10½ ounces, will be named Michael Timothy.

The legal voters of school district No. 91, Mt. Angel, will discuss and vote on the budget for the fiscal year at a meeting scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday, June 30, in the St. Mary's school auditorium.

Miss Laura Mae Kruse, R.N., entertained members of her family and friends at a picnic dinner Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Kate Kruse.

Those present were her mother, Mrs. Kruse, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Van Dyke and family of Olympia, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. White and son and Mr. and Mrs. Jacoby and daughter of Silverton; and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Flecker and Judy, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schwab, LeRoy and Susan, Mrs. George Kruse and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kruse and family and the hostess, Miss Laura Mae Kruse.

Mrs. Frances Bultsch and daughter, Miss Louise Bultsch, have as their house guests Fred Krenwinkel and sister, Mrs. Mary Abens and Eva Siedman of Los Angeles. Eva Siedman arrived in this country from Berlin, Germany, three years ago.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw and two sons of Waterloo, Ia., spent several days here visiting at the homes of their uncles and aunts, the Jack Beans and Sam Turins, and their cousins, the Williams Beans.

Sister Mary Anne, Franciscan order of St. Elizabeth hospital, Humboldt, Sask., Canada, is a guest here at the homes of her sisters, Mrs. M. I. Meyers and Miss Olive Schmidt.

Miss Maria Amgarten returned to her home in New York City after a month's visit here with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Amgarten.

Mr. and Mrs. Roman Scheffers have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Anderson and family of Minneapolis, Minn. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Scheffers are sisters.

Willamina

Willamina—John Ullman was arrested in Willamina last week and is in the Yamhill county jail in McMinnville on a morals charge and assault with a deadly weapon, involving two minor girls.

Jack L. Guinn, formerly of Salem, has joined the Willamina city police department. He has had service with the Oregon state police.

Dr. Otis Barr, osteopathic physician and surgeon from Carnegie, Okla., will open a clinic in Willamina Monday, June 30, in the Bunn building. Dr. and Mrs. Barr have been here the past two weeks preparing the building for use as a clinic.

George King, who received a broken shoulder, broken ribs and severe bruises in a woods accident when hit by a falling tree, is recovering at home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nowlin of Snyder, Texas, are spending the summer with her brother, T. A. Beck and family.

Dwight Lee Woodruff was honored on his second birthday last week when guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Clapp and Eugene Fleming of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Hood and Mr. and Mrs. William Hood and Margie of Portland.

Elwin Littlejohn was re-elected to the board of directors of the Union high school district, No. 7, for a term of five years at the annual meeting held at the high school last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vestle Baxter of Grand Ronde are the parents of a daughter, born June 17 at the McMinnville hospital.

Fairview

Fairview—Mrs. Mildred Paetel and daughter Dorothy, of Portland, formerly of the Unionvale district, were Friday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andrews of the Fairview district. Dorothy was a high school graduate this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andrews attended a picnic at the McMinnville city park Sunday, June 29. It is an annual reunion of former residents of Farnam, Nebr., and their families.

Lebanon Man Gets Bonus—Lebanon—Oregon's veteran bonus plan has meant $600 to Wesley Gillenwater, a veteran of Pacific warfare. His check was among the first group of payments mailed at Salem.

Stayton

Stayton—Monday, July 7, at the Stayton city park, the Lady Foresters are having a picnic. It will begin at 7:30 p.m.

En route to Lake Placid, N. Y., where she will attend a meeting of the national directors of the Catholic Daughters of America, July 7 to 11, is Mrs. Edward Bell.

She plans, also, to stop at Chicago for the International Toastmistress club convention July 14 to 17, where she will represent both the Stayton and Mill City chapters.

Eva Rebekah lodge voted at its June meeting to give $75 toward the fund to sponsor Stayton's delegate for the "United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth."

David Neilling, who is the delegate, will leave from here July 3 and will meet the rest of the northwest tour delegates in Spokane. The pilgrimage is under sponsorship of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Pedee

The John Dorton descendants held their annual reunion at the school house Saturday. About 50 were present. A pot-luck dinner was held at noon.

Mrs. Dora Morley and children, and Betty Hensley of California, are visiting their cousin, Mrs. Vernon Haight and family.

At the annual school election, Glen Edwards was elected director to serve three years and the budget was approved.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Edwards and Ronny spent several days the past week fishing in eastern Oregon. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Edwards of Philomath, stayed at the Edwards home during their absence.

Jodel stayed with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Guyer of Lebanon were guests last week of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Condon. Friday Mrs. Guyer, Mrs. Condon, Colene and Billy visited Mrs. Paul Ronco and small son.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mitchell and son, Lonnie, of Denver, Colo., visited his cousin, Ivan Blankenbaker, and family Friday and at the C. L. Burbank home. Mrs. Burbank is also a cousin. The Mitchells were on their way to visit a brother at Sandpoint, Idaho.

Mrs. J. W. McCormack is spending the week in Portland, guest of her sister, Mrs. E. A. Burbank and Mrs. Wayne Cook. Pamela Baker is spending two weeks in Corvallis attending 4-H summer school.

Nick Blankenbaker, who was recently discharged from the army, after three years in Germany, is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Blankenbaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Dyer, Mrs. Williamette De Rose, Stanley and Diana, were weekend-end guests of Mrs. Dyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Burbank in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Eccles McCow of Florence attended church services Sunday and visited friends. The McCows lived in Pedee community for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Harter of Canyonville spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Harter.

DVBS closed Friday and the program was held Sunday evening. A large crowd attended. Eighty-seven were enrolled, 64 received certificates, and 47 were present every day and 71 was the daily average.

Larry and Bonnie Shellenbarger of Monmouth are spending the week with their grandmother, Mrs. Thera Womer.

Amity

Amity—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leppin and son, Garold, have returned from a vacation trip to California.

Mrs. Robert Johnson and son, Michael, of Fairbanks, Alaska, returned home Monday by plane.

They came early this month for the graduation ceremonies at Oregon State college, when her husband's brother, Richard Johnson, was one of the graduates.

They later attended his wedding at Roseburg.

Mrs. Wayne Robbins, East Nursery street, is a patient at McMinnville hospital. She is being treated for a heart condition.

William M. Richter, West 5th St., is reported ill at his home. It has been reported that the new testing grounds for various seeds, sponsored by the Commercial club, with the help of the FFA boys at the high school, is progressing rapidly, and the irrigation system is being installed.

The town of New Salem, Ind., where Lincoln once lived, literally disappeared, says the National Geographic Society. Many of its log buildings were dismantled and carried to a nearby town.

Mike Murry is home on leave after spending some time at sea. He will return to his base at Hunters Point, San Francisco. His wife, the former Alice Barker, will return with him.

Mt. Angel Legion Picnic July 13

Mt. Angel—The local post of the American Legion and the American Legion auxiliary held their meeting Tuesday evening, and decided to have their annual picnic Sunday, July 13, at Champoege park.

Legion Commander Fred Lucht asked all delegates to the department convention to be present at a district caucus slated for June 27 in Salem, with Capital Post No. 9 in charge.

John Griesenauer was reported to be in the Veterans hospital in Portland.

The Legion auxiliary food sale, scheduled for June 28, has been deferred to Saturday, July 12.

Miss Anita Norton, one of the government leaders at the Girls State sessions held at Willamette university last week, gave a report. She stated that Marcine Buchholz, one of the two girls sponsored by Mt. Angel at Girls State, was chosen county commissioner and county reporter.

Miss Norton, herself, represented the local unit at Girls State for two years, 1945 and 1946. The two girls, Miss Buchholz and Miss Carol Rickert, will give reports at some future meeting. Mrs. Bernard Kirsch, Girls State chairman, reported.

The date for the party for the patients at the Veterans hospital in Portland is set for Aug. 8. All members wishing to participate should contact Mrs. R. T. Bisenius, as arrangements must be made in advance.

A report was given on the well child clinic which was held Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred Lucht, district president, gave a report on the Marion county assembly held in Hubbard June 13. Mrs. Lucht will install the new officers of Idanha unit, Saturday, June 28, and has asked the local installing team to assist her with the work.

Installation of new officers will take place July 22, with the past presidents officiating for the auxiliary officers, and Fred Lucht, district vice-commander, in charge of the installation of the new officers for the local Legion post.

Burglars Take Cash From Albany Office

Albany—Burglars entered the Albany Bowling Lanes on U.S. 99E sometime after 11:30 p.m. Tuesday and departed with $68 in currency and coin. Chief of Police Ray Maddy revealed today.

The burglary was not discovered until Wednesday evening when the bowling alley, operated by Vern Geister and Wallace Wickett, was opened for business.

Lyons

Lyons—Faith Rebekah lodge held its last meeting until September, at the hall Wednesday evening. Zona Sischo, noble grand, and Jean Roberts, vice-grand, presided over the meeting.

Mildred Carr, president of the Three Links club, told of the meeting at the home of Mrs. Albert Junian near Scio. Plans were also discussed for the first meeting in September.

At the good of the order, Mrs. Tallman, who was a guest, told of being a Rebekah for 70 years, having joined in Michigan. She now belongs in Salem, where she makes her home. Plans were also made for a picnic for members and their families to be held August 3. A pot luck luncheon was served at the close of the evening.

Mrs. Kora Allen from Des Moines, Iowa, is visiting at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Rogers.

Mrs. Edna Waterman of Salem was a Tuesday afternoon guest at the home of Mrs. Inez Ring.

Mrs. Clyde Lewis left Thursday morning for Des Moines, Wash., where she will visit her father, also will visit in Seattle and Portland.

Mrs. Dell Westhouse and daughter, Miss Charmaine Westhouse of Scio, and Miss Florence Flante of Albany, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Neal.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Westhouse were Tuesday evening guests at the Neal home honoring them on their wedding anniversary.

Howard Baldwin from the Baldwin clothing store and John Neal left for a ten-day vacation.

Hollywood

"Hollywood's Only Home-Owned Theatre" NOW SHOWING—OPEN 6:45

HONG KONG

REAGAN-FLEMING

PLUS MICHAEL LANE

DRIVE-IN THEATRE

2-7828

GATES OPEN AT 7:00 SHOW AT DUSK

NOW!

"Captain Blood" Errol Flynn Olivia DeHavilland

PLUS— "Here Come the Nelsons" Ozzie, Harriet and Family

Hubbard

Hubbard—Anniversaries and birthdays were the order of the day at the family reunion of the Jones family, held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Jones south of Hubbard, on the farm that was his father's and the original donation to Samuel R. T. Jones, where four generations have been born.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jones and son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Jones and son, all of southern Oregon; Mrs. Edna Bevans, Hubbard, twin sister of Edgar; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smucker of Hubbard, the latter the twin sister of Grant; Mrs. George Zeck, Hubbard, sister of the twins; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hosteller and three children of Hubbard.

Birthdays of both sets of twins fall within a few days of each other and the 40th wedding anniversary of the Edgar Joneses was celebrated. Also present was Mrs. Bessie Moffitt of Dayton, Wash., former resident of Hubbard, who is visiting the Smuckers a few days.

The final summer meeting of Thalia Rebekah lodge was held Tuesday evening. Meetings will be resumed the second Tuesday evening in September. Mrs. Harry Moore presided. Reported ill was Mrs. George Leffler, and Mrs. Birie Butler was reported as improved. Mrs. Ella Becker thanked the lodge for a gift and cards.

A discussion of investing funds on hand resulted in a vote to place them in a savings account for the time being. Heating facilities for the hall were discussed but no decision made.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Muyskens and daughter Ruth Ellen have been visiting his sister and family here, Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Despinasse, from their home in Port Orchard, Wash., where Muyskens is superintendent of schools.

Franklin deLespinaise of Redmond visited his parents here recently before going to New Jersey where he is attending summer school at the R.C.A. plant. Upon completion of the course he will be associated with the naval research in electronics.

Jefferson

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Strohmeyer and children, Jane and Butch, of Marion, were in Jefferson Thursday. They had just returned from a trip to Hoanah, Alaska, where they spent two weeks with Strohmeyer's sister and family.

Mrs. Artie Harris, who is employed in a flower shop in Salem, is enjoying a vacation at her home in south Jefferson.

The city is replacing new water pipes into the Lloyd Biley and Charles McKee property on Main St. The old pipe was almost closed by rust and a 1½-inch pipe has been placed that will give a good supply of water.

Jefferson teachers attending summer school are Miss Josephine Getchell, University of Oregon; Clayton Willis, Oregon State college; D. V. Olds at Willamette university; Mrs. Irvine Wright, Ford Forster and Joe Rowe at Oregon College of Education at Monmouth. Miss Virginia Mason, also of Jefferson, is attending a two weeks library workshop at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Lloyd Biley, who underwent major surgery at the Salem General hospital, is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mrs. Ernest Powell, Mrs. Leonard McCaw, Mrs. Martin Lee, Mrs. Maud Epley, Mrs. Robert Terhune, Mrs. Virgil Bailes and Mrs. Gilbert Looney, members of the Christian church fellowship, attended the annual Christian church convention in Turner Thursday.

Return From East

Woodburn—Dr. and Mrs. Delbert Reed, Joe and Judy, returned Thursday after three weeks absence during which Dr. Reed attended the American Medical convention in Chicago. The Reeds made the trip to the east by train and while there purchased a new car to drive home. In Nebraska they visited the parents of both Dr. Reed and Mrs. Reed before returning to Woodburn.

trip June 20. They will go south as far as Redding, Calif., and will also visit Grants Pass and Medford.

ELSINORE

Open 6:45 P.M. JOEL McCREA "San Francisco Story"

ZACHARY SCOTT "Wings of Danger"

CAPITOL

Continuous MAUREN O'HARA "Kangaroo"

In Technicolor—GLORIA SWANSON "3 for Bedroom C"

In Color—STATE

MOVED OVER! "Ivory Hunter" In Technicolor

TONY CURTIS "Flesh and Fury"

SALEM DRIVE-IN THEATRE

2-7828

GATES OPEN AT 7:00 SHOW AT DUSK

NOW!

"Captain Blood" Errol Flynn Olivia DeHavilland

PLUS— "Here Come the Nelsons" Ozzie, Harriet and Family

See a show from your car! Open Rain or Shine!

Anniversary For Thompson

Aurora—Close relatives of Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson, dairy farmers near Needy for 22 years, gathered at their home Sunday afternoon to honor them on their 25th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson (Mabel Anderson) were married at the Fred Anderson home in Barlow, June 19, 1927, and have lived on their farm near Needy continuously.

A silver-decorated wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, was cut at the refreshment hour.

Joining Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and Jimmy at the anniversary observance were Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Epeneter, Robert, Michael, Mary and Gretchen, and Miss Bessie Gregerson, all of Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thompson, Linda and Ronald, and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Thompson of Woodburn; Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gudman, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Anderson and Richard, Aurora; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thompson, Dorothy Eileen and Maxine, Hubbard; Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Anderson, Lois, Howard, Shirley and Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Olsen, Muriel and Raymond, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Frum and Ellen Ann, all of Canby.

Carpenters Revamp Rock Creek Church

Aurora—Volunteer carpenters have removed the old siding from the west side of the historic Rock Creek church near Needy, and replaced it with boards.

The work was supervised by Solon Kinzer, chairman of the Rock Creek Cemetery association. Saturday volunteers again assembled to re-side the last and front side of the church.

Plans are nearly completed on arrangement of the program to be presented at the annual Pioneer day celebration, scheduled for Sunday, July 27.

Tentative plans are for a sermon honoring the pioneers by the Rev. D. Lester Field of Woodburn, a song by Mrs. Irva Graham, and violin solo by Mrs. Marilyn Frick.

Silverton To Hear Student Minister

Silverton—Ray Lester, pastor student, was guest speaker at the Sunday morning worship hour of Calvary Lutheran church in the absence of Rev. Arvid Hokanson on his month's vacation with his family, visiting relatives in the middle west.

Regular meetings at Calvary announced are Sunday school at 10 a.m., Naomi society Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., Bible study and prayer service Wednesday evening at 8, and Luther league Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at the church.

The Hokonsons plan to be home by Sunday, July 6.

Unionvale

Unionvale—Mr. and Mrs. Victor Geiger and family had as their guests Tuesday and Wednesday, his brother-in-law, William Metcalf of Lawton, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Orman and their two daughters, Barbara and Janice, of San Fernando, Calif., and Mrs. Gertrude Smith and daughter, Betty Jean Smith, of Portland.

Mrs. Orman visited here 11 years ago. Mrs. Smith and the late Mrs. William Metcalf were sisters of Mr. Geiger.

Mrs. Josephine Jones of Whiteson is a guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Jones of Unionvale and helps her grandmother, Kaye Jones, pick red raspberries for Maurice Goodrich.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Edmond L. Jones of Unionvale for their 23rd wedding anniversary which was Saturday, June 28, a surprise party of relatives was held at the home of Mr. and

Mrs. Fred Launer in Amity Thursday evening.

Twelve relatives attended. Their daughter, Miss Kaye Jones, was the sponsor.

Mrs. Dennis Jarvi served. Attending were the honorees and their daughters, of Unionvale; Mrs. Steven Jones and Mrs. Dora Hayes and granddaughter, Whiteson; Mrs. George Westfall, McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Jarvi of Unionvale, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Launer and Carol of Amity.

Woodburn Guard Will Be Honored

Woodburn—The members of the Woodburn National Guard tank company, who returned from encampment at Ft. Lewis, Wash., Saturday, bringing home the 41st infantry division association trophy for outstanding service during the past year, will be honored by Woodburn business men with a feed tonight (Monday).

The affair will be held at the Woodburn armory at 8 p.m. The dinner will be served buffet style with William Merriott, Winton Hunt, John F. Lacey and P. G. McLaughlin serving, assisted by other business men.

Sheridan

Sheridan—Rev. Everett Gardner, pastor of the Methodist church, has been returned here for the next year. He has been here two years now.

Rev. Charles Davenport, formerly of Sheridan and now of Amity, will attend school in Evanston, Ill., for the next two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Atwood and Judy have returned from a vacation trip which took them in to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hogue and Vivian left this week for their home in Geneva, Neb., after visiting at the Ted Richey home here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gardner and Major and Mrs. Steve Zvoner and Lee of Shreveport, La., are visiting here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McPherson and family of San Jose, Calif., visited at the E. A. Brandt home this week.

Mn. and Mrs. Wes Lady have returned from a trip into Canada.

Greg Flynn was honored on his fourth birthday last week with a party for 14 friends.

Pfc. Gordon Bronson, who has been home on leave, returned to San Francisco this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bozeman and Dixie left this week for a month's vacation trip to Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Earl MacDonald and Patsy of Denver, Colo., are visiting at the Harlow Baker home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. El Alton and daughters of Lander, Wyo., visited here this week with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Coutyman. The ladies are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Main and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Maine of Jerome, Idaho, are visiting at the Glen and C. M. Pruitt homes here.

Cub Pack awards were made last week when Tim McQuary and Ricky Funk were presented the bobcat award, and Sage Ferris received a gold arrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther White of Sheridan are the parents of a daughter, born June 19 at the McMinnville hospital.

Rev. and Mrs. James S. Kessler are the parents of a daughter, Annette Kay, born June 23 at the McMinnville General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nisley are the parents of a daughter, Constance Grace, born June 28 at the McMinnville hospital.

Mrs. Fred Launer in Amity Thursday evening.

Twelve relatives attended. Their daughter, Miss Kaye Jones, was the sponsor.

Mrs. Dennis Jarvi served. Attending were the honorees and their daughters, of Unionvale; Mrs. Steven Jones and Mrs. Dora Hayes and granddaughter, Whiteson; Mrs. George Westfall, McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Jarvi of Unionvale, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Launer and Carol of Amity.

Woodburn Guard Will Be Honored

Woodburn—The members of the Woodburn National Guard tank company, who returned from encampment at Ft. Lewis, Wash., Saturday, bringing home the 41st infantry division association trophy for outstanding service during the past year, will be honored by Woodburn business men with a feed tonight (Monday).

The affair will be held at the Woodburn armory at 8 p.m. The dinner will be served buffet style with William Merriott, Winton Hunt, John F. Lacey and P. G. McLaughlin serving, assisted by other business men.

Sheridan

Sheridan—Rev. Everett Gardner, pastor of the Methodist church, has been returned here for the next year. He has been here two years now.

Rev. Charles Davenport, formerly of Sheridan and now of Amity, will attend school in Evanston, Ill., for the next two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Atwood and Judy have returned from a vacation trip which took them in to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hogue and Vivian left this week for their home in Geneva, Neb., after visiting at the Ted Richey home here.