

In The Valley

By MIKE FORBES

2—Capital Journal, Salem, Ore., Thursday, July 10, 1952

St. Louis Hosts Hassler Hassle

Mt. Angel—The Hassler clan held a reunion Sunday at the St. Louis church parish park, with more than 75 members in attendance. Rev. Norbert Fritz, son of Mrs. Andy Keidel (Carrie Hassler), pastor of the St. Louis parish, arranged the program.

A pot luck dinner was served at noon. During the afternoon the Al Hasslers of Sublimity showed moving pictures of last year's Hassler picnic, and of their trip to Europe.

The occasion of the reunion was the visit of three Hassler brothers and their families, who arrived here Friday and Sunday to visit with relatives in the west. They are, the George Hasslers of St. Petersburg, Fla., the William Hasslers of St. Paul, Minn., and the Hubert Hasslers of Manitoba, Canada.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Hassler, Mount Angel, and members of their family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schindler, Lucille, Norbert, Earl and Joseph, Junior, of Gervais; Mr. and Mrs. Al Morey, Sharon and John, and Bernard Hassler, Mt. Angel.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hassler, Mount Angel, and their family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bickler, Ronald, Kenneth and Janice, Miss Kathleen Hassler, Mt. Angel, and Max and Susan Kimmel of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hassler and daughter Rozanne of St. Petersburg, Fla., their daughter, Sister M. Beneta, O. S. B., of Cottonwood, Idaho, at present attending college at Mount Angel Women's College, Mt. Angel; Mrs. Hassler's mother, Mrs. Mary Brost of Gresham, and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brost, Marie, Kathy, and Jimmy Brost of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hassler of St. Paul, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Keidel of Stayton and sons Clarence, and the Rev. Father Norbert Fritz of St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hassler, Sublimity, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boedigheimer and Laurell and Mark of Sublimity.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hassler, and children, Ralph, Larry and Joyce of Roblin, Manitoba, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Bray, Bob and Maureen, and Mr. and Mrs. Vic Erickson, Phillip and Judy of Portland. They are daughters of Mrs. Louis Burckhard (Hassler) of Grand Forks, North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Hassler of Battleground, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Al Hassler of Sublimity, and son Edward, and their visiting relatives.

Sunnyside

Sunnyside—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whelan of Stayton, former Sunnyside residents, called on Mr. and Mrs. Norman Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Whelan Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bunse spent the week-end at Yahats, Ore.

Miss Mollie Hoover and Miss Harriett Lee of Kalspel, Mont. and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bunse and children of Turner were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heckart for a picnic supper recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Taylor entertained with a picnic supper on the Fourth at their home for their family and friends.

Mrs. Gladys Pearson has sold her farm to Mr. Hall of Albany.

Floyd Bickells has sold property to his father, who expects to start building in, the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tyler have moved to Tillamook where Mr. Tyler will take over the management of a grocery store.

Mrs. Frances Langford has been appointed clerk for the Sunnyside school board.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Chandler of Silverton visited Mrs. Bertha Heckart recently.

Edwin Beckley was called to make a hurried trip to Astoria where his nephew, John Beckley became seriously ill while he was returning to his home here.

Mrs. Dudley Taylor's mother, Mrs. Byers, is critically ill at the Convalescent Home.

Mrs. Paul Walrath underwent minor surgery at the Salem Memorial hospital and is convalescing at home.

Pleasantdale

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mills attended a Mills family picnic at the home of Mrs. John Mills at Damascus, July 4.

Floyd McFarlane and his son-in-law, Don Carlson, had good luck fishing on the Siletz, July 4.

Mrs. D. Lynn Gubser was in the McMinnville hospital several days last week for treatment.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mills were her family, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Baker and Captain and Mrs. Dean Baker and their two children of McMinnville. Captain Baker, who is a brother of Mrs. Mills, recently returned from Okinawa. He is in the air corps.

Mrs. Asa Nichols of McMinnville is spending a week or so with her sister-in-law, Miss Esther Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rutschman and children attended the Amity Baptist church picnic at the home of the Lehman brothers, Sunday.

A houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Whitney over the holidays was her sister, Mrs. Vera Miner of Beaverton. Other guests at a 4th of July supper were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson and baby of Newberg and Mr. and Mrs. James Drury, recently married, who have come here from Tennessee to live.

Sunday callers at the Ed Richards home were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stoutenburg of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Ersel Gubser of Unionvale.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Beach and children were called to Pixely, Calif., by the illness of her father, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Flock and children spent the holidays camping at Clear Lake on the Santiam.

Recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Litscher were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carleton and their two daughters of Yakima. They were neighbors when the Litschers lived at Yakima, several years ago.

Billy Knott and Frank Sperling, who stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Flock for a month to pick strawberries, returned to their home at Vale last week-end. Billy Knott is a brother of Mrs. Flock.

John Gritton of Brush College, near Salem, passed away recently after a brief illness. He was the father of Mrs. Everett Joeckil, who lives on the river road.

Mr. and Mrs. John Litscher were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carleton and their two daughters of Yakima. They were neighbors when the Litschers lived at Yakima, several years ago.

Billy Knott and Frank Sperling, who stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Flock for a month to pick strawberries, returned to their home at Vale last week-end. Billy Knott is a brother of Mrs. Flock.

John Gritton of Brush College, near Salem, passed away recently after a brief illness. He was the father of Mrs. Everett Joeckil, who lives on the river road.

THE SALEM DRIVE-IN
2-7829

GATES OPEN 7 SHOW AT DUSK NOW!

In Technicolor
"SNOW WHITE and THE 7 DWARFS"
— PLUS —
In Color
"ALADDIN AND HIS LAMP"

Make Your Movie Habit the Drive-In Habit

See a show from your car!

Open Rain or Shine!

in person

The golden touch

FRANKIE CARLE

HIS PIANO AND HIS ORCHESTRA

Thursday, July 17th

CRYSTAL GARDENS

Salem 9 p.m. 1 a.m. Standard Time

Tickets Available at All Downtown Record Shops

AIR CONDITIONED HOLLYWOOD
NOW SHOWING - OPEN 6:45

Denver & Rio Grande

TECHNICOLOR COMEDY CO-STAR "MISTER UNIVERSE"

Jack Carson, Janis Paige

Mill City

Mill City—Ed Kellom was taken home from his store Wednesday shortly before afternoon when he became seriously ill. His condition this week was reported to be much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Rambo and family motored to several points of interest in eastern Oregon on the 4th of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hoffman and family spent the 4th of July at St. Paul, where they attended the rodeo and witnessed the fireworks during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Smith left Sunday evening for Turlock, Calif., after receiving word of the sudden death of her sister, Mrs. Florence Donnell of that city, and a former resident of this vicinity. Mrs. Donnell was a member of Santiam Rebekah lodge of Mill City.

Mill City delegates attending the Theta Rho girls first annual assembly, held in Salem June 21, 22, were Virginia Timm and Donna Nelson. Other members attending from Mill City Beta Kappa Theta Rho club were Yvonne Dart and Ellen Chance, also Mrs. Walter Thomas, advisor for the Mill City club. Virginia Timm received the honor of being appointed as first herald for the 1953 assembly, which will be held in Portland. Donna Nelson served on the press committee at convention this year. 450 girls attended, representing the 41 Theta Rho clubs in Oregon.

Returning this week from a trip east was Mrs. Frank Bass. She visited her son and daughter and their families in Toledo, Ohio and Tennessee. She also spent some time sightseeing in Virginia and Washington, D. C.

In Mill City visiting at the home of Mrs. Bessie Vandemeer are her daughter and son-in-law, Cpl. and Mrs. Clyde Richards (Wanda Vandemeer). Cpl. Richards has been called for overseas duty and will leave July 11. Mrs. Richards plans to stay in Mill City. Cpl. Richards is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Richards, where they are spending some of their time.

Jerry Hunter, who has been stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas, during the past year, left the forepart of the week for Fort Lawton, Wash., following his furlough in Mill City at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunter. Jerry is a former Mill City high school graduate.

Rev. Lee Joiner and two daughters left last week for Texas, where they will visit his parents. Mrs. Joiner is in charge of services at the Community church during his absence.

Santiam Rebekah lodge No. 168 met in regular session Wednesday night with Julia Bassett, noble grand, and Ada Plymale, vice grand, in charge. During the evening the Rebekah charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Sara Taylor, a member of the Mill City Rebekah lodge for almost 30 years.

A report was given on the recent Theta Rho girls assembly in Salem by Antonia Thomas, advisor for the local girls club.

Announcement was made by Alma Thomas, district deputy president, that public and joint installation with the Mill City Odd Fellows will be held Saturday night, July 12. Potluck refreshments will be served that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Varcoe spent their three-day holiday in Portland at the Joe Marriage home. Also present was Mrs. Varcoe's mother, Mrs. Rose Stewart of Portland.

Mrs. James Overlock of Seattle and daughter Kathryn are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Davis, for the week. Mrs. Overlock just returned from a visit in Washington, D. C., and other points of interest in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Gessner left Monday of this week for San Francisco where they will make their home. The Gessners just recently sold their home and ing some of their time.

Jerry Hunter, who has been stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas, during the past year, left the forepart of the week for Fort Lawton, Wash., following his furlough in Mill City at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunter. Jerry is a former Mill City high school graduate.

Rev. Lee Joiner and two daughters left last week for Texas, where they will visit his parents. Mrs. Joiner is in charge of services at the Community church during his absence.

Santiam Rebekah lodge No. 168 met in regular session Wednesday night with Julia Bassett, noble grand, and Ada Plymale, vice grand, in charge. During the evening the Rebekah charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Sara Taylor, a member of the Mill City Rebekah lodge for almost 30 years.

A report was given on the recent Theta Rho girls assembly in Salem by Antonia Thomas, advisor for the local girls club.

Announcement was made by Alma Thomas, district deputy president, that public and joint installation with the Mill City Odd Fellows will be held Saturday night, July 12. Potluck refreshments will be served that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Varcoe spent their three-day holiday in Portland at the Joe Marriage home. Also present was Mrs. Varcoe's mother, Mrs. Rose Stewart of Portland.

Mrs. James Overlock of Seattle and daughter Kathryn are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Davis, for the week. Mrs. Overlock just returned from a visit in Washington, D. C., and other points of interest in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Gessner left Monday of this week for San Francisco where they will make their home. The Gessners just recently sold their home and ing some of their time.

Jerry Hunter, who has been stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas, during the past year, left the forepart of the week for Fort Lawton, Wash., following his furlough in Mill City at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunter. Jerry is a former Mill City high school graduate.

Rev. Lee Joiner and two daughters left last week for Texas, where they will visit his parents. Mrs. Joiner is in charge of services at the Community church during his absence.

Santiam Rebekah lodge No. 168 met in regular session Wednesday night with Julia Bassett, noble grand, and Ada Plymale, vice grand, in charge. During the evening the Rebekah charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Sara Taylor, a member of the Mill City Rebekah lodge for almost 30 years.

A report was given on the recent Theta Rho girls assembly in Salem by Antonia Thomas, advisor for the local girls club.

Gates

Gates—Lincoln Henness was honored on the occasion of his 89th birthday anniversary, Saturday, July 5, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Wiltsey, in Salem.

Thirty-two relatives and friends gathered at the Wiltsey home, some from out of the state. Those attending from Gates were the guest of honor, Mr. Henness, Mrs. Henness, Mrs. Lillie Lake and "T" Henness, who will celebrate his 98th birthday in September. Lincoln Henness and "T" Henness are brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Varcoe spent their three-day holiday in Portland at the Joe Marriage home. Also present was Mrs. Varcoe's mother, Mrs. Rose Stewart of Portland.

Mrs. James Overlock of Seattle and daughter Kathryn are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Davis, for the week. Mrs. Overlock just returned from a visit in Washington, D. C., and other points of interest in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Gessner left Monday of this week for San Francisco where they will make their home. The Gessners just recently sold their home and tourist cabins here.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brisbin celebrated the Fourth in Bend, taking in the three-day water pageant there.

Mrs. Lula Collins has been seriously ill for the past two weeks and is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Claude Sellard, in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pennick had as their guests over the holidays, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cochran and son from Jefferson and Mrs. Ray Colgan and Miss Myrtle Cloyd, both of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Moses vacationed at Wheeler over their three-day holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Reynolds, from Merlin, near Grants Pass, are new residents of Gates. Mr. Reynolds has accepted a position on the teaching staff of the Gates high school. Reynolds was graduated from Willamette university with the class of 1951 and also took graduate work on his master's degree last year while teaching part time in the Salem high.

Guests during the holidays at the Albert Millsap home were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hanson and two daughters, all from San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Smith of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Miley were in Gates Saturday from Salem, where Miley is attending summer school at Willamette university. He is superintendent of the Gates schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Paul were Bandon visitors over the holidays, returning Sunday night. They also visited relatives in Eugene en route.

Earle Henness, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Henness, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Willis Webster, daughter Elda and son Eddie to Grand View and Prosser, Wash., over the holidays.

Among those attending the rodeo in St. Paul the Fourth were Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Cole and son Marlin, Miss Lorena Devine from Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Turnidge and daughter Carolyn of Cutler City, who were visiting in Gates.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey and son spent several days during the holidays in Gresham at the home of her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Joaquin and daughter, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Laura Joaquin, visited over the week-end near Coos Bay with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Findley spent the week-end in Portland and The Dalles visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Paul were Bandon visitors over the holidays, returning Sunday night. They also visited relatives in Eugene en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Paul were Bandon visitors over the holidays, returning Sunday night. They also visited relatives in Eugene en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Paul were Bandon visitors over the holidays, returning Sunday night. They also visited relatives in Eugene en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Paul were Bandon visitors over the holidays, returning Sunday night. They also visited relatives in Eugene en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Paul were Bandon visitors over the holidays, returning Sunday night. They also visited relatives in Eugene en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Paul were Bandon visitors over the holidays, returning Sunday night. They also visited relatives in Eugene en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Paul were Bandon visitors over the holidays, returning Sunday night. They also visited relatives in Eugene en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Paul were Bandon visitors over the holidays, returning Sunday night. They also visited relatives in Eugene en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Paul were Bandon visitors over the holidays, returning Sunday night. They also visited relatives in Eugene en route.

DANCE

Friday Nite

To the Music of

TOMMY KIZZIAH

AND HIS ORCHESTRA

CRYSTAL GARDENS

Stars of Stage, Recording and Radio playing Western Swing

NIGHT BASEBALL
8:15
TONIGHT!

LEWISTON
— VS. —
SALEM SENATORS

Grandstand $1.00
Bleachers 65c

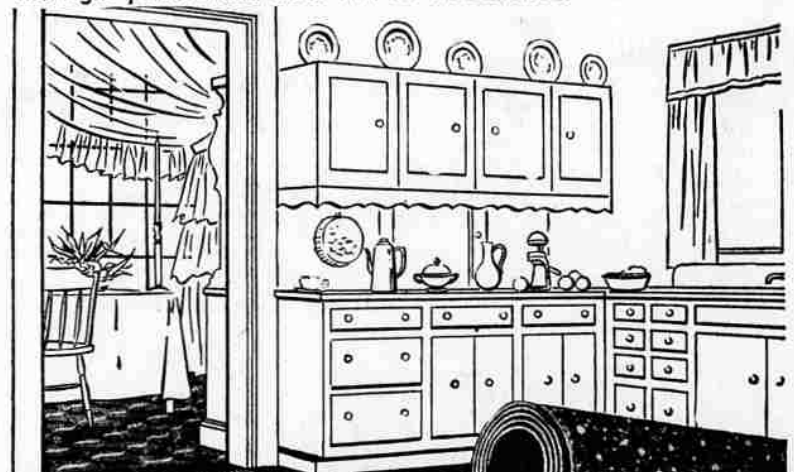

LIKE HUNDREDS OF OTHER HOUSEWIVES ARE YOU "FED-UP"

With Old, Drab, Worn-Out Floors?

If you are, we don't blame you! But you are to blame if you continue to live with your old floor when it's so easy to Restyle your Entire room with Woodry's low cost Linoleum floor... Your home takes on that "Styled-right" look when you change to smart, colorful, distinctive Inlaid Linoleum.

For the living room... bedroom... kitchen or bath... you'll find just the right pattern and color... at WOODRY'S!

DO YOU KNOW...

Woodry's will furnish and install genuine, standard gauge, first quality inlaid linoleum, wall-to-wall in your kitchen for only...

$39.95

Make Woodry's Your Linoleum Headquarters

Come in now! Select from our large stock of nationally famous brands the patterns and colors that will give your rooms new and lasting beauty!

*Price quoted is for room approximately 9x12 size. Your floor may cost less or slightly more, depending on size of room.

Live with your new linoleum floors now! And pay as little as $5 monthly on Woodry's long, low, easy terms.

WOODRY FURNITURE CO.
474 SOUTH COMMERCIAL
3 BLOCKS SOUTH LADD AND RUSH AVE.

No Fuss Or Muss... When Woodry's Do the Job! Most Installations Completed in Just One Day...

Dial 4-2111... Have a Free Estimate Made for Your New Floors... No Obligation, of Course.

GRAND

OPEN 6:45 P.M.

ENDS TODAY! (THURS.)
"Love Is Better Than Ever" and "Mullin"

TOMORROW!
At Bargain Prices!

The Lion and the Horse

NEVER A BEAST-BATTLE LIKE IT!

WARNER COLOR

STEVE COCHRAN

CO-FEATURE

LOOSE TALK... WHISPERING CAMPAIGNS... and what it did to a man!

TALK ABOUT A STRANGER

GEORGE MURPHY - NANCY DAVIS

CRYSTAL GARDENS

Salem 9 p.m. 1 a.m. Standard Time

Tickets Available at All Downtown Record Shops