Hopewell

Hopewell—Next Sunday, July 13, is Conference Sunday, the last day of the conference which is being held this week at the Englewood E. U. B. church in Salem. Sunday school will be held as usual, and the morning worship will be in charge of the class leader, Delbert Smith. There will be no Youth Fellowship or evening service.

Wednesday evening, July 16, is the July meeting of the Hopewell Missionary society and will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Waller, with Mrs. Gusti Setala as assistant hostess. Mrs. N. O. Pearce is the leader. The meeting is at 8:30.

Boysenberry and raspberry picking are in progress in the Hopewell vicinity. Leonard Hickerson, Ed Nelson, John Geisler, Oscar Lafferty are the growers who are starting their harvest this week of boysenberries and Chas. Compton and Frank Bass are harvesting raspberries and boysen.

Rev. and Mrs. Carl Pershall and family were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lafferty. They visited in Riddle, Ore., last week, where they held the pastorate for two years before Rev. Pershall returned to his work as pastor of the Baptist church of Dubois, Idaho. He spent three weeks at the Berkeley Baptist divinity school this summer. Mrs. Pershall and the children will remain for some time to assist in the berry harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fleming and family were Hopewell visitors on the 4th. They are making their home in Philomath, and Mrs. Fleming is caring for the four little children of Earl Fleming, whose wife passed away this spring.
