IOOF in Picnic At Woodburn

Woodburn—Fifty-nine Rebekahs, Odd Fellows and families gathered at Settlemier park Sunday for the annual picnic. Miss Laura Bonney was in charge of the coffee and table arrangements and ice cream was furnished by the Odd Fellows. A number of guests from out of town were present.

At the regular meeting of the Rebekahs Tuesday night one new member by transfer was received.

Miss Mabel Jackson, chairman of the float which the Rebekahs arranged for the IOOF parade at Salem during the state convention, gave a report on the float and highlights of the parade.

No special program was arranged but a watermelon feed was served after the meeting by a committee with Mrs. Ruby Peyton in charge.

For the next meeting the hostess committee will be Mrs. Emma Weber, Mrs. Laura Livesay and Mrs. Elsie Ryer and the entertainment will be in the form of a lawn party after the meeting at the home of Mrs. Weber.

Oregon-Kansas Club Picnic

Albany—The annual picnic of the Oregon-Kansas club will be held at Bryant park, Albany, on Sunday, July 27. Lunch will be at noon, DST, with free coffee and watermelons.

In using balloons to lift weight, it takes about 14 cubic feet of helium to lift one pound.

Mill City

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Braden of Smith Center, Kan., have been visiting the families of Mr. Braden's sisters, Mrs. Paul Horner and Mrs. Vern Clark of Mill City.

Mr. Braden was a resident of the Gates community in the first part of the century and packed freight on horses from Gates to the mines beyond Elkhorn. It gave him quite a thrill to find his initials that he had written with a pencil in a cave 43 years before. At that time there was a postoffice at Elkhorn and Mr. Braden's mother was postmistress at Gates.

In Mill City Saturday night to attend open installation of Mill City IOOF and Santiam Rebekah lodge were Charles Nicolson, of Forest Grove, a former resident of Mill City and a member of the lodges here; Mrs. Ethelyn Thompson of Salem Rebekah lodge No. 1; and Mrs. Margaret Liberty of White Salmon, a former resident of Mill City and a member of Santiam Rebekahs.

Leaving the fore part of the week to return to their home in San Leandro, Calif., were Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Hendrickson, who have been visiting his sister here, Miss Daisy Hendrickson.

Mrs. Harold Pound spent the past week in Eugene visiting relatives and friends.

Spending the week-end with her mother, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Morris, were Miss Eleanor Simmons of Portland and her friend, Carl Carlson, of the U.S. Air Corps stationed at Moses Lake, Wash.

Mrs. E. K. Fish opened her home to members of the Christian Women's Fellowship society of the Christian church for the regular monthly meeting Wednesday. Mrs. E. D. Cooke was program leader for the afternoon and Mrs. Hugh Jull devotional leader. The August meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ethel Hill.

Gand Island — Forty-two friends and relatives attended a shower party at the Unionvale Evangelical United Brethren church honoring little Vickie Ann Scoggan, two-weeks-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Scoggan of Grand Island district from 8 to 10:30 p.m. Monday.

Two grandmothers attending were Mrs. E. W. Mandigo of Dayton and Mrs. Lester Scoggan of Grand Island.

A great-grandmother was Mrs. V. V. Scoggan, Sr., of Hopeville.

Others attending were Mrs. A. W. Dokkin, Salem, and Mrs. Mary Mandigo, a guest at the E. W. Mandigo home.

Sponsors were Mrs. Ronald Finnium, Mrs. Daniel Tompkins, Mrs. Jacob Tompkins, Jr. and Mrs. Howard Steingrube.

Union Hill

Union Hill — The regular White-King reunion was held at Silverton park Sunday, July 13, and the new officers were elected.

They are: President, Merl King; vice president, Clifford White; secretary, Mrs. Henry Tate; treasurer, Mrs. Myra Fischer; historian, Mrs. Russell Grey.

The family coming the farthest were Mr. and Mrs. Merl King, son, and Mrs. John King, of Redmond, Oregon. Oldest member present was George Scott of Silverton; the youngest, Joyce Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Scott of Lyons. The next reunion will be held at the Stayton Masonic park. The table committee was Mr. and Mrs. Winnie Tate, and the coffee committee, Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hutchings motored to Pacific City Sunday spending the day there.

Andy Wilson, who has been ill for the past week, is improving and is able to be up some of the time.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mann, who is now making her home in the Mennonite home, writes she likes it there very much. She spent the past several days in Jefferson and returned to the home on her birthday and they had a special dinner in her honor.

Dayton

Dayton—Gordon Matthews, splashed battery acid in his eye, while working in his automotive shop at the Dayton Motor Co., Saturday morning. He had tested a battery and was hanging the hydrometer back on a nail when a drop of acid fell in his eye. As a result, he has several blisters on the eye ball. He has been in a dark room for several days and finds the injury is painful. However, he does not feel the sight has been impaired.

Children Dance At Silverton

The first of two kiddies tap, ballet and novelty dance programs was presented Wednesday night at the Silverton Palace theater by 14 Salem and Silverton children.

The program was presented by the instructor, Miriam Cooley-Ernest, through the cooperation of Al Rasmussen and Alfred Adams.

Saturday night the second showing will be presented preceding the first movie feature.

Mrs. Ernest designed all costumes in a pleasing variety of color, adding attractiveness to the entire set-up.

Salem artists in the trio of "The Toy Soldiers" are Lawrence Palmer, 4, youngest pupil of Mrs. Ernest, Louann Doerfler and Scott Taylor; the duo in the "Dance of the Baby Dollies," Silverton girls, are Melody Bunting and Dorothy Calkins.

The arranged program includes:

1. La Petite Coquette (The Little Flirt), Christine Clark.
2. The Doll Dance—Donna Sieberg, Nancy Simmons, Twila Fitch.
3. The Toy Soldiers—Salem trio.
4. Hat and Cane Strut—Twila Fitch, soloist, assisted by chorus, Margaret Patterson.

- Olivia Miles, Alta and Betty Bauer.
5. Bowery Tap—Donna Sieberg.
6. Dance of the Baby Dollies—Silverton duo.
7. Buck and Wing Tap—Nancy Simmons.
8. Beginners Waltz Clog—Melody Bunting, Christine Clark and Dorothy Calkins.
9. Ting-A-Ling Waltz Ballet—Nancy Simmons, Donna Sieberg, Twila Fitch.

The entire cast appear in The Grand Finale.
