Willamette Valley Lumber Company Modernizes Plant

Dallas—Improvements in the Willamette Valley Lumber company during the last three weeks resulted in much new machinery being placed from one end of the main plant to the other by Forrest Holmes and his crew.

Gates

Gates — The high temperatures of the last several days have retarded most activities here. "Early to bed and early to rise" and the search for a cool shady spot during the heat is the chief occupation. The loggers are "hoof-owing", up at 2:30 each morning ready to start work in the woods at dawn. It has often been found necessary to stop logging operations at about 9 a.m. due to the low humidity.

Mrs. Joe Joaquin entertained a number of friends informally at her home recently. The hostess served refreshments at the close of the evening to Mrs. Glen Hennessy, Mrs. Bob Bonitz, Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. W. F. Struckmeier, Mrs. Dan Morrison, Mrs. Clare Hennessy, Mrs. Bob Oliver, Mrs. Glen Hennessy, Mrs. Kenneth Martig, Mrs. W. S. Hudson, Mrs. Velma Carey, Mrs. Albert Millsap and Mrs. Irene Nettleton of Salem.
