Portland Wins Series from Los Angeles Angels, 7-2

By PAUL CANE

San Francisco (UP) — Candid Fred Haney, who literally talked his way into the job of managing the Hollywood Stars, is sitting on top of the Pacific Coast league.

Haney laid the groundwork for his post a few seasons back when he was a radio announcer, broadcasting the Hollywood games. Fred was quick to point out what was wrong with the Stars and what he thought should be done to make them a winner.

Bango! He got the job and won a pennant. Last year he finished second.

Their position should not be challenged during the next two series, at any rate, when the Stars engage Sacramento and San Francisco, the PCL's door mat twins.

Hollywood had great fun against San Diego, drubbing the Padres in seven of eight. The Stars took the opener Sunday, 10-9, but lost the nightcap, 1-0, to Theolie Smith's six-hit shutout.

Oakland gained a game on the Stars, winning two overtime contests from Seattle. The Oaks got home, 2-1, in 12 frames, and 4-3 in 11.

Portland, which looks like a better than sixth-place team, waxed Los Angeles twice, 9-2, and 2-1, to win the series, 7-2.

San Francisco and Sacramento, who played their series in near privacy, split. The Seals won, 5-2, but then lost, 6-1.

Right-hander Smith, though he pitched a fine game, was lucky to snap his Padre mates' losing streak. Hollywood pitcher Larry Shepard opposed him with a four-hitter. But Murray Franklin doubled and Al Richter legged out an infield single in the third. Franklin scored when Smith grounded into a twin killing.

Franklin hit a two-run homer in the opener, sparking a San Diego rally. Haney then rushed in Joe Muir, his third pitcher, to save the game and extend the Stars' win streak to 11 straight—seven at the expense of the Pads.

Pete Milne's single and Johnny Jorgensen's two bagger made the Oaks a winner in the opener. Three pitchers served in the game and none allowed a walk. George Bamberger went the route for the Oaks, allowing only six hits.

In the second overtime meeting, catcher Ray Noble hit a two-run homer in the fourth and singled home the winning marker in the 11th.

Don Eggert, Portland's improving infielder, boomed out a grand-slam homer in the first frame to make Fred Sanford's shaky 11-hit pitching stand up. In the second game, second-inning doubled by Eggert and Herm Reich and singles by Ed Basinski and Jimmy Gladd gave Portland two runs and the game.

A swinging bunt and two popfly singles helped the Seals stage a three-run rally in the eighth inning to win the opener. But Dino Restelli doubled and singled home three runs to punch Sacramento to victory in the second meeting.

Restelli, a former San Francisco star, was making his debut as a Solon.

First games: Sacramento 000 000 000—3 7 6; San Francisco 010 001 003—8 8 0; Fresno, Pacific (8) and Smith; San Antonio and Oriz.

Solons (Washington, That Is) Climb to Third Place

By JOE REICHLER (Associated Press Sports Writer) Four consecutive victories by one run... 21 one-run triumphs for the season. That is the principal reason why Washington's scrappy Senators are in third place Monday after all but a handful of experts picked them to finish in the American League cellar.

The Nats added their fourth straight one-run victory Sunday as they swept a doubleheader from the St. Louis Browns, 7-6 and 6-3, to move into third place, a half game behind the Boston Red Sox.

The Red Sox picked up a full game on the pace-setting Yankees, vanquishing the Cleveland Indians 8-7, in 12 innings on Johnny Lipton's bases-loaded single. The fifth-place Chicago White Sox upset the New York Yankees, 5-4, Homers by Eddie Robinson and Sherm Lollar ended Chicago's six-game losing streak.

Philadelphia's Athletics took the opener of a doubleheader from Detroit, 8-7, on Joe Tipton's ninth-inning single. The teams then played a 3-3 tie in the second game, halted by Pennsylvania's curfew at the end of nine innings. The Tigers tallied twice in the top of the 10th to take a 5-3 lead but the score reverted back to the end of the ninth as the Athletics did not have time to take their turn at bat in the 10th. The nightcap will have to be played over.

Brooklyn's runaway Dodgers maintained their 7 1/2 game bulge in the National League, taking Pittsburgh into camp for the 13th straight time—8-5. The runner-up New York Giants whipped the Chicago Cubs, 9-7, and the third-place

Yesterday's Stars (By The Associated Press) Boston—Andy Semnick, Reds and Del Emilo, Phillies—Semnick hit a grand slam home run in the role of a pinchhitter in the fifth inning, then went behind the bat and scored the winning run after hitting a double in the 10th as the Reds won the over, 6-3. Emilo batted two doubles and a home run and scored three times in the Phils' second game 4-3 win for the Phils.

Pittsburgh—Harry Dorish, White Sox—Replaced Chuck Stobbs with Chicago leading the Yankees, 3-4 in the eighth. He found pinch hitter Hank Bauer and retired the next four batters to preserve Chicago's one-run margin.

World Series Preview? World Series preview was on tap for an expected 70,000 fans tonight as the New York Yankees were scheduled to meet the Brooklyn Dodgers in an exhibition game for the benefit of New York's sandlot baseball program.

Seaside Wins Playoff Game From F-Grove Seaside—Seaside's American Legion baseball team scored a 6-4, 12-inning victory over Forest Grove in the first game of a two-out-of-three playoff to see which team will meet Salem in inter-district playoffs.

A Portland coxswain, Jim Beggs, piloted U. S. team which won the third heat in rowing competition for pairs with coxswain. Beggs is crew coach at Stanford University.

Play at Cooperstown Cooperstown, N. Y. (UP)—The Cleveland Indians and Chicago Cubs will meet here Monday before an expected crowd of 10,000 in the annual "Hall of Fame" game at baseball's birthplace.

Clarence Smith Cops First in Hard Top Races When an auto racing outfit as eager for action as the hard topers come back into action after a month layoff, plenty of action is inevitable.

Such was the case at Hollywood Bowl Saturday night. Plagued by weather in recent scheduling, the hard tops were making their first appearance anywhere in a month.

And how those spin-outs and minor but spectacular accidents highlighted the racing card.

When the last square inch of metal had been dented, Clarence Smith, driving the No. 1 car, was the winner. Smith took the lead from Dick Gabouri on the 28th lap of the 35-lap main event. Gabouri finished second, about 12 lengths behind.

Next, in order, were Don Nelson, Tom Atwell, Bob Porter and Larry Gardner.

A crowd of 2,000 fans saw Arman Millan win the 20-lap class B main event, while Porter won the first heat, Gabouri the second heat, Dale Nelitan the third heat and Millan the fourth heat.

Jack Heppinstall has been the head athletic trainer at Michigan State for 37 years. He is the only trainer the Spartans ever had.
