Wedding In Portland Of Interest

Invitations have been received by several Salem friends for the wedding of Miss Georgie Ann Oberbauer, daughter of the George Herman Oberbauers of Portland, and David Ernest Crockett, son of Mrs. Therese S. Crockett of Salem.

The wedding will be in the afternoon of August 10 at 4 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church in Portland, the reception following to be at the Oberbauer home, Nineacres Farm.

Among affairs to be given in honor of the bride-elect preceding her wedding will be the party for which Miss Jocelyn Davis and Miss Elizabeth Waddell, the latter of Lebanon, are to entertain on Sunday, July 27, at the Bruce F. Pickett home here.

About 25 have been invited for a late afternoon party, a shower to fete the bride and a buffet supper to be served.

Mrs. Harper Jamison of McMinnville also is entertaining to honor Miss Oberbauer, planning the luncheon for the bridesmaids.

Couple Wed Here Sunday Afternoon

A mid-afternoon wedding, Sunday, was that of Miss Mary Ann McFarlane and Ralph L. Nafziger, the 3 o'clock service being read at the First Christian church by the Rev. Brooks Moore of the First Methodist church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. McFarlane and Mr. Nafziger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Nafziger.

The bridal gown of lace and net over satin was fashioned en-train with full skirt and deep lace inset. The fitted bodice and long sleeves were of lace and were trimmed in seed pearls. The bride, given in marriage by her father, carried white stephanotis with a white orchid center and her fingertip illusion veil was held by a pearl tiara.

Mrs. Jack McFarlane, matron of honor, wore a pale green gown of net with full length skirt, and matching taffeta sash at the waist. A violet bunch was fastened to the low halter-effect neckline and the bouquet was of small pink roses and purple daisies.

The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Bischoff and Miss Ruth Bischoff, wore dresses of orchid, styled similarly to the honor attendant's, and carried bouquets of small pink roses and purple daisies.

Edgar Nafziger, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Ushering were Jack McFarlane, Gary McFarlane, Arthur Matsudas, Alton Roth, Bob Roth.

Lighting the tapers in the church were Mrs. James Blackman and Mrs. Homer Davenport. Nuptial music was played at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Cracraft. Soloist for the ceremony was Henry Dalke.

Mrs. M. F. Becker and Mrs. Floyd McFarlane, aunts of the bride, cut the bride's cake at the reception in the church parlors. Mrs. Glen McFarlane, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Harvey Michaelis and Mrs. Julia Dowdall were in charge of the punch bowl. Mrs. Richard Mitchell passed the guest book.

For the wedding trip to California, the bride wore royal blue knit suit with gold and white accessories. The couple plan to live in Salem until September when they will move to Springfield where Mr. Nafziger will have a teaching position at Springfield high school.

Engaged — Miss Doris Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Phillips, has announced her engagement to J. W. Melton, Jr., son of Mrs. and Mrs. James W. Melton.

Donna Jane Macklin Is Bride Saturday Evening

An attractive bride Saturday evening was Miss Donna Jane Macklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Macklin, her marriage to William Franklin Lawrence, son of Mrs. Adelia Lawrence, being solemnized at a service in the First Congregational church. Dr. Seth R. Huntington read the vows at 8 o'clock. White gladioluses and lighted candles decorated the church for the wedding, and down the aisle were yellow net ribbon and gladioluses at the pews.

For the music, Miss Roena Owen of Oswego sang. Mrs. Helen Blything of Portland played the organ.

Mr. Macklin gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a gown of white nylon tulle over bridal satin, the bodice of Chantilly lace over the satin and designed with an illusion neckline and cap sleeves of lace. The train was chapel length. The fingertip veil of illusion, edged in lace, was held in place by a Juliet cap of Chantilly lace and silk illusion trimmed with seed pearls and satin cord. For her flowers the bride carried a cascade of white gladioluses, tiny yellow rosebuds and stephanotis.

Coral and blue. Miss Patricia Ullman was honor attendant. She wore a coral organza over taffeta frock, made with bouffant skirt, nipped in bodice, winged collar and cap sleeves. With the dress she wore mits in coral. Her bouquet was a crescent of salmon and coral gladioluses.

Miss Sarah Jane Backstrand, Miss Jeanne Hoffman and Miss Nancy Trigg, the latter of Lebanon, were the bridesmaids. Their gowns all were made like that of the honor attendant but were in aqua organza with matching mits. Their flowers also were the crescents of salmon and coral gladioluses.

Beverly Babcock of Sandy was flower girl, wearing a yellow organza frock and carrying a fan shaped basket of garden blooms.

Harold Babcock of Sandy was best man. Bruce Rodgers, Don Bartholomew and Wes Bartholomew, all of Portland, were the ushers.

Reception follows. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Macklin wore an aqua chiffon and lace over taffeta gown, with corsage of white orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a rose crepe gown with corsage of white orchids.

The reception was at the Woman's club. Mrs. Gladys Oliver and Mrs. Harold Babcock, both of Sandy, cut the cake. Mrs. Lloyd Mitchell and Mrs. Roy Elliott, both of Portland, poured. The bride's table was set with a white satin cloth, yellow net fans, bows of yellow and coral and white and salmon roses. Assisting at the reception were Miss Claralyn Lee, Miss Beverly Hofstetter, Miss Maurine Jones, Miss Carol Wilcox of Newberg, Miss Edith Kilbuck of Hood River, Mrs. Walter Richards of Canton, Ill., Miss Helen Hannah of Portland, Mrs. Howard Madar, Mrs. Howard Girod, Miss Muriel Fitts, Janet and Nancy Babcock.

The couple left on a trip to the Oregon beaches, the bride wearing a navy wool crepe suit with white hat, navy and white accessories and corsage of orchids. The couple will be at home in West Linn after July 26.

WRC Event

A report on the Woman's Relief Corps state convention, given by Mrs. Gus Erickson, was part of the business of the Sedgwick corps meeting Friday. Mrs. C. G. Robertson also gave a reading on the flag.

Following the meeting, a dutch treat honoring Mrs. Mary Ackerman was attended by Mrs. Sarah Peterson, Mrs. C. G. Robertson, Mrs. C. R. Pierce, Mrs. Goldia Kyle, Mrs. Lura Tandy, Mrs. Fred Barker, Mrs. Blanche Stewart, Mrs. Gus Erickson, Mrs. Florence E. Shipp.

The next meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps will be August 15.

Miss Kufner Wed Here Sunday Eve

Exchanging nuptial vows Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock in a setting of red and white gladioluses were Miss Janet Marie Kufner, daughter of Mrs. Sam Rutherford and John Kufner, and John Marvin Rex, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rex. The ceremony was solemnized at St. Mark's Lutheran church with the Rev. John L. Cauble officiating.

Pink organza eyelet dresses with organza stoles were worn by the candlelighters, Miss Marilyn J. Olson and Miss JoAnn Majek. Soloist for the wedding was Mrs. Wilbur Martin. Maurice W. Brennen was the organist.

The bride, wearing a white satin gown with a net yoke and satin peplum, was given in marriage by her father. A coronet trimmed with pearls held the fingertip length veil. Streamers of white stephanotis cascaded from the bridal bouquet of red rosebuds surrounded by white gladioluses.

The dress of the honor attendant, Mrs. Gordon Hamilton, was of powder blue taffeta with sequins on net decorating the overskirt and stole. Mrs. Hamilton carried a nosegay of pink and white gladioluses, sweet peas, roses and snapdragons and pink lace.

Miss Patricia MacDonald and Mrs. Alvin Kampstra were the bridesmaids, their taffeta dresses of strapless design with sequined net stoles. Miss MacDonald's dress was pink, Mrs. Kampstra's blue. Their nosegays matched their dress colors.

Junior bridesmaid was the bride's sister, Karen Rutherford, who wore a pink taffeta dress and carried a matching nosegay. In blue dresses, styled like that of the junior bridesmaid's were flower girls, Shari Le Hofstetter and Margo Foote. They carried baskets of assorted flowers.

Melvin Rex stood with his brother as best man. The ushers were Tom Collier, Allan Olson, Harold Nicholes, Leon DuBois, Tom Walden, and Marvin Jensen.
