

In The Valley

By MIKE FORBES

Willamina

Willamina — The Willamina Promenaders met Tuesday at the fire hall recreation rooms. At a recent meeting Virgil Heider was elected president; Bess Johnson, secretary and Bob Pinnick, treasurer.

The Friendship club enjoyed their annual picnic Tuesday at the Dallas park. Members present were Mrs. W. C. Tremblay, Mrs. Bessie Lamson, Mrs. Cliff Rugg, Mrs. Josephine Rummell, Mrs. Earl Richardson, Mrs. Ann Call and Mrs. O. K. Brock.

The Theta Rho club met Monday night for installation of officers. Margaret Cunliffe was inducted, past president; Carol Schuster, president; Donna Stodkar, vice president; Bonnie Schwab, secretary; Fay Pearson, treasurer and Betty Wright, marshal. Mrs. Amy Fox was installing officer, Mrs. Thelma Edwards installing marshal and Mrs. Ann Call, installing musician. The club plans initiation for July 28, and a swimming party at Dallas on Aug. 1. Refreshments were served by Thelma Edwards, Wilma Yocom and Josephine Rummell.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Graham and Darrell have returned from a trip back east. They visited in Duluth, Minn., with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Isaacson, and at Ice Lake and Spring Brook, Wisconsin.

E. L. Carlstad was called to Minnesota Monday by the death of his sister.

Jimmy Dentel is spending this week at Wi-ne-ma camp. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rudig made a trip to Grand Coulee and Lake Chelan, where they visited a cousin, A. W. LaChapelle, and to Centralia, by way of Mt. Rainier, where they visited the Don Rudig family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Braniff and family of Klamath Falls, who have been visiting at the O. K. Brock, Sr., home, left Monday for their home.

Mrs. R. B. Watts attended the wedding of a cousin in Salem Saturday.

Dick and Donny Roberts of Sweet Home visited this week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smelser.

Earl and Jess Duncan have arrived home on leave from the navy. They are visiting in Yoncalia this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Keith Timberlake and Jerry of Seattle, Wash., visited Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Watts. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Clark are the parents of a daughter, Pamela Rae, born July 4. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Magers of Willamina are the baby's grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Risseuw of Willamina are the parents of a daughter, Denise Marie, born July 12 at the McMinnville hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Garland Huddleston of Willamina, and Mr. and Mrs. William Risseuw of North Plains.

From the start of the Korean fighting until April, 1952, more than 99,000 casualties were evacuated by the Air Force from Korea to Japan and about 44,000 were flown from Japan to the United States.

“AIR-CONDITIONED”
HOLLYWOOD
ENDS TODAY — OPEN 6:45
“PRIDE OF ST. LOUIS”
“WHEN IN ROME”
— Starts Tomorrow —

DAVID AND BATHSHEBA
TECHNICOLOR
GREGORY PECK
SUSAN HAYWARD
— Comedy Co-Feature —
“LEAVE IT TO THE MARINES”

NIGHT
BASEBALL
TONIGHT!
YAKIMA
VS.
SALEM SENATORS
Grandstand $1.00
Bleachers 65c

NOW!
24-HOUR DRUG SERVICE
Open Daily 8 A.M. to 11 P.M. and
Duty Pharmacist on Call
11 P.M. to 8 A.M.
Just Phone 39123 or 42248
QUISENBERRY'S
Prescription Store 130 South Liberty

Independence

Mr. and Mrs. L. McColeb, Jr., are the parents of a son, born at the Salem General hospital on July 2. The baby, named Gordon Eugene, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McColeb of Monmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ploub recently enjoyed a four-day sightseeing trip in southern Oregon and northern California, including the Redwood forest, Oregon caves and places of interest along the coast.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weaver at the Salem General hospital July 4. Mr. and Mrs. Loren Phillips are being visited by Mrs. Philip's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Bryson of Riley, Kan.

Mrs. C. O. Slopier entertained for several members of her family at her cottage at Delake during the past week-end. Those enjoying the visit at the beach were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Newton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Newton and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Newton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Dusan and sons recently spent some time at their beach home at Pacific City.

Rev. and Mrs. John W. Hood spent a few days recently at Nelscott attending a special meeting of the Willamette Presbytery.

Pleasantdale

LeRoy Beauchamp of McMinnville, a former Pleasantdale resident, is slowly improving at a McMinnville hospital, following major surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gross and Orville visited friends, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hertel, at Salem recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Joeckel and children are spending part of this week at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Gritton, near Salem.

Sunday dinner guests of Sheriff and Mrs. W. J. Jones and family were Mrs. Guy Jones and her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Veldon Diment and their daughters, Judy and Sara Jo, all of Portland.

Mrs. George Dorsey reports that her grandson, Marvin Litscher, for whom she is caring, is making a decided improvement, and is able to be up part of the time.

A houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Penland for a few days was her grand-nephew, six-year old Ricky Freeman, of Los Angeles, who was visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Esther McQuesten, in McMinnville. Ricky made the plane trip to and from Los Angeles alone.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Grabenhorst drove to Canby Sunday afternoon and were guests of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris, for tea.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Webster were their sister-in-law and children, Mrs. Edgar Hole, Steve and Kathy, of Dayton. Callers that afternoon at the Webster home were Mrs. Laverne Carney, her mother, Mrs. Bohna, and a friend, Ross Chapino, all of Portland. Mrs. Carney was the wife of the late Hal Allen, who was a druggist in Dayton many years ago.

Recent guests at the George Webster home have been Mrs. Webster's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Hole and children of Gresham, and Dean Spencer of Alsea came to spend a week-end with his wife, Ramona, who is staying with her parents, the Websters.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen McFarlane spent Saturday night at Bend, and on Sunday they went to see his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bert McFarlane.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McFarlane attended the Dayton American Legion picnic at the Maud Williamson state park, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Wiser are parents of a son born Tuesday morning, July 15. The child, Gary Dale, weighed 8½ pounds, at McMinnville hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Richards of Pleasantdale and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wiser of McMinnville.

During the past winter only about 1,000 troops in Korea were hospitalized because of cold weather injuries.

Amity — Construction of the fourth service station in Amity got under way last week when

LEAP YEAR DANCE
WED. NITE
74¢
CRISTAL GARDENS
SALEM OREGON

Sheridan

Sheridan—Baptismal services were held at the Trinity Lutheran church for Caroline Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gutbrod, Jr. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. John Gutbrod Sr. Dinner guests following the service, at the Gutbrod home included Rev. and Mrs. Mathiasen, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Piller, Jr., Bill Piller, Sr., George Gutbrod, Les Wilbur and grandson George Wilbur.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Glover are the parents of a son, born July 16 at the McMinnville hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huntley and Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor.

New books recently added to the Sheridan library for older girls include "The Steadfast Heart," "Six Star Ranch," "Two's Company," "Anne of Avonlea," books for older boys, "Baree, Son of Kazan," "Trail of the Pinto Stallion," "Finders Keepers," "Shorty at Shortstop," "The Secret of the Undersea Bell," "Boy's Book of Modern Science" and "Paper-Craft."

Adult books are "Leonardo De Vinci," "Quivering Earth," "Our FBI," "I Cannot Rest From Travel."

Books for intermediate children are "Kalak of the Ice," "Odd Pets," "Tommy's Wonderful Airplane," "You and Space Travel," "Johnny Wants to be a Policeman," "The Topsy Turvy Family," and "Eddie and Gardena."

Books for younger children are "Little Wiener," "Stripe," "The First Book of Trains," and "Little Lost Lamb."

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mulford and Charlene have returned from a trip to Reno, Virginia City, Lake Tahoe, Mt. Lassen and East Lake.

Mrs. Cleo Latham was honored with a pink and blue shower this week at the home of Mrs. Don Atwood, when 16 were present.

John S. Agee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Agee attended the Sheridan schools before entering the navy in July, 1951. He attended school at Great Lakes, and his ship is expected in the latter part of July, when he will be home on leave.

Mr. and Mrs. Al DesVoigne have returned from a vacation trip to Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wimble of Linwood, Pa., have been visiting here at the R. Kruger home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bride and Kathleen of Martinez, Calif., visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Bride.

Scio — Mr. and Mrs. Jud Beardsley and children of Indigwood, Calif., were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Beardsley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Shelton.

Graveside services were held at the Franklin Butte Masonic cemetery Wednesday afternoon for Fred Ohlmeier, who passed away at Oak Grove, Sunday, July 13.

Services were conducted by Scio Masonic lodge with Kenneth Purdy in charge.

He leaves his wife, Ora, and daughter, Mrs. Jeral Lyons of Oregon City. He was a brother of Mrs. John Wesley of Salem.

Bill Beran's 1952 Chevrolet was badly damaged on the right side when it and a loaded log truck collided east of Scio Tuesday. Neither driver was injured.

The consolidation vote passed unanimously in District No. 95 (Scio) and District No. 3 (River-view) last Monday. The district was also included in the union high district by a unanimous vote of the people in both districts.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Moore returned last week after spending a vacation in New Mexico with relatives.

Bud Nave carried the mail for Moore while he was gone.

Alvin Rollier was on the honor roll for spring term 1952 at the University of Oregon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rollier.

Billie Bob Plunkett, 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Plunkett, was brought home from the Albany General hospital Thursday after spending over a week there following a serious accident Tuesday, July 8.

He was playing inside a large pasteboard box in the driveway

the vacant lot on Trade and Woodson St. was excavated for the tanks and building.

Floyd Willert, postmaster at Dayton, is the owner of the property. No announcement has been made as to which oil company will be in charge of the station when completed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Nursery St., observed their golden wedding anniversary July 10. Nearby neighbors, Mrs. L. G. Emerson, Jane Rosenbalm, Mrs. O. H. Newman, Mrs. Anton Serm, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Jones and Mrs. Seem served ice cream, cake and punch.

Sublimity — The Susbauer family reunion was held last week at Milkrik park near Molalla.

Harold Susbauer of Portland was elected president of the clan, while John A. Schwabauer of Salem was chosen secretary.

Harry Zimmerman was named to head the committee selecting a place for next year's gathering.

Relatives attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bechtold and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zimmerman, Mrs. Henry Susbauer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zimmerman, Jr., Miss Betty Mae Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bechtold and family, Elman Bechtold and family, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. John Susbauer and Eileen, of Salem; Adam Susbauer, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Susbauer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Ditter and Mary Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Owen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Young and family, Miss Pat Hibbard, of Sublimity, and Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Erwert of Woodburn.

Missing from this year's group was Joseph Susbauer, who was killed in a sawmill accident last April.

A large crowd attended the lawn party given at the Vera Boedigher home. This replaced the regular monthly meeting of the W. C. O. F. Vera Boedigher and Marie Hottelinger received special prizes.

Anna F. Handel returned home from her stay at Breitenbush hot springs.

Sheridan

Sheridan—Baptismal services were held at the Trinity Lutheran church for Caroline Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gutbrod, Jr. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. John Gutbrod Sr. Dinner guests following the service, at the Gutbrod home included Rev. and Mrs. Mathiasen, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Piller, Jr., Bill Piller, Sr., George Gutbrod, Les Wilbur and grandson George Wilbur.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Glover are the parents of a son, born July 16 at the McMinnville hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huntley and Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor.

New books recently added to the Sheridan library for older girls include "The Steadfast Heart," "Six Star Ranch," "Two's Company," "Anne of Avonlea," books for older boys, "Baree, Son of Kazan," "Trail of the Pinto Stallion," "Finders Keepers," "Shorty at Shortstop," "The Secret of the Undersea Bell," "Boy's Book of Modern Science" and "Paper-Craft."

Adult books are "Leonardo De Vinci," "Quivering Earth," "Our FBI," "I Cannot Rest From Travel."

Books for intermediate children are "Kalak of the Ice," "Odd Pets," "Tommy's Wonderful Airplane," "You and Space Travel," "Johnny Wants to be a Policeman," "The Topsy Turvy Family," and "Eddie and Gardena."

Books for younger children are "Little Wiener," "Stripe," "The First Book of Trains," and "Little Lost Lamb."

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mulford and Charlene have returned from a trip to Reno, Virginia City, Lake Tahoe, Mt. Lassen and East Lake.

Mrs. Cleo Latham was honored with a pink and blue shower this week at the home of Mrs. Don Atwood, when 16 were present.

John S. Agee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Agee attended the Sheridan schools before entering the navy in July, 1951. He attended school at Great Lakes, and his ship is expected in the latter part of July, when he will be home on leave.

Mr. and Mrs. Al DesVoigne have returned from a vacation trip to Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wimble of Linwood, Pa., have been visiting here at the R. Kruger home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bride and Kathleen of Martinez, Calif., visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Bride.

Scio — Mr. and Mrs. Jud Beardsley and children of Indigwood, Calif., were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Beardsley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Shelton.

Graveside services were held at the Franklin Butte Masonic cemetery Wednesday afternoon for Fred Ohlmeier, who passed away at Oak Grove, Sunday, July 13.

Services were conducted by Scio Masonic lodge with Kenneth Purdy in charge.

He leaves his wife, Ora, and daughter, Mrs. Jeral Lyons of Oregon City. He was a brother of Mrs. John Wesley of Salem.

Bill Beran's 1952 Chevrolet was badly damaged on the right side when it and a loaded log truck collided east of Scio Tuesday. Neither driver was injured.

The consolidation vote passed unanimously in District No. 95 (Scio) and District No. 3 (River-view) last Monday. The district was also included in the union high district by a unanimous vote of the people in both districts.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Moore returned last week after spending a vacation in New Mexico with relatives.

Bud Nave carried the mail for Moore while he was gone.

Alvin Rollier was on the honor roll for spring term 1952 at the University of Oregon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rollier.

Billie Bob Plunkett, 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Plunkett, was brought home from the Albany General hospital Thursday after spending over a week there following a serious accident Tuesday, July 8.

He was playing inside a large pasteboard box in the driveway

the vacant lot on Trade and Woodson St. was excavated for the tanks and building.

Floyd Willert, postmaster at Dayton, is the owner of the property. No announcement has been made as to which oil company will be in charge of the station when completed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Nursery St., observed their golden wedding anniversary July 10. Nearby neighbors, Mrs. L. G. Emerson, Jane Rosenbalm, Mrs. O. H. Newman, Mrs. Anton Serm, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Jones and Mrs. Seem served ice cream, cake and punch.

Sublimity — The Susbauer family reunion was held last week at Milkrik park near Molalla.

Harold Susbauer of Portland was elected president of the clan, while John A. Schwabauer of Salem was chosen secretary.

Harry Zimmerman was named to head the committee selecting a place for next year's gathering.

Relatives attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bechtold and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zimmerman, Mrs. Henry Susbauer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zimmerman, Jr., Miss Betty Mae Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bechtold and family, Elman Bechtold and family, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. John Susbauer and Eileen, of Salem; Adam Susbauer, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Susbauer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Ditter and Mary Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Owen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Young and family, Miss Pat Hibbard, of Sublimity, and Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Erwert of Woodburn.

Missing from this year's group was Joseph Susbauer, who was killed in a sawmill accident last April.

A large crowd attended the lawn party given at the Vera Boedigher home. This replaced the regular monthly meeting of the W. C. O. F. Vera Boedigher and Marie Hottelinger received special prizes.

Anna F. Handel returned home from her stay at Breitenbush hot springs.

at his home, when friends started their car and accidentally ran over him, unaware that the box and boy were in front of their car.

Upon his arrival at the hospital it was found necessary to operate and remove his spleen, which had been severely injured.

Thursday, Billie Bob was brought home and is getting along fine.

Paul Fitzsimmons, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fitzsimmons, is in the Albany General hospital following an accident last Tuesday.

He and other boys were riding on a trailer behind a tractor. Paul fell off and the trailer ran over him, breaking his left leg and injuring his right arm. Paul is now in a cast and will be in the hospital for several weeks.

June Fretwell, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fretwell, fell from their car, trying to rescue her doll's blanket which had fallen out the window.

June was taken to a Salem hospital where she is recovering from a fractured skull. Several stitches were required to close the head wound.

She and her brother were sitting in the back seat when the accident occurred.

Woodburn — Mrs. Myrtle Hall left Tuesday for Iowa where she was called by the serious illness of her brother, Albert Cook, who spent the winter at the Hall home in Woodburn. Mrs. Hall left by train for Los Gatos, Calif., where her sister, Mrs. M. B. Walker, will accompany her to Albuquerque, N. M., to meet Mrs. Walker's daughter, Mrs. Robert Duphorne, who will drive to Iowa with her mother and Mrs. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Donner and his brother, Richard Donner, left Friday for a ten-day vacation in Canada. The Warren Donners will visit at Innisfail, Alberta, with relatives and friends while Dick is visiting in various parts of Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Engel of Davenport, Iowa, are visiting at the home of their niece, Mrs. P. L. LaBarre, and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Born. They plan to remain until July 25 and have been enjoying Oregon scenery.

Mrs. Joseph Hill of Beverly Hills, Calif., is spending a two-weeks' vacation at the home of her brother, Frank Doerfler, and her father, John Doerfler.

Janet Miller, 11-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller, underwent surgery at the Doernbecher hospital in Portland recently, and was brought home after a two-weeks' stay in the hospital. She is now recuperating satisfactorily.

Fort Lewis, Washington, with a contribution of 11,025 pints of vitally needed blood, led all the Sixth Army installations during the past eight months.

Scio — Mr. and Mrs. Jud Beardsley and children of Indigwood, Calif., were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Beardsley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Shelton.

Graveside services were held at the Franklin Butte Masonic cemetery Wednesday afternoon for Fred Ohlmeier, who passed away at Oak Grove, Sunday, July 13.

Services were conducted by Scio Masonic lodge with Kenneth Purdy in charge.

He leaves his wife, Ora, and daughter, Mrs. Jeral Lyons of Oregon City. He was a brother of Mrs. John Wesley of Salem.

Bill Beran's 1952 Chevrolet was badly damaged on the right side when it and a loaded log truck collided east of Scio Tuesday. Neither driver was injured.

The consolidation vote passed unanimously in District No. 95 (Scio) and District No. 3 (River-view) last Monday. The district was also included in the union high district by a unanimous vote of the people in both districts.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Moore returned last week after spending a vacation in New Mexico with relatives.

Bud Nave carried the mail for Moore while he was gone.

Alvin Rollier was on the honor roll for spring term 1952 at the University of Oregon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rollier.

Billie Bob Plunkett, 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Plunkett, was brought home from the Albany General hospital Thursday after spending over a week there following a serious accident Tuesday, July 8.

He was playing inside a large pasteboard box in the driveway

the vacant lot on Trade and Woodson St. was excavated for the tanks and building.

Floyd Willert, postmaster at Dayton, is the owner of the property. No announcement has been made as to which oil company will be in charge of the station when completed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Nursery St., observed their golden wedding anniversary July 10. Nearby neighbors, Mrs. L. G. Emerson, Jane Rosenbalm, Mrs. O. H. Newman, Mrs. Anton Serm, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Jones and Mrs. Seem served ice cream, cake and punch.

Sublimity — The Susbauer family reunion was held last week at Milkrik park near Molalla.

Harold Susbauer of Portland was elected president of the clan, while John A. Schwabauer of Salem was chosen secretary.

Harry Zimmerman was named to head the committee selecting a place for next year's gathering.

Relatives attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bechtold and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zimmerman, Mrs. Henry Susbauer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zimmerman, Jr., Miss Betty Mae Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bechtold and family, Elman Bechtold and family, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. John Susbauer and Eileen, of Salem; Adam Susbauer, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Susbauer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Ditter and Mary Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Owen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Young and family, Miss Pat Hibbard, of Sublimity, and Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Erwert of Woodburn.

Missing from this year's group was Joseph Susbauer, who was killed in a sawmill accident last April.

A large crowd attended the lawn party given at the Vera Boedigher home. This replaced the regular monthly meeting of the W. C. O. F. Vera Boedigher and Marie Hottelinger received special prizes.

Anna F. Handel returned home from her stay at Breitenbush hot springs.

Oak Point

Oak Point—Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Peterson, Judy and Patty, spent several days at Crater Lake and other points of interest in central and southern Oregon.

Miss Darlene and Delores Rule are spending the summer with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rule.

Diana K. Rule is the guest of her cousin, Miss Paula Hayes, of Dallas this week, the girls are taking lessons at the city park pool.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rule and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harnsberger attended the wedding of Miss Roberta Gildow and Jack Schneider Sunday at the First Methodist church in Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Creech and sons of Tillamook visited her uncle, A. B. W. Hughes, Sunday evening.

Fourteen members of the Independence Rural Woman's club attended the county federation picnic at Helmick park Wednesday. The club had the largest representation of any club there.

Mr. and Mrs. Loran Corwin and son are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Brown, this week.

Mrs. John Rule and Mrs. E. Comstock are painting the kitchen at the school house this week. Also other improvements to the building are being made.

Miss Carol Doran of Falls City is a guest at her grandparents' home, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rogers. The Rogers are at their home in this community during grain harvest.

Mrs. Leo Thoenes and daughter of Tacoma were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harnsberger.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Bisbee and Miss Ellen Shepard have returned home from a three weeks trip to Minnesota.

Mrs. C. E. Bisbee is a patient at Salem General hospital following throat surgery.

R. A. Alderson is reported improving from an illness at his Independence home.

Dallas — The Dallas rural fire department was called to a small grass fire Saturday that started in a field next to Andy's Service station on the Dallas-Falls City highway.

The blaze confined itself to a small area and was quickly put out with an extinguisher.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Bollman and son John left Thursday for a short vacation to Seattle and Victoria, B. C. Their youngest son, Billy, was left in the care of his grandmother while they were gone.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hawkins attended the family reunion of the Hawkins clan at Neskowin Sunday, July 20. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fitch and family of Washington, D. C., son-in-law and daughter of the Hawkins, were there also.

Scio — Mr. and Mrs. Jud Beardsley and children of Indigwood, Calif., were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Beardsley's parents