

In the Valley

By MIKE FORBES

Mill City

Mill City—Sunday visitors of the Clayton Baltimore were Mr. and Mrs. Lou Schneider, of Wapella, Iowa, who are visiting relatives in Oregon and California, also Mrs. Cora Calavan and Gilbert Calavan, of Scio.

Baltimore and guests motored to the Peterson Rock Gardens in Redmond, spent some time at the Marion Forks fish hatchery and had picnic lunch at Suttle Lake.

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the Legion hall Monday for the regular business session. Miss Joan Johnson, senior in the Mill City high school next fall, who attended Girls' State gave a report of her trip.

Otto Koenke is teller at the Mill City State Bank. Koenke, a resident in Mill City for several years is a retired railroad worker.

Mrs. John Reid entertained at home with a play party for her daughter, Frances on her 6th birthday. Enjoying the afternoon with Frances were: her brother, Warren, who celebrates his 4th birthday anniversary this week, Patricia Kelly, Ronald Jones, Kathy and Billy Pennick and David Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin LaVine entertained with a party in their home Thursday evening in honor of their daughter, Sharon Marie, who was celebrating her first birthday. Honoring Sharon were: Monte and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lalack; Christine and David and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chance, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott.

Visitors Sunday at the John Swan home were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hill of Rickreall and Mrs. Clyde Welborn, of Dallas.

Miss Alice Smith is spending two weeks in Walnut Creek, Calif., with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Luis de Ortega. Miss Smith is a teacher in the local schools.

Visiting friends in Mill City Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Williams and two sons, Derrel and Ronald, of Ocean Lake, former residents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Claudia Bruder and two daughters, Nancy and Claudia, were in Portland several days last week visiting relatives.

Mrs. D. B. Hill, Sr., underwent major surgery Monday in a Salem hospital. Her condition the latter part of the week was satisfactory.

Mill City Boy Scouts spending last week at Camp Pioneer along with their Scoutmaster, Charles Kelly, were: Maurice Bassett, Laurin, Dart, Jerry Foster, Bill Haun, Mark Boothby, Arthur Cox, Ray Steiner, Gaydon Bolding, Lahny Pidrabsky, Michael and Gregory Peterson, Lawrence Large, Donald Lempeke, Richard Zeibert, Michael Lents, Thomas Fencil, Terrence Muir.

Helping with the transportation of the boys and their equipment were Arlo Tuers, Don Peterson and Lee Ross.

Returning last week from a month's vacation trip to Orange, Texas, where they visited relatives were Rev. Lee Joiner of the Mill City Community church and his two daughters, Helen and Jeannette.

Rev. Noble Streeter, minister of the Mill City Presbyterian church, who begins his vacation the second week in August, plans to spend two weeks in the California Redwoods with relatives. While in California the minister and Mrs. Streeter plan to attend a Presbyterian conference. Open house was held at the Presbyterian church manse and home of Rev. and Mrs. Streeter, last Sunday afternoon. There were more than 30 persons called. Mrs. Streeter served refreshments.

Mrs. Frank Barney was brought home from the Albany hospital last week but infant son John Clyde, weighing 4 lbs. at birth, will remain in the incubator at the hospital for several days before being released.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Podrabsky and family are spending several days at Oceanlake visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orrel Williams.

Mrs. Floyd Jones entertained in her home the members of the Presbyterian Missionary Society for the regular business meeting of the month. Mrs. Lester Hathaway presided. Rev. Noble Streeter led the devotional hour using the 12th chapter of the Book of John for his study.

Taking part in the afternoon program were Mrs. W. W. Allen, Mrs. Clyde Rogers, Mrs. Noble Streeter and Mrs. Earl Loucks.

The nominating committee elected included: Mrs. Floyd Jones to serve for three years, Mrs. W. W. Allen, two years and Mrs. John Swan, one year.

Refreshments were served to the following members: Mrs. Lester Hathaway, Mrs. Fred Grimes, Mrs. Clyde Rogers, Mrs. W. W. Allen, Mrs. Earl Loucks, Mrs. Floyd Fleetwood, Mrs. John Swan, Mrs. James Swan, Mrs. Herbert Schroeder and Reverend and Mrs. Noble Streeter.

The Aug. 27 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ida Geddes.

Rev. C. R. Brewer will begin his ministry in Mill City Sunday, Aug. 3 in the Free Methodist church. Rev. and Mrs. Brewer and their three children of high school age are moving here this week. Rev. C. O. Tremain, minister of the church for the past year has been transferred to a church in Bend and was moving there the fore part of this week. The pastor delivered his farewell address here Sunday.

Pleasantdale

Pleasantdale—Mrs. Milo Morris, who recently moved from Pleasantdale to Dayton, was honored with a pink and blue shower by Mrs. William F. King and Mrs. Harold Morgan, at the King home, Friday evening, July 25.

The honoree received many gifts, and refreshments were served by the two hostesses.

The guests were, from Pleasantdale, Mrs. Bus Hadley and daughter, Louise; Mrs. Pauline King, Mrs. Fred Reichstein, Mrs. Weldon Swan and daughter, Bonnie; Mrs. Merle Reichstein, Mrs. Sam Whitney, Mrs. Henry Green, Mrs. John Lischer and daughters, Ruthie and Beverly, and Mrs. Clair Reichstein. From Dayton came Mrs. Eva Carter and daughter, Alice, Mrs. John Howard, Mrs. Harry Stewart and Mrs. Nettie Smith.

Two irrigation wells have recently been drilled in this area, on the farms of Dick Sittin and Vernon Thompson. They are about 150 feet in depth. Early this week a 98-foot domestic well was drilled on the Reichstein place.

Mr. and Mrs. Rod Wiser of Dayton and their new son, Gary Dale, are houseguests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Weldon and baby daughter, Janet, and her mother, Mrs. Vivian Lee, left this week after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence for several weeks. Mrs. Lee's home is in Wyoming, and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon live at Scotts Bluffs, Neb., where he is a junior at the North Platte Bible college.

Grand Ronde

Grand Ronde—Mr. and Mrs. Donald Buttle, Leon, Buddy and Teddy from Myrtle Creek, arrived Friday evening to visit with Mrs. Buttle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lindsay and brother, Henry Lindsay and family for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Peulzo and Jauncy visited Mrs. Peulzo's daughter, Donna Collins and grandson, Butch Collins, in Portland Sunday afternoon. The occasion being Butch's third birthday. Butch accompanied his grandparents home Sunday evening and will stay with them for a while.

Sunday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Micheleson were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Buttle of Myrtle Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lindsay entertained with a picnic at the park near The Devil's Punch Bowl at Otter Rock, Sunday afternoon.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Buttle, Leon, Buddy, and Teddy of Myrtle Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lindsay, Royce and Ilona of Aurora, Kans., Mrs. Velma Weinstein and Vernon of Cottonwood Falls, Kan., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lindsay and Nevada of Grand Ronde.

They also visited the aquarium in Depoe Bay and the Hobby House at Wecoma Beach on the way home.

Walter Caville was taken to a Salem hospital Saturday evening with a nervous collapse.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Halben, Laura and Jeanette visited in Dallas Sunday evening with Halben's mother.

Kenny Knox celebrated his seventh birthday Friday afternoon with a party for a few of his friends.

Clyde Bice of the United States Navy was home visiting with his parents over the weekend. Clyde is stationed in San Francisco.

Macleay

Macleay—Henry B. Phenig has purchased a comping and is combining grass seed in the community.

It is reported that the market, as yet, is not so good as last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin, Sr., are vacationing at the Oregon beaches.

Mrs. Perry Spelbrink of Corvallis and children are guests of Mrs. V. L. Masters. They have just returned from several weeks spent in San Mateo, Calif., as guests of Mrs. Spelbrink's mother, Mrs. J. L. Doughty.

Macleay Grange will meet in regular session, at the grange hall, Friday night, Aug. 1.

This is annual ice cream night.

Hopewell

Hopewell—Missionary Sunday was observed at the Hopewell E. U. B. Church, with the Primary Department attending in a body. A Junior Sermon was given by the pastor, and a quartet consisting of Arthur and Mickey Finn, Lester Stephens and Irvin Widmer sang. A piano duet by Mrs. Nathan Widmer and Helen Ojua, "The Lord's Prayer" and a solo by Dean Brown in the choir number, were special musical features for the occasion.

The prayer meeting this week will be held at the John Byman home. Mr. Byman has been a shut-in for several years.

The Youth Fellowship enjoyed a Hay-ride to Taft on Sunday afternoon in Delbert Smith's truck. Mrs. Delbert Smith and Earl Compton were the other sponsors. They found it hot in the valley and foggy on the coast.

Those attending were: Myrtle and Cecil Smith, John, Richard and Ellen Widmer, Helen Ojua, Bob and June Ann Janzen, Robert Patty of Amity, George Kirkwood of Salem, Wally Wood, Dorothy and Dean Brown, Gayle and Jack Larson, Ellen and Shirley Allison, James LaFollette.

A House-warming party is being planned for Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loop at their new home in Hopewell, Saturday evening, Aug. 2. The committee in charge are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Terrill, Mr. and Mrs. John Geisler and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pearce.

The annual Loop Reunion will be held at Williamson Park Sunday, Aug. 3, at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tompkins of Hillsboro were Friday evening guests of Mrs. Marvel Brown and family. Mrs. Amy Smithhart, mother of Mrs. Brown, and Mrs. Dwight Smithhart of Merced, Calif., arrived on the Shasta Daylight Streamliner in Salem last Wednesday night. Mrs. Tompkins is a daughter of Mrs. Amy Smithhart, and they came after her Monday to spend some time with them in Hillsboro.

Mrs. Dwight Smithhart returned to her home in Merced Tuesday evening of this week, traveling on the Streamliner.

Mr. Oscar Deverell and Miss Etta Deverell of Portland were Sunday callers at the Ed Loop and E. J. Terrill homes.

Milt Carson bulldozed out the corner lot which he owns directly across the road from the Hopewell school.

Mrs. Gust Janzen returned to her home Friday afternoon, after spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Kotka. She is improving steadily.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Waller were Sunday dinner hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Legg, Mr. and Mrs. Moddemeyer and Miss Eleanor Moddemeyer and Mrs. David Polke.

Mrs. Robert Gilchrist and Mrs. Arla Hagstrom of Portland visited Mrs. Joe Beatty on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gilkey are remodeling their house, enclosing their porch, making a new kitchen, with new electrical appliances. They were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beatty.

Boysenberry picking ended this week at the John Geisler, Oscar Lafferty and Leonard Hickerson patches. The heat damaged the crop considerably.

Mrs. Keith Legg was surprised Monday evening, July 28, with a "Pink and Blue" shower at her home. Mrs. Larry Imlah, Jr. and Mrs. Chas. Van Dorn were hostesses for the party. Games were played and refreshments served, following the opening of the gifts. Those who attended were: Mrs. Clarence Legg, Mrs. J. D. McKenney, Mrs. Roy Wright, Mrs. James Ediger, Mrs. A. G. Terrill, Mrs. Robert Currie, Mrs. Larry Imlah, Jr., and Mrs. Chas. Van Dorn.

Unionvale

Unionvale—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lee and four children of The Dalles came Sunday to visit her mother, Mrs. Martin Braat, and other relatives. She and the children remained for a longer visit and he returned to his work the same evening.

The Stephens family annual reunion with 42 members present was held Sunday, July 27, at the Maude Williamson state park in the Wheatland district. Howard Stephens of the Fairview district is president. Mrs. Guy Eades of Salem is secretary. Dinner was served at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Arnold Braat of the Wheatland district accompanied her brother, Haskell Hawkins, who has been here for quite some time to Oakland, Calif., to be a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rhine, returned by bus Monday and he remained longer.

LISTEN TO

"COULD THIS BE YOU?"

7:00 Tonight KOCO

Sponsored by: The Preferred Insurance Exchange

Bank Building Changes Hands

Stayton—The old bank building in Stayton, recently known as the Rowe building, has been sold by its owner, Harry J. Rowe, to Service Building, Inc. Principal stockholders are Walter H. Mell and Joe Devers. Sale price is not known, but the insurance appraisal for total coverage on the building is $38,000. No changes in occupancy have been announced by the new owners, though the post office, now in one section of the first floor, is soon to move to a new building on Second street.

Sublimity

Sublimity—Mrs. Frances Hartman was slightly injured Sunday evening when a car driven by Miss Sally Carlson was struck just after passing Four Corners on her way into Stayton.

The rear of the car was badly damaged. Miss Carlson, an employee at the Twilight Pie Co., rooms at Mrs. Hartman's home.

A fair sized crowd attended the picnic in the Parish Grove Sunday.

The Sublimity Fire Department was called to Aumsville Sunday to aid in combating the fire that destroyed the Walter Rok sawmill.

Rev. Franz Schubert, who has been visiting his mother in Chicago, returned home Saturday. Also arriving Saturday was Rev. Theodore Wolf of Spokane who will remain a few weeks.

Several families from here enjoyed the picnic given by Mr. and Mrs. Lou Doerflinger at their home near Mehama last Sunday.

Ferd Hartman was surprised upon learning he was the lucky winner of a new 1952 Studebaker Monday evening.

Mrs. Rosa Bender, 87, passed away at the Sublimity Convalescent home Friday evening. A resident of Mt. Angel, she was admitted to the home a few

Falls City News Report

Falls City—The Old Timers picnic at Falls City Park will be held Sunday, Aug. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Letterman and family of Salem called at the W. P. Letterman home Sunday.

Mrs. George Kitchin and Mrs. Neva Poland made a trip to Salem Wednesday.

Judith and Gerald Edwards of Wyoming are spending the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dickinson.

Ellis Lougheed of the U. S. Navy hospital of Portsmouth, Va., spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cochran.

Miss Darlene Lehnert of Portland spent the week in Falls City as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Kitchin.

Mrs. Clifford Robinson and two daughters were transacting business at Dallas Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Reed and family left for their home at Klamath Falls Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Watson and family have moved to Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Walters and family of Nogales, Ariz., showed colored slides Thursday evening at the Free Methodist church of the Bible school of Nogales of which he is principal; also pictures of the work being done in Mexico.

Mrs. Maude Brown and Floyd were in Albany Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McKoun and family of Texas have moved to Falls City.

Mrs. Robert Jahans and family of Fir Grove spent Tuesday with her sister's family, Mrs. Orolo Frink.

Mrs. Albina Henthorne of Portland is visiting her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Henthorne.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Williams and family left Wednesday for their home at Guymore, Okla., after spending 10 days visiting his father, H. P. Williams, and two sisters families, Mr. and Mrs. George Kitchin and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Grip-pin.

"AIR-CONDITIONED" Hollywood Now Showing—Open 6:45

BOGART in 20th Century-Fox's Deadline USA

Comedy Co-Feature "He Come the Marines" with The Bowery Boys

7:00 Tonight KOCO

Sponsored by: The Preferred Insurance Exchange

Pleasantdale

Pleasantdale—On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Grabenhorst gave a farewell picnic at their home in honor of his sister, Mrs. Roy Stone of Dayton who will join her husband at their new residence in Roseburg. Other guests were brothers and sisters of Mrs. Stone and Mr. Grabenhorst, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Grabenhorst of Nelscott, Mrs. Nell Warren of Orchards, Wash., and Rev. and Mrs. O. I. Taylor and daughters, Asehat, Antoinette, and Roberta, of Longview, Wash.; Mrs. Stone's daughter, Mrs. Jeanette De Landers and daughter, Debbie Kay, of Dayton; and Mr. Grabenhorst's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Al Gould and children of Dayton.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Fred Reichstein were her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Oreste Borroz of Yamhill, a nephew, Clarence Stonebrink, also of Yamhill, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Louisa Hanville of Carlton.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen McFarlane were their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Steinoff of Portland.

Mrs. W. J. Jones and daughter, Suzanne, spent a few days with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Beardsley in Eugene, last week. On the way home they stopped at Dallas to get her eldest son, Grant, who had been a guest of his grandmother, Mrs. George Gossard, for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Melzer are in eastern Oregon helping with the harvest on their sons' farms in Moro, Sherman county. Mrs. Melzer's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Booten and their daughter, Janet, from Santa Monica, Calif., are staying at the Melzer home to be near her mother, Mrs. Mortensen, who is quite ill at a nursing home in Brooks.

Mrs. Shirley Kau, Pleasant-months ago. Her funeral took place at Mt. Angel Tuesday morning. Mrs. Appalonia Zimmerman was a sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Buell Hubbard and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Housky of Norton, Kan., spent the week end with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Henthorne.

Mrs. Kenneth Cummings and children of Ocean Lake were Tuesday callers at the W. P. Letterman home.

S/Sgt. Jack Dickinson and Lester Cooper of Moses Lake spent the week-end in Falls City.

The Falls City Methodist Sunday school picnic was at Riverside Park on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Randy Byland of Herlong, Calif., visited her mother, Mrs. Ferris, the past week.

Callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Robinson the past week were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lacey, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Friesen of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. John Lacey and family of Portland.

The Christian Women Fellowship met at the parsonage July 10 for their regular mission study. Business was in charge of the new president, Mrs. Ferris.

They met again July 17 for their work day.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Govier and family of West Salem accompanied by their mother, Mrs. William Poland of Falls City went deep sea fishing Friday at Depoe Bay.

Through the quick action of the fire department they put out a fire on school house hill immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Horn of Portland came Sunday morning and took his mother, Mrs. Laura Horn and William Lowe to the Oregon beaches. They had dinner at Taft.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Graham, Shirley and a Bobbie Dougherty enjoyed a trip to the beach Sunday.

THE SALEM DRIVE-IN Theatre Labish Gardens—Box 99—2-7829

Gates Open 7 Show at Dusk

ENDSTONITE (Thursday)

Two Showings 8:15 P.M.—10:15 P.M.

"A. D." STANDS FOR Adult Delinquency!

Because BEVE THE STORY OF LIFE!

Nurse on Duty Every Show!

dale's lady of many talents, has written a book about her method of sewing machine embroidery, and it is now in print. The book will be listed this year in the Frederick Herschler company's catalog of needlework, published in Chicago.

Numerous Pleasantdale people went to McMinnville Sunday to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hadley, former residents of this district, on their golden wedding anniversary.

Two Pleasantdale men, Clarence Launer and Don Gubser, have returned home from Cannon Beach, where they worked on construction for a week. They are employed by O. C. Yocum of McMinnville.

J. M. Murphy and H. A. Murphy went to Corvallis Sunday to a family reunion.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McFarlane and Betty were his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McFarlane of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Carlson and Debbie, of McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Whitney went to the Nebraskans picnic in Salem Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Freshour and sons were dinner guests of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gailan Freshour and their children in Dayton Sunday.

New residents in the tenant house on Sheriff Jones' place, formerly occupied by the Horace Edwards family, are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Zentner, Jr., and their children, Michael and Patricia. They formerly lived in the Grand Island apartments.

Mr. Zentner is a mechanic at Alderman Farms.

Dive Sprains Back Woodburn—Miss Carol Smith, 16, of St. Paul received a severe sprained back at the Woodburn swimming pool Tuesday night. Miss Smith was making a back dive when her foot slipped. Dr. Delbert Reed was called and she was taken to the Silverton hospital for X-rays but no broken bones were found. She was later taken to her home.

Remodeling Schools Woodburn—Several renovation projects are under way on the Woodburn public school buildings. About two-thirds of the Washington school gymnasium is being re-roofed by Del Croft of Woodburn who is also repairing the roof of the Lincoln school. The play shed is being painted by the Woodburn Painting and Decorating company.

ELSINORE Opens 6:45 P.M. Ronald Reagan Doris Day "WINNING TEAM"

— Frances Langford "Purple Heart Diary"

CAPITOL Continuous Bruce Cabot Fay Wray "KING KONG"

— Dennis O'Keefe "LEOPARD MAN"

GRAND Continuous Alan Ladd "RED MTN."

In Technicolor Joel McCrea Yvonne DeCarlo "San Francisco Story"

STATE Open 6:45 P.M. Humphrey Bogart Lauren Bacall "Have & Have Not"

— and with Ida Lupino "HIGH SIERRA"

GRAND ON STAGE — IN PERSON — DR. CHAN LOO AND COMPANY

Midnite Show Fri. and Sat.!

WIERD! GHOSTLY!

HORRORS OF THE ORIENT DIRECT FROM HOLLYWOOD

— Screen — Karloff • Lorré "Boogie Man Will Get You"

Woodburn

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. Blaine McCord spent the last week-end at Astoria where they attended the meeting of governors of the Oregon state bar. Tuesday of this week Miss Sue Spear of Coos Bay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spear (Elizabeth McCord), arrived at the McCord home for a visit with her grandparents and also with friends in Portland. Mrs. McCord recently received word from her daughter that she and her husband were at the Biltmore hotel in Los Angeles during the recent earthquake and were very much shaken.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Wengeroth and David are enjoying a vacation of fishing on the Metolus. Recent guests at the Wengeroth home were Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Christie and son Jerry of Grass Valley, Calif. Mrs. Christie is an aunt of Mr. Wengeroth. Jerry, who is on a 10 day leave, and has been stationed in Portland, accompanied his parents to California and will be shipped overseas soon. They accompanied the Wengeroths to the Metolus for a brief stop.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Workman and children are on a vacation trip in Alberta, Canada, and will also visit parts of Wyoming, Idaho and Washington. They will visit Mr. Workman's sister, Mrs. Maurice L. Bennett, and her family at Alberta and stopped enroute to visit Mrs. Workman's sister, Mrs. Max Folsom at Ephrata, Wash. They plan a sight seeing trip through Yellowstone park and a visit with another sister of Mrs. Workman, Mrs. Ramon Leukenga, in Boise, Idaho.

Mrs. Gail Landsen and her sister, Mrs. Grace Normoyle, are on a two week's vacation trip in Canada and will spend some time in Victoria.

Roberts

Roberts—A pleasant afternoon was spent on the grounds of Dr. and Mrs. Will J. Thompson Sunday when the G. T. club members, husbands and families met for a picnic dinner.

Those in the group were: Mrs. Cora Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blankenship, Mrs. Ethel Davenport, Mrs. Clara Blankenship, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boehringer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sollenberger, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Schuebel, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. John Orsborn, Donald Blankenship, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blankenship and son, Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse J. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Hirsine, Mr. and Mrs. Louis D. Johnston, Dr. and Mrs. Will J. Thompson, Mrs. James Mannion.

Guests were Mrs. Ethel Grayson, Mrs. Paul G. Carpenter and son, Charles, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Johns and son, Jeffery.

There was a good attendance throughout the two weeks of daily vacation Bible school held at the Roberts schoolhouse. The meetings ended Friday evening after the regular class with refreshments served to the group.

Cappy Wilson and Rosie Salchenberg each received a prize for bringing in the most new members.

Grand Island

Grand Island—Harvesting five acres of table beets at the Dale L. Fowler farm in the Grand Island district was started Monday.