Independence

Independence—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foster and family returned Saturday from a two weeks' vacation in Nebraska. While there they visited their many friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fraser E. Lewis and children, Barbara Jean and Charles, were dinner guests last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harvey of Salem.

Harvey Richards, a foreman for the Holt Equipment company, was admitted to the Salem Memorial hospital last Monday for an emergency appendectomy. His family reports that his condition is good.

Mrs. Maude Benscoter, and Mrs. Clara Benscoter, were hostesses Tuesday evening at their country home, to the Past Noble Grand's club of the Cloverleaf Rebekah lodge. A family picnic was enjoyed by a group of 21. As this was also the birthday of Mrs. Edna Irvine, she was presented with a birthday cake.

Visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dodd, is Mrs. Dodd's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and grandsons, Leslie and Michael, from Marshalltown, Iowa. They will be in Independence three or four weeks before returning to their home.

Mrs. O. D. Butler, Mrs. Clara Benscoter and Miss Carrie Quasdorf, spent Wednesday at Seaside, Ore.

Visiting the home of Mrs. Cecilia Christensen, and Mrs. Anna White, is Mrs. Christensen's son, Perry Rasmussen, from Sioux City, Iowa. He will be with them for two or three weeks.

Overnight guests Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Gowen, were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hall and three children, Michael, Sammy and Lula Mae. Mr. Hall, formerly of Independence, is now engaged in his own business, Television Installation Service in Portland.

Mrs. Oscar Ashton was admitted to the Salem General hospital Monday for surgery and observation.

Mrs. Ruth Hecht and daughter Colleen, from Grand Island, Neb., have been visiting Mrs. Hecht's sister, Mrs. Stanley Cruse. While here, they visited relatives in Eugene, and made trips to the coast and other points of interest.

Leaving Sunday, via the Pan-American Airlines for Hawaii for a two-week vacation are Miss Margaret Mills and Miss Joy Swain.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Foster are being congratulated on the birth of a son, Leland Darel, at the Salem General hospital last Thursday.

Mrs. Flavia Branch who has been very ill in the Salem General hospital, is reported resting comfortably, but is unable to have many callers.

Turnbull to Speak
Woodburn — Rev. J. R. Turnbull of the Salem Bible Book store will speak at both services Sunday, Aug. 3, at the Woodburn Bible Baptist church. Rev. Turnbull is the supply pastor until a permanent pastor can be engaged.

Repair Schools At Silverton

Silverton — At a special meeting of the superintendent of the local schools and the members of the board of directors, Earl H. Monlon's bid for reroofing all three school buildings was accepted, and the Stiff Furniture company will be given the work of placing the asphalt floor coverings for the remaining rooms to have coverings matching the halls.

Art Bollinger was named as a committee of one to select an electrical engineer who will furnish specifications for installing an oil burner for heating the buildings, the heating unit is in a separate room from the class rooms, and is to be converted from wood to oil burner arrangement.

The change is being made because of the scarcity of wood and the rise in prices. The burner is to work automatically thus furnishing a more equal supply of heat.

Howard Balderstone is the recently elected superintendent of district No. 4, and the board of directors are Norman Naegeli, chairman; assisted by Dr. E. L. Henkel, Herman Goschie, Ted Rutherford and Art Bollinger.

"In Service Teacher" training begins Tuesday, Sept. 2, with other school class-openings featured throughout the week. Registration in all departments for students, will be completed by Friday. Regular school work will be in operation, Monday, Sept. 8.

The Balderstone family is now located in their new home on 256 N. Church street.

Union Hill

Union Hill — Henry Hansen presided during the meeting of the Union Hill Grange Community Betterment club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verna Scott Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Scott were co-hosts.

The club has done considerable work in the community such as planting shrubs, modernizing the grange hall, and sponsoring work at the cemetery.

Refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Darrah, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Krenz, Mrs. Geneva Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Krenz, Richard Krenz, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tate, Kathy Christian, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Doerfler, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peters, Keith Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Scott, and Mr. and Mrs. Verna Scott. This is the last meeting of the club until September.

The descendants of the Neal-Trask and Chrisman families met at the Stayton Masonic Park in Stayton Sunday, July 27, for the 20th annual reunion picnic.

New officers elected for the coming year are: president, Fred Neal of Toledo, vice president, Malcolm Neal of Salem; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. John Kendle of Seio; historian, Mrs. Otto Limbeck of Seio, and reporter, Mrs. Verna Scott of Sublimity.

Present were Mr. and Mrs.

Delbert Chrisman, Cheryl and Lone Chrisman, Mr. and Mrs. George Chrisman, Mr. and Mrs. John Kendle and Jell, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Limbeck all of Seio; Mr. and Mrs. Jake Mesler and E. S. Ruggles of Stayton; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Circle and Marlin of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chrisman, Mrs. Clara Rishel of Portland, A. H. Chrisman, Oak Grove, Oregon; Elday Chrisman, Wenatchee, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ruggles and family of Marion; Jack Parrish of Jefferson; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Calbreth, Johnnie and Beverly of Prineville; Mrs. Verna Scott of Sublimity.

A regular square and folk dance will be held at the Union Hill Grange Hall Saturday, Aug. 2, with practice dancing to records from 8 until 9 p.m. Following will be dancing with music furnished by the Verbeck orchestra.

Lunch will be furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones (Delores Bascue).

Dallas

Dallas — A marriage license was issued to Leonard J. Robinson, laborer of Salem and Audrey R. Sproul, cannery worker, also of Salem, on July 29.
