Polk 4-H Boys Inspect Cattle

Dallas—Seven Polk 4-H livestock club members attended the recent livestock tour in Corvallis from July 31 to August 2, according to Jack Eavy, assistant county extension agent.

Present from this vicinity were Kent Ward, David Wells, Nancy Lemmon, and Marvin Independence; Jerry and Val Muller, Monmouth, and Larry Keltner of Amity.

The group was taken on a tour of Ben Ellis' cattle ranch near Corvallis to inspect equipment of the place, through the Nebergalls meat packing plant and the Plylock Corporation plywood mill which is in Albany.

Also on the agenda was a tour of the new Withycombe Hall on the Oregon State college campus to see the latest dairy processing and manufacturing equipment.

Judging of various classes of livestock was given the 4-H clubbers as part of the three-day program. Swimming, baseball, and entertainment featured the recreation phases of the tour.

Independence—Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Pike and daughter Beulah with their friend Vestie Gotten, arrived here from Arkansas City, Kan., Thursday afternoon, July 30. They are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hilbert for three or four weeks. Mrs. Pike is a sister of Mrs. Hilbert.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wells and family over the week-end were Mrs. Wells' brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Tucker of Portland. Sunday, they joined the Trek to Mary's Peak. Mr. and Mrs. Tucker were former residents of Salem.

The Rural Fire Departments of Buena Vista, Monmouth and Independence were called to put out two fires Friday in Buena Vista. The fires burned over 20 acres in one area, while the other fire was quickly brought under control. Due to the efforts of the volunteer firemen serious damage was prevented.

Those attending the State Board Meeting of the Oregon Congress of Parent-Teacher's Association on Thursday, Aug. 7, will be Mrs. C. A. Fratzke, high school service chairman, Mrs. Roland Dugan, county council president from Independence, and R. E. Lieullen, tuition scholarship chairman, from Monmouth.

Mrs. Dugan will stay over Friday for the school of instructions for county council presidents.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Fratzke and daughter Fay made the annual Trek to Mary's Peak Sunday.

The Annual Community Reunion Picnic of Lewisville and Airlie was held at Maple Grove, Sunday, Aug. 3. It is interesting to know that these two communities have reunited annually for many years, and several generations were represented.

Those attending from Independence were: Mr. and Mrs. James Robbie, Mrs. Cassie Williams, Mrs. E. A. Dunkel, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dunkel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunkel and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George Ploub. Approximately 175 were at this gathering. As the meeting falls on the same day as the Trek to Mary's Peak, the group decided that future reunions would be on the last Sunday in July.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Adams and family spent Sunday at Helmick Park where they enjoyed a picnic dinner and swimming.

Mr. and Mrs. John Werline spent Saturday at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dodson and son Robert, spent Sunday at the Coast at Devil's Lake.

Ugly Duckling Bike—For summer sports, this water bike has been developed by Oskar Fuchs of Munich, Germany. The rear wheel has been replaced with a paddle-wheel. The bike is kept afloat by two rubber pontoons. The pretty girl with this "water velo" at a Bavarian lake, says it cost about $43 — without the bicycle. (AP Newsfeatures)

Willamina

Willamina—At a special meeting at the Lincoln bank at Taft, the stockholders voted to increase the capital of the Lincoln bank from $75,000 to $100,000. The bank's surplus is also being raised to $100,000.

The purpose of increasing the capital accounts was to maintain traditional high ratio of capital to deposits in the fast growing bank. The overall effect will be to strengthen the bank and to increase its service to the communities in which the bank and its branches at Willamina and Oceanlake serve. The increase was brought about by a stock dividend.

Patty Burman was honored on her third birthday this week with a party. Guest were Carol and David Kangiser, Terry and Jackie Smith, Sue and Judy Mack, Kathy Bailey, Sharon and Gary Wardlow, Alva Mae and Dianne Bailey.

Woodburn

Mr. and Mrs. J. Melvin Ringo, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Neibert of Stayton, returned Friday from a vacation trip of over 3,000 miles, and were absent 15 days. Leaving Woodburn July 18 they visited Salt Lake City, Yellowstone park and also passed through Teton National park and Jackson Hole in Wyoming. They also visited Glacier National park, Grand Coulee dam, Hungry Horse dam and the Peterson rock gardens on the return trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Gibbons and daughter, Candice, of Novato, Calif., were recent Woodburn visitors for a short time, visiting Gibbons' mother, Mrs. Rose Gibbons, and Mrs. Gibbons' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Fikan. Candice remained in Woodburn with her cousin, Mary Annette Fikan, spent the past week at the home of their maternal grandmother, Mrs. Elbert Isom, at Halsey. She will remain in Woodburn while her parents are spending their vacation on a fishing trip in California.

Reports of the local delegation to the state Veterans of Foreign Wars encampment at Astoria will be heard at the regular meeting of the local VFW and auxiliary Aug. 6 at the Woodburn city hall. Mrs. Henry Strange and Mrs. Jacob Weber will serve refreshments.

Mrs. Edna G. Lowe of Clyde, Kan., is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Randall and is also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rivenes. Mrs. Lowe is a sister of Mr. Randall. From here she will go to Seattle to visit other relatives.

Use of the adjective "American," instead of "United States" was officially recommended by Secretary of State John Hay in 1904 to U. S. diplomatic and consular officers.
