Snakes Cause Fatal Bus Crash

Bombay, India (AP) — Newspapers told Wednesday how 24 persons were killed in a bus accident caused by snakes on the loose.

The bus, loaded with Hindu worshippers, was going through the jungle in Hyderabad state last week to the Hindu festival of Nagpanchami, a festival in which snakes play a part.

Among the travellers were several snake charmers whose baskets of king cobras were tied to the roof of the bus.

As the bus jolted along, the basket lids came loose and the snakes escaped.

Some of the reptiles appeared on the windshield and others crawled in with the driver.

The snakes had had their poison apparatus removed, but the driver panicked and lost control.

The bus went off the road and fell into a chasm.

The driver lived to tell how the crash occurred.

Deer Watchers Block Traffic

Delake (AP) — Traffic on the Coast highway was hampered Tuesday morning for the second time in recent days by spectators watching a buck deer cavorting in the surf.

Saturday morning at his first appearance people who thought he might drown tried to chase him out of the water. He refused to go and spent three hours dashing about.

Tuesday he cut his time to about two hours.

One theory advanced was that he was in the water to eliminate an accumulation of ticks on his legs and body.
