

Aurora Reunions Bring Pioneer Clans Together

Aurora—Mr. and Mrs. John S. Wallace, late of Gladstone, former Aurora residents, and three generations of their immediate descendants, met in reunion at Silverton city park Sunday, July 27.

The reunion was dedicated to the memory of John T. Wallace, an uncle, who was a pioneer farmer and horse breeder in the Monitor area. The present Wallace family came to Oregon from Iowa in 1933, settling in Aurora. Twenty-nine members of the family joined in the reunion.

Included among the group were Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Wallace, Paul and John, Mrs. Richard Carroll and Jeffery Lynn, Canby; Mr. and Mrs. Orma Carleton and Carol of Salem, Mrs. Jennie Maine, Krealyn and Ernest Tidwell of Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Maine, Emmeline and Johnny of Prineville, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Maine of Ontario, Mrs. Leona Thomas, Gerald Schoen and Miss Carol Schoen, Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. William Gelbrich, Ronald and Jerry of Vernonia, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Wallace of Gladstone, Geraldine Crawford and Sharon Ryan of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dodge, Canby residents for 52 years, and 96 relatives and friends met at a family reunion at Seven Acres Sunday.

Club lunch dinner was followed by swimming in the Mollala and other picnic sports.

At the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hein and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dodge and four children of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loe and daughter of Yoder; Mr. and Mrs. John Ritter of Needy; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Dodge and son, Bill, of Oregon City; Clyde Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Cattle, Candis Lee and Georgia Ann of Canby, and Richard Dodge of Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Nelson, Lloyd Nelson, Ronnie and Lonnie Nelson of Longview, Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Hein and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. George Crump and daughters, all of Salem; Mrs. Edna Buckner, Mr. and Mrs. David Lind and family; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buckner and children, all of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kelly and family of Goble, Leo Buckner, Joe Pettie, Lynn, George and Philip Pettie, Portland, Mrs. Doris C. Hardenberger and son Arnold of Canby, and Mrs. Mabel Clevenger and three grandchildren of Bolton.

Joe Parmley reunion held Sunday, July 27, featured a picnic dinner, followed by a crawfish repast later in the day.

Attending were Mrs. Edna Taylor, Viola Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weir, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gayles, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Gayles and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Buckner, all of Salem; A. Tauber of Amity; Mrs. Will Roach and two sons of Milwaukie; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Scheer, Jr., and two children of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Harold James and family, Mrs. Hilton Swope of Horton, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Harley Christian and son of Estacada; Mr. and Mrs. Philip James of Mollala; Mrs. Jessie James of Horton; Mrs. W. H. Roach of Beaver Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiegand, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parmley of Needy.

Numerous Fires Quelled at Amity—Amity community has been plagued with fires during the past week.

Approximately an acre of wheat was burned on the A. J. Stone place July 30, started by sparks from a tractor.

Saturday a flue fire was reported at the Lloyd Cochran home near the city park, and that afternoon a stubble fire on the Ernest Gawchu farm west of Amity required quick work by the Amity Fire department to save the dwelling.

Sunday at 3 p. m. the Amity firemen were called to the L. A. Courtemanche farm, where 45 acres of vetch burned.

A field fire at 6 p. m. Sunday on the Krueger and Kurtz farm near Broadmead was extinguished.

Monday a field fire on the H. E. Wood farm west of Amity was extinguished.

Scio High Class In First Reunion

Scio—The first reunion of the Scio high school class of 1927 was held Sunday, Aug. 3 at Wilson Park near Scio.

There were more than 50 classmates and families and other alumni and families present to enjoy the basket lunch at noon and to spend the remainder of the day renewing acquaintances.

Coming the longest distance for the re-union was a former English teacher, Mrs. David Balser (S. Edith Pentney) of Woodland, Calif.

Classmates decided to hold the next and second reunion in 1937.

Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Russell Knighten (Lucille Sommer) of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. David Boshart (Elsie Platt) and 2 sons of Scio; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Sommer and 3 sons of Scio; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Runkle (Mae Calavan) and son of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thurston of Newport; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Baltimore (Bertha Calavan) and 2 sons of Mill City; Mrs. Dean

Ackerman (Wilma Miller) of Corvallis. Former teachers: Mrs. David Blaser (Edith Pentney) of Woodland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Caldwell and 2 children of Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Watenpaugh of Corvallis; Miss Freda Thayer of Mill City; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sims (M. Etta Morcom) of Lebanon. Other former grads present were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Zyssett and 2 daughters of Gervais; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Holtein and 3 children of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Clell Holtein and son of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thurston of Scio; Mrs. Ralph Badger (Archie Shelton) of Scio; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Johnson and 2 sons of Sweet Home; Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Shelton of Scio.

Four of the graduates of the 1927 class were unable to be present—Mrs. Charles Greenwood (Lona Zyssett) of Sacramento, Calif.; Mrs. Mary Stienke (Mary Gibbons) of Salem; Mrs. John Wesley (Ida Shimaneck) of Salem; and Mrs. R. F. Miller (Frances Wesley) of Valley Springs, Calif.

The watermelon grows in numerous varieties and when mature may weigh as little as 8 or more than 80 pounds.

Home Rebekahs In Lawn Party

Woodburn—The regular meeting of Home Rebekah lodge No. 58 was held Tuesday night and routine business transacted under the direction of Mrs. Carol Gay, noble grand.

Reports were given by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frenz on their recent trip to California.

Illness was reported of Henry Stange. Mrs. Frank Wright reported a new granddaughter, born last week to Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Enos.

Under "good of the order" a reading was given by Mrs. Maude Scott. Mrs. H. A. Lohse outlined plans to raise money for the president's project which included a drawing with the prize going to Mrs. C. H. Breuninger.

Members were asked to send birthday cards to Mrs. Myrtle Hall who is now in Sheffield, Iowa, where she was called by the illness and death of her brother, Albert Cook.

Following the meeting a lawn party was held at the home of Mrs. Jacob Weber with Mrs. Weber, Mrs. George Ryder and Mrs. James Livesay serving refreshments. A moving picture film was shown by Eugene Stoller.

For the next meeting, Aug. 19, the refreshments will consist of a "dutch lunch" after
