Gervais

Gervais—Mrs. J. E. Cutsforth and A. R. Siegmund, of Salem were united in marriage last Tuesday at the parsonage of the Court St. Christian church, Salem.

They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Claude Morris.

Mrs. Cutsforth and Mr. Siegmund are former residents of Gervais.

They will be at home on 185 N. Lancaster Dr. Salem.

Mrs. Scott Jones, Mrs. D. L. St. John, Mrs. J. C. Adams and Linda and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper attended the wedding of Miss Irene Forsythe and Perry O. Hanson at the Calvary Presbyterian church in Portland Friday, Aug. 8.

Miss Forsythe and Mr. Hanson have recently returned from Tsing, China. Miss Forsythe is working in Missions under Presbyterian Boards and Mr. Hanson under Methodist Jurisdiction.

Mrs. Frank Holoubek is slowly recovering from a stroke. She is at home and enjoys visitors.

The Hermosa club enjoyed a picnic at Silver Creek Falls, Monday, Aug. 11.

The engagement of Verna Lee Cutsforth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee V. Cutsforth is being announced.

A reception will be held at the home of Mrs. Scott Jones for Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jones. They are newlyweds and will leave soon for California where he teaches. They were married in the east. Dale is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. McMillan Jones of Longview, Wash.

Mrs. Orword Hoye and two children arrived home early Saturday morning. They left June 29 and while away visited her parents in Finley, N.D., also Mr. Hoye's parents in Inkster, N.D. Mr. Hoye will finish his course at U. of O. this week.

Sunday Aug. 17 the annual reunion of the descendants of the early pioneers, Isaac, Solomon, Nancy and Samuel Allen will meet at the home of the late Sam H. Brown, whose mother was Elizabeth Allen Brown, the daughter of Samuel Allen, pioneer, who crossed the plains in 1847 and settled on the Abiqua near Silverton.

Samuel Allen, like other members of the Allen family was active in early Oregon politics, church and schools. He was one of three commissioners who adopted the plan under which the old State Capital was erected.

On November 27, 1847, at a meeting at the house of Samuel Allen on the Abiqua, the organization of the Oregon Presbytery was authorized.

Grand Ronde

Grand Ronde—Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kilgore, with Lawrence and Leila, left Thursday morning, Aug. 7, to return to their home in Johnson, Kas.

They have been visiting with Mrs. Kilgore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lindsay, for the past week.

They plan to stop in Idaho Falls to visit with Mrs. Kilgore's brother, Roy Lindsay, for a few days before going on home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Smith from Astoria spent a few days visiting with Mrs. Smith's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Michelson, last week.

Clyde Bice of the U. S. navy spent the week-end with his parents. Clyde is stationed in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. John Salbot left Friday morning to visit friends in Sweet Home and returned home by way of Idanha and the Detroit dam.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mehlfors of Crescent City, Calif., were here visiting Mrs. Mehlfors' uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lindsay, and other friends over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay returned home with them and plan to stay

Other guests at the same home Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rhodig of Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. Clarence Flower of Redmond; Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Stoutenburg and family of Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming and Joe attended the Crooked River rodeo at Prineville and they plan to visit Crater Lake before returning home Aug. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Chester L. Snyder, Sr., and Mrs. Charles McKee, all of the Fairview district, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Versteeg at Amity.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Branson and daughters, Mary Beth and Katherine May of Walla Walla, Wash., were guests of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stephens from Thursday to Sunday.

They attended the Buell family reunion at the Maude Williamson state park in the Wheatland district Sunday when 27 members attended from Fairview, Walla Walla, Molalla, Lebanon and Bellevue and Walla Walla.

Unionvale

Mrs. Bernard John Trunk accompanied by her mother, Mrs. George Strawn, both of Unionvale, left by automobile on a vacation trip at 4 a.m. Sunday.

They are going the northern route via Detroit, Boise, Idaho, Salt Lake City, Utah, then to Yuma, Ariz., to visit Mrs. Strawn's oldest sister and family. From there direct to Columbus, Ga., where they will join Bernard Trunk in the army stationed at Ft. Benning.

Mrs. Strawn will be away about two weeks and as soon as she can get reservations will return by air.

Bernard called his wife by telephone Saturday.

Miss Elsie Frahm of Burchard, Neb., Mrs. Ivan Crawley, and daughter, Mrs. Joe R. Panek, and daughter, Miss Barbara Panek, of Broadmead, called at the Mrs. Clarence L. Fowler home Monday.

Miss Frahm came out with Mrs. Audrey Massey of Vancouver, Wash.

Wheatland

More than 100 descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Freshour, who came from Missouri more than 60 years ago and settled in Oregon, attended an annual family reunion held at the Maude Williamson state park in the Wheatland district Sunday.

Children of the pioneer couple attending the reunion were: Henry Freshour of Culter City; Mrs. Clyde Ryan, Tillamook; Mrs. Elmer Busby, Independence; Mrs. Cora Wirtz, Unity district; Mrs. Marjorie Krake, Dayton. One member of the original family, Mrs. George Griffith of McMinnville, was unable to attend.

Mrs. Gladys Beckel of Dayton and Mrs. Elsie Flesman of Salem headed the committee in charge.

Dinner was served at noon. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beaty of Wheatland district were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knoche and family at Powell Butte.

While there they attended Crook County county fair. Keith Knoche took first prize in a large exhibit of 4-H pigs.
