Duo to Be Wed Here On Sept. 10

Announcing her wedding date this week is Miss Gladys Rose Zielinski, who is to marry Charles Richard Pierce.

The wedding will be September 10 at 9:30 a. m. at St. Vincent DePaul Catholic church.

Miss Zielinski is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph Zielinski of Salem. She attended school in Salem, graduating from Sacred Heart academy. She was graduated from the University of Portland college of nursing in June and is employed at St. Vincent hospital in Portland.

Mr. Pierce is a graduate of Sacred Heart academy. He enlisted in the air force in 1946. He returned from duty in Korea in June and is now stationed in Tucson, Arizona. The couple will reside in Tucson after their marriage. The bridegroom-to-be is the son of Mrs. Stella Pierce of Prineville, formerly of Salem.

Miss Earhart and Mr. Abdill Married

Amity — Candelabrum and large baskets of gladioluses in pastel shades formed the setting for the wedding of Miss Lillian Earhart of Amity, daughter of Mrs. E. A. Hobbs, and Percy Lloyd Abdill, of Willamina, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. McClurg, on Sunday, August 17 at 8:30 p. m. The Rev. William P. Bray officiated at the single ring ceremony. Mrs. Ralph Konzilman was soloist with Mrs. Theodore Lehman, accompanist.

The bride wore a rayon lace street length dress in peach shade over white satin. Her finger-tip illusion veil was arranged from a white Dutch cap. She carried a spray of tuberous begonias and ferns.

Miss Sally McClurg of Willamina, sister of the bridegroom, wore a green and white checked gingham, street length dress. Her flowers were the same as those carried by the bride.

Irwin Warner, Amity, was best man. Ushers were Darrell Taylor, cousin of the bridegroom, Ronald Nelson and Robert Lehman.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the social hall of the church.

Mrs. Henry Taylor and Mrs. Ray Williams served the wedding cake, and Miss Virginia Wakeman, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Delores Ulrich of Lafayette passed the guest book and Mrs. E. H. Lehman was in charge of the gifts. The young couple left for a trip to the Oregon beaches.

They will be at home at the Henderson apartments in Amity. Mr. Abdill is employed at a lumber mill near Willamina.

GUESTS at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Rogers are her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crawford Reid of Long Beach, Calif.

Another sister, Miss Sadie May Skattaboe, who has spent the winter in Tucson, also has been visiting at the Rogers home. She has gone to Seattle but will return here later.

Guests For Dinner

Chopped Beefsteak and Tomato Pie with Potato Cover
Buttered Carrots Green Salad
Bread and Butter
Orange-Cranberry Cake Roll
Beverage

Orange-Cranberry Cake Roll
Ingredients: 4 eggs, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/4 cup sifted flour, 1/4 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon vanilla, one 5-ounce package orange sherbet mix, one 1-pound can whole cranberry sauce (drained).

Method: Beat eggs and salt over hot water until thick and pale-colored, gradually adding sugar. Sift flour and baking powder and fold into eggs with vanilla. Pour into shallow pan (about 15x10 inches) lined with greased waxed paper. Bake in hot (400 degree F.) oven 12 minutes. Turn onto cloth sprinkled with powdered sugar; tear off paper. Roll and cool. Meanwhile make sherbet according to package directions, using 1 cup milk and 1 cup water, and place in freezing compartment of refrigerator; when firmly frozen remove sherbet from refrigerator tray to bowl. Break up into small lumps with fork. Beat with rotary beater until free from lumps but still a thick mush. Spread sherbet on cool cake roll and re-roll. Place cake roll in freezing compartment of refrigerator until serving time; then spread outside of roll with cranberry sauce. Makes 8 to 8 servings.

Miss Orr Wed Friday At Albany

Albany—An attractive bride of the season was Miss Beverly Jane Orr, who was wed to Robert Vaughn Maip, Munster, Ind., on Friday, August 15, at 8 o'clock in the evening at the United Presbyterian church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Orr, Albany, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Main, Munster, Ind. The Rev. Roy D. Strong read the double ring ceremony in the presence of more than 150 relatives and friends.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a traditional white wedding gown made with bodice and bolero of lace, full skirt of net with lace points over the hipline and ballerina length. Her net over-the-face veil was edged with lace and held in place with a bandeau of shirred net embellished with flowers and seed pearl centers. The bride carried a nosegay of stephanotis with an orchid center.

Mrs. Ralph Paul of Corvallis was the matron of honor and wore a light shade of green dress of taffeta with matching bolero. The skirt had a wide net ruffle at the hem. She wore a bandeau in her hair with green ostrich plumes to match her dress. She carried a nosegay of fuchsias, statice and elf roses.

Miss Marlene Brown, Salem, in a lavender dress and Mrs. Robert Orr, sister-in-law of the bride, also in lavender, were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were made similarly to that of the matron of honor's. Each carried a nosegay to match that of the matron of honor.

Denny Edwards, Salem, cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Justin A. Miller, Jr., fraternal brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Jack Payne and Ralph Paul, Corvallis and Larry Strong, Albany.

Lighting the candles were Miss Annette Millhollen, and Miss Lyvona Main, sister of the bridegroom. Each wore a light pink frock.

Justin Miller, Sr., was the organist and accompanied Justin Miller, Jr., and Mrs. Donald Belt who sang the solos.

Mrs. Orr wore a light blue lace dress with small navy blue velvet hat and an orchid corsage for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Main wore a tan crepe dress with henna shaded hat and her flowers were also orchids.

The church was decorated with two tall baskets of gladioluses in pink and cream shades and lighted candles in candelabrum.

After the ceremony the reception was in the church parlors. The bride's table was centered with the wedding cake surrounded with pink and white flowers and flanked with lighted candles in silver candelabra.

Mrs. Walter Edwards, Salem, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. W. R. Millhollen poured and Mrs. J. Ed Looney cut the bride's cake. Misses LaRene Cross, Joan Albrich, Catherine Burch, Marie Jorie Corbet, Virginia Gerig and Gloria Fintell assisted about the rooms. Miss Elaine Wilson had charge of the guest book and Miss Lyndall Lovett was in charge of the gifts.

After the reception the couple left on a wedding trip to Munster, Ind. On August 26 they will be the guests of honor at an open house given by the bridegroom's parents. After September 1 they will be at home in Corvallis. For going-away the bride wore a dusty rose and dark striped suit with hat, gloves and blouse to match. Pinned to her shoulder was a white orchid corsage.

The bride was graduated from Albany high school and attended Oregon State college. The bridegroom attended the East Chicago, Ind., high school, Monmouth college, Monmouth, Ill., and Oregon State college. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon. He will attend Oregon State this fall where he is majoring in civil engineering.

Wed Recently — Mrs. Arnold W. Meyer (Lavonne Schuessler) was married last Saturday evening in Christ Lutheran church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schuessler of Valley Center, Kansas. Mr. Meyer is the son of Mrs. Marie Meyer of Salem. The bride is pictured here with the little flower girl at the wedding, Louise Chappell. (Artz studio picture.)

Club's Officers Are Entertained

Woodburn — Mrs. R. L. Anderson, the new president of the Woodburn Woman's club, entertained the club officers at a luncheon at her home Wednesday. Covers were placed for Mrs. James Lamb, Mrs. Walter Schuler, Mrs. J. B. Gay, Mrs. Charles Conyne and the hostess.

During the afternoon the members worked on the new year books and made plans for the work of the year which opens the first Wednesday in October.

RETURNING the first of the week from a trip to Vancouver Island were Mr. and Mrs. Denver Young and Judge and Mrs. Joseph B. Felton. They were gone about 10 days and took the six-day boat trip from Victoria to Chamis Bay. The R. W. Lands of Salem also were on the trip.

SALEM friends have received invitations to the wedding of Miss Sally Lichty and Ralph W. Bolliger, Jr., to be in Portland on September 6 at the Centenary Wilbur Methodist church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lichty of Portland and Mr. Bolliger, who is a student at Willamette university, is the son of the R. W. Bolligers of Portland.

Mr. Kunke Wed in East

Turner — Of interest to friends is the wedding of Miss Marian June Ritteman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Ritteman of Hawley, Minn., and Gordon A. Kunke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Kunke of Turner, the service being on August 16 at 8 o'clock in Hawley, Minn.

Mrs. Kunke and an aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Hazel Fillet of Dallas, went east for the wedding, Mrs. Fillet pouring at the wedding reception.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. J. A. Schmidt in a setting of white gladioluses and candelabrum. Miss Mariya Carlander, soloist for the wedding, was accompanied by Miss Adeline Schmidt.

The bride's dress was of white organdy, cut en train, with short sleeves and Peter Pan collar. The fingertip veil was held by a bandeau of lilies of the valley. The bride wore gauntlet lace gloves and carried a white Bible and white roses.

Maid of honor was Miss Anita Ritteman, sister of the bride, and junior attendant was Sandra Cavallari.

Best man for Mr. Kunke was Dale Folger, ushers being Ted Millet and Eldon Christanson.

A reception followed the wedding ceremony. The bride is a graduate of Concordia college, Moorhead, Minn., and has taught at Port Orford, Ore., for the past two years. Mr. Kunke is a Willamette university graduate.

For the wedding trip the couple went to Park Rapids lake area in Minnesota and then to Glacier National park. They are to be at home in Dallas in early September where Mr. Kunke will be the coach at Dallas high school.

EXPECTED to arrive on the train Friday from Lexington, Kentucky, are Mr. and Mrs. William H. Jones, who will spend about two weeks in the capital visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Arthur Jones.

LEAVING Friday after a visit here will be Major and Mrs. Murray Cameron and children, who have been guests at the home of Mrs. Cameron's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Eason. They are returning to Mather field in California.

State President to Visit Woodburn Club

Woodburn — A special meeting of the Woodburn Business and Professional Women's club has been called for Monday evening, August 25, at the home of Mrs. James Lamb at the McLaren school when Miss Fern Trull of Grants Pass, the state president, will be present to speak to the members.

All members are asked to bring prospective members as guests.

The new officers of the club will be in charge of arrangements and will serve light refreshments after the meeting.

Mrs. Vaucher Leaves

Mrs. Claude Vaucher (Diane Riggs) leaves Sunday to join her husband at Chicago. They will be at Winona lake in Indiana for a time, then will go to the east coast to sail in early September for Europe. They will visit in England and France, then go to Geneva, Switzerland, to be there until after Christmas with Mr. Vaucher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Vaucher. At the first of the year they will go to India and will attend language school out of Bombay preparatory to taking up their missionary work. Mrs. Vaucher is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle H. Riggs of Salem.

VISITORS here for a time are Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Haines and sons, Richard, David and John of Phoenix, Arizona. They are guests of Mrs. Haines' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Scott. While on the west coast, the visitors also are planning visits in Seattle, Vancouver, Victoria, and at Agate Beach. They are on vacation for about six weeks.

LEAVING Friday after a visit here will be Major and Mrs. Murray Cameron and children, who have been guests at the home of Mrs. Cameron's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Eason. They are returning to Mather field in California.
