

In the Valley

By MIKE FORBES

Dayton

Dayton — Four generations were present at a family gathering, held Sunday, Aug. 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Christenson near Carlton.

The occasion was in honor of Miss Barbara Mason of Los Angeles, Calif., who was visiting relatives. A potluck dinner was enjoyed at noon.

Those in attendance were Mr. Sina Christenson, Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. Emil Jensen, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stuberfield, Newberg; Mrs. Lola Christenson and son Gayle and daughter Norma, o. Newberg; Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Gorman and son Jimmie and their grandsons, Tommy and Terry Tucker and Don Christenson, all of Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Christenson, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. George Jenkins and daughters Susan and Linda Lee, of Portland, and Kenneth Hadley, McMinnville.

The four generations were Mrs. Sina Christenson, mother of Will Christenson, father of Mrs. George (Eleanor) Jenkins, mother of Susan and Linda Lee Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Duzan entertained at dinner Sunday, their sons and families, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Duzan and children, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Duzan and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crane and children spent a week at the Siltcoos forest camp.

Mrs. H. G. Coburn enjoyed a visit with her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leete and children of Gladstone, Saturday. On Sunday, her niece, Mrs. James Hunt and three children and a lady friend, of Clackamas, came for the afternoon. They had been to the coast for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCabe of White Plains, New York, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sherman. On Saturday evening the Shermans had a bridge party for their guests. Mrs. McCabe is a cousin of Mrs. Sherman.

Mrs. Harry Sherman entertained the Krowledeen bridge club at her home Thursday evening. Mrs. James Penland was a special guest. Mrs. Vernon Foster and Mrs. Oscar Dower were the prizewinners of the evening.

Rev. H. A. Ryan has been ill in his home for the past week and was unable to fill the pulpit at the Pioneer church Sunday. He is improving, but still at home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wright and family of Portland visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wright, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Grooman of Clarkville, Tenn., visited at the Bill Wright home, Thursday. Grooman, who is in the air force, has been transferred to Albuquerque, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Timm and Mr. and Mrs. Martha Nogosak accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dismore of Portland to Salem Sunday to attend the wedding of a relative, Miss Ruth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Doud, and Donald Hohrbach.

Mrs. Katherine Johnson is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Ray Warren, and family at Shedd. Her grandchildren are active in 4-H club work and will exhibit at the county fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams and children enjoyed the Redmond rodeo, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wright entertained Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Temple for dinner Monday evening, honoring Mrs. Temple on her birthday anniversary.

Dayton—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holt and three children spent several days camping at the Sutton forest camp near Siltcoos lake last week. They also gathered huckleberries in the Sherer Burn area near Mt. Hood.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Earle Coburn were among a number of Daytonites who went to Newport Sunday. It rained and there was little fishing. Going over on the south side of Taft, they saw car lights burning of a car wrecked by the side of the road. Upon investigating they discovered a man unconscious in the car. Apparently he had fallen asleep and hit a small tree by the side of the road. The man was taken to Taft where he regained consciousness. He only received a badly bumped head and nose. The car was crumpled up in front but was able to run on its own power. The man was from Portland and was going to Depoe Bay to go deep sea fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Parker were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stoller Sunday evening for potluck supper, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ego who were leaving for the winter at Pullman, Wash. A gift was presented to them. The group also honored the Parkers with a "dainty" shower.

Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Stoller, Mr. and Mrs. James Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Wright, Mr. and Mrs. D. Erickson.

Mr. and Mrs. Landis Sion and baby of Moses Lake, Wash., have been here with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nuttbrock and his mother, Mrs. Anna Sion. Sion had come for the softball tournament at Vancouver, Wash. Donald Nuttbrock went home with them for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peoples and son came last week to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hunter for a couple of days. They have been spending the summer at Bismarck, N. D., with her parents. Now they have taken their stored furniture to Canyon City where they both will teach this winter. The Peoples were teachers in the Dayton grade school system last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lichtenhaler have as house guests this week her sister, Mrs. Ted Hauer, and son, LeRoy of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lofton went to Prineville last week on business.

Aumsville

The end of the 4-H county show held at the fairgrounds last week saw many Aumsville girls and boys bringing home ribbons.

Gerry Lewis placed 4th in showmanship in the fat stock class. He also got a third on his yearling heifer and first on his cow. They were both Herefords. John Lee placed first with his Jersey junior calf and third with a senior heifer calf and third with his Jersey showmanship.

Melvin LaRont showing his Guernseys got a third on his junior calf and a second on his junior cow. Glenn Davis got a fifth on his junior cow and Marvin LaRont a third on his senior yearling heifer. John Lee got a first on his Jersey senior yearling and Ronald Roberts a second. John Lee got grand championship on his junior heifer calf.

Sally Klein showing Ayrshires placed second in showmanship and placed first with her junior cow and first and grand champion on a senior cow.

James Pyell tied for first place in rabbit showmanship. He also got a second on his rabbit. Eugene Pyell and Linda Magee also placed third with their rabbits.

June Gruchow got a blue ribbon in canning I, getting red awards in the same division were Freya Simpson, Elizabeth Simpson and David Lindgren, Donna, Lenneman and Hubert Hudson both got white awards.

In canning 2 Sandra Zwicker got a blue award and will take her exhibit to State Fair. Charlotte LaRont and Linda Lee both got red ribbons and Linda Lee took a white.

Lois Holmquist got a red ribbon and Wilma Lenneman a white in canning III.

Sally Klein and Joyce Gruchow both got blue ribbons in canning IV and both girls will have their canning at State Fair.

In the canning specials Sally Klein got blue ribbons in the Kerr fruit special. The vegetable special and the Kerr emergency meal and also in the jam and jelly contest and will have all exhibits at State Fair and will also represent the county in the Spreckles canning contest.

Scio

Mrs. George Powell and children of Monroe have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. W. Miller and picking beans here.

Mrs. Bessie Jacobson and son have returned after spending the summer in Wyoming. Dwayne will be a junior in high school.

The local P-T-A president, Mrs. John Hatfield, announces that the following have been chosen as committee chairmen: Teacher's reception, Mrs. Faith Harding; program, Mrs. V. Crow; refreshment, Mrs. Earlwood Ross; membership, Mrs. Albert Weathers; ways and means, Mrs. Alleen Long; budget committee, Enright Lematta; hospitality, Mrs. E. Lematta; Founders' day, Mrs. K. Cunningham; publicity, Mrs. Glen Thurston; pre-school group, Mrs. Otto Lyons; historian, Mrs. Carl Woods; by-laws, Mrs. C. Christiansen.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brooks and family of California have moved into the house recently vacated by the W. Allman family who have moved to Silverton.

Ben Moore has sold his house at West Scio and will move into town, having bought the house just south of the Christian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holecchek and two boys have moved to Madras. Mr. and Mrs. H. Griffith of Madras are moving to Scio as a result of a property exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Breckenfelder and two daughters of Iowa were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Eastman. Mr. Eastman is a brother of Mrs. Breckenfelder.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Small of Vancouver, Wash., were recent Scio visitors.

Scio schools will open Sept. 4. Buses will start rolling on that date.

Three hundred and fifty students are expected to enroll in the grade school. The cafeteria will be started in the near future. Equipment is being installed.

Due to illness, Marian Robertson was given a year's leave of absence. Another teacher will be selected to teach in the grade school due to the resignation of Mrs. Robertson. A total of 13 teachers and the principal, R. H. McDonald, will make up the grade school teaching staff.

The high school teaching staff will include Dwight Densmore, principal, five new teachers and three from last year's staff. An enlarged and improved program will be offered.

Mrs. Christine Benes recently returned from The Dalles where she helped her grandson, Alan Reid Merritt, celebrate his first birthday.

Thomas Small, Sr., is very ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Boone Brown.

A birthday dinner was given Sunday in honor of Norman Long's 81st birthday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sims, where he lives.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Deb Long of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Don Barrett and Marsha of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stoller of Albany; Elmo, Rodney and Billy Johnson of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thurston and family, Mr. and Mrs. Laddy Elliott and Lonny and Mrs. Alma Struckmeier all of Scio.

The Lions' club is making a public park on the north side of Thomas creek. Dr. Hosch owns the 6-acre tract and will lease it to the Lions club. Much donation work is to be done.

The Scio Garden club has been holding a rummage sale here for several days. They are planning to landscape the high school grounds.

They also plan to have a State Fair exhibit.

Bean picking has ended at the Donicht field. Jack Scott is still picking his patch.

West Stayton

Twenty-eight persons appeared in Marion county court last week to oppose a proposed change in the West Stayton school district boundary lines.

The change would permit farms down Dickman Lane to be taken into the Stayton school district.

Only four persons appeared who were interested in the change.

However the district boundary board has made no decision as yet. They plan to look into the matter further before making any change.

Pvt. Harry J. Rand of the 82nd airborne, called home from Fort Bragg, N.C., Thursday evening informing his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Rand, he will fly home Sept. 3 for a 30-day furlough. Harry has been in the army 13 months, and has not been home since Christmas.

The Rands also heard from their son-in-law, Bob L. Brazeale, that he has been made acting mess sergeant at Fort Huachuca, Ariz., and will be home on furlough in October.

The Brazeales home is in Lebanon. Mrs. Brazeale (Georgia Rand) has recently accepted employment as long distance operator in the Lebanon telephone office.

Pedee

Pedee — Mrs. Rette Kerber, Mrs. Theda Condon, Mrs. Rufus Dodge accompanied Mrs. Sidney Howard of Monmouth to King's Valley Wednesday afternoon to a party at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jerry Howard.

Roland Trueax, Wanda and Tom were Sunday guests of his mother, Mrs. Lura Trueax, and sister, Mrs. Art Burris and daughter, of McMinnville. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Trueax of Longview, Wash.

The local Farmers' Union held its annual picnic dinner at the club hall Sunday. Dewey Jr. and Harry Cummings gave their report on the Junior Farmers' Union convention held at Twin Rocks. The Pedee 4-H livestock judging team won first at the county fair and will go to Portland to the International Stock Show. Donnell Cates, Dewey Jr. and Harry Cummings make up the team.

Mrs. George Yungling of Castledown, S. D., Mr. and Mrs. Hermon Yungling of Estelline, S. D.; Mrs. I. J. McMahon, Donis and Joe, of Havre De Grace, N. J., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Yungling. McMahon is in Korea.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Cummins of Alva, Okla., are spending a month at the home of their son, Dewey Cummins, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Johnson of Newport were recent guests of his grandmother, Mrs. Maud Burbank.

The W. S. W. S. met at the home of Mrs. C. L. Burbank. Mrs. J. W. McCormack gave the stewardship lesson. Miss Nola Womer, chairman of the Literature committee, displayed a group of books in the reading course and led the devotions.

Mrs. Sidney Howard and Mrs. C. L. Burbank each gave a short book review.

Mrs. Theda Womer had charge of the business meeting. Mrs. Howard reported sending 100 lbs. of clothing to Korea.

A pot luck dinner was enjoyed at noon. Miss Theda Condon, Mrs. Paul Ronco and Brad-day, Mrs. Jerry Hilburn and Jane were visitors.

Sublimity

Sublimity—A family gathering was held at the Ernest Riestler home Sunday in honor of Robert Plasker, a seminarian of Notre Dame, Ind., who is home on a two weeks' vacation.

Mr. Plasker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Plasker (Clara Minden) of Portland.

Attending the reunion were the grandmother, Mrs. Anna Minden, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Minden and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Minden and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Minden and family, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Lulay and family, Mr. and Mrs. Benny Silbernagel of Scio, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Plasker and family of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Plasker and family of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Casper Gerhart and son Ray and Mrs. Adeline Rodgers of Oakland, Calif., are visiting with the Riestler and Steffer families and other relatives.

Mrs. Louis Schott and son Bernard of Spokane, Wash., spent some time at the Mrs. Mary Schott home the past week.

St. Boniface schools will open for the coming term Monday, Sept. 8. Registration will be the previous Friday, Sept. 5.

Teachers for the year will be Sister M. Germain in charge of first and second grades; Sister Mariam the third and fourth; Sister M. Rose Augusta will teach the fifth and sixth and Sister M. Emily the seventh and eighth.

The St. Boniface high instructors are Sister M. Regina, principal; Sister M. Victoria, Sister M. Agnetta, and Sister M. Alberta. Rev. Maurice Grammond will replace Rev. Franz Schubert.

Sister M. Colista will again have charge of the music department.

Roy Christiansen, who was rated the No. 1 passer in Coach Bill Patterson's plans for the Shrine class B Western all-stars football game, suffered a pulled ligament in his foot and the doc-

Willamina

Vice Grand Barbara Stone presided at the meeting of Primrose Rebekah lodge in the absence of Nettie Wise, noble grand, who is recovering from an operation. Ethyl Tatum was received into the lodge by transfer from Etna Rebekah lodge in Grants Pass. The drill team will practice Sept. 16 for initiation on Sept. 18. The July and August birthday committee served refreshments after the meeting. The next meeting will be Sept. 4.

Donna Jean Barber celebrated her third birthday Aug. 24, at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Newt Smith. Others there were Mr. Smith, Frank Smart, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Cogswell, Mrs. Florence Hamilton of Ballston, and Donna's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barber and children.

Mrs. Pat Norris was honored with a picnic at the McMinnville park on her birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Norris and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hall of Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. Mill Clark of Grand Ronde, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Coddington of Sheridan, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Orley Brock Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Stone of Willamina.

The prize winners in the garden contest for school children sponsored by the Willamina Garden club and the Civic club were awarded this week to the following: Melvin Schukar, first prize for beans. (He was also awarded $2 for Mrs. Wanda Walkley of Grand Ronde for the best all-around garden.)

Linda Sundruff, first prize for petunias, third for marigolds; Mary Newbill, second prize for beans and third for carrots; Gloria Barrett, second prize for petunias.

Judges for the contest were Mrs. Nina Heider, Mrs. Sophia Wakkure, Mrs. Esther Dentel.

The Community Garden club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. W. C. Tremblay and voted to enter the flower show. There were nine members and two guests present. The Sept. 17 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Josephine Rummell.

The Theta Rho club met at the Rebekah hall Monday and made plans to attend the district convention in Tigard Sept. 27. Donna Stoddard will participate as inside guard.

The Willamina Garden club will meet Thursday, Sept. 4 at the home of Mrs. Bob Pinnick with Mrs. Emery Dentel.

Kathleen Boudry was honored August 25 on her third birthday with a party. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Doug Kleath and Susan, Mrs. Bill Foster, Bonnie and Cheryl, all of McMinnville; Mrs. Kenneth Johnson, Judy and Gayle of Sheridan, Kathleen McCauley, Sheila and Charley Flynn, Mrs. W. T. Stone, Robin and Michael, and Janet and Kathleen Boudry.

Dinner guests at the Boudry home that evening for a birthday dinner were Mrs. Patsy Boudry and Aaron Johnson of McMinnville, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Myers.

Ann Denton was hostess to the Card Club Tuesday, when Helen Tharp won first, Avis Brock, second, Clara Krauthofer low and Helen Tharp and Thelma Mulford pinochle.

He will remain with the squad, however, in the hope he may be able to get into a few plays.

Jack Gries, another local boy, is on the all-star team at Pendleton for the big game.

Leaving from here Friday to witness the game are Mr. and Mrs. Art Christiansen and son Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Frost, Peter Gries, Jim Gries, Garry Gries, Miss Delores Wolf and Miss Shirley Taggart of Salem.

Rev. Franz Schubert, who has been an instructor in St. Boniface high and assistant at Sublimity, Stayton and Mill City, has been transferred to St. Patrick's parish, Portland.

Rev. Maurice Grammond from St. Mary's Boys Home, Huber, is being sent to Sublimity.

The appointments became effective Aug. 28.

Amity

Amity — Mrs. Ivan Crawley, Amity Rt. 1, was honored with a birthday dinner Monday evening, Aug. 25, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Panek, at Broadmead.

Besides the honored guest, attending were her husband, Ivan Crawley, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crawley of Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lister and Martin of Salem, Mrs. Audrey Massey and a girl friend, Vancouver, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Strobe and daughter, Beverly Panek, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Slimp and Gregory, Sheridan; Clayton Crawley, Amity; Miss Barbara Panek and the hosts.

Talbot

Talbot — Mr. and Mrs. Jake Gilmour entertained with a dinner Thursday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Potts and sons, Gary and George III, who left Saturday for their Jordan Valley cattle ranch.

They had been here the past month for mint distilling. Others present besides the Potts and Gilmours were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Gilmour, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Blinston, Mrs. Al Gurgurich and Delene.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Gurgurich and daughter, Delene, spent Sunday at the beach.

Mrs. John Zehner was honored guest at a surprise birthday party Monday night at the Jake Gilmour home. Two tables of canasta were in play. Present were the guest of honor, Mrs. Zehner, and Mr. Zehner; Mesdames George Marlatt, Ernest Freeman, Gilbert Belknap, and Luther Blinston, and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Gilmour. Refreshments were served.

George Marlatt and A. R. Blinston are spending a few days fishing in the Deschutes river near Maupin.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chase, residents of this community for many years, have sold their farm and will move to a place near Liberty.

Dallas

Jim Evans, who has been visiting with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Johnson, left Dallas Wednesday for his home in Tacoma where he will finish his senior year in school. Jim has been employed in the warehouse during his stay.

Don Courter, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Courter, left Wednesday for Portland where he will be inducted into the Coast Guard. After a brief stay in the Oregon city, he will be shipped to Alameda, Calif., to undergo his basic training.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fitch and three sons will leave Thursday for their home in Washington, D.C. The family have been spending the summer months with Mrs. Fitch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hawkins.

Woodburn

The Presbyterian Sunday school picnic, postponed last Sunday because of rain, will be held this Sunday, Aug. 31, (weather permitting) immediately after the morning service.

A workers training course under the supervision of Rev. Lester Young of Bethel park, is being held at the Woodburn Assembly of God church this week and Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, studying the book "You Should Know," by Hart R. Armstrong.

Rev. Ormal B. Trick, who has been attending the religious drama workshop at Green Lake, Wisc., will return to Woodburn this week end and will conduct the 11 o'clock service Sunday at the Woodburn Methodist church. "The Laborers Are Few," will be his sermon topic.

Rev. W. B. Kendall of Harrison, Ark., will speak at the 11 o'clock service Sunday at the Woodburn Church of God.

Unionvale

E. M. Demaray just recently returned from San Diego, Calif., where he has been more than a year, is substitute rural carrier out of Dayton postoffice service.

No Racing Tomorrow Only (Sunday)

Big Free SHOW

At Grandstand

2:30 to 4:30

Sunday Only

British Naval Guard, Royal Marines and Royal Marine Band from Her Majesty's Ship Sheffield in colorful, spectacular historical exhibitions.

Multnomah County Sheriff's MOTORCYCLE CORPS in startling, thrilling display of daredevil riding!

State Fair

Gen. Adm. 50c—35c after 6 Children 12 and under FREE Parking 25c

EL SINORE 3-5798

Starts Tomorrow! (AND CONTINUOUS SHOWS FOR LABOR DAY)

RAGING TIGER WITH HIS FISTS! ROARING LION WITH A GUN...

RICHARD CONTE

JACK LONDON'S THE FIGHTER

VANESSA LEE J. BROWN-COBB

THRILL CO-HIT! JUNGLE RITUALS AND DANGERS NEVER-BEFORE-FILMED!

STRANGE WORLD

THE LION and the HORSE

THE OUTCASTS OF POKER FLAT

THE LION and the HORSE

THE LION and the HORSE

THE LION and the HORSE

THE LION and the HORSE

THE LION and the HORSE

THE LION and the HORSE

ing patrons on route one, while Mrs. Tessie McCormick has a few days vacation.

The ridges around the craters of the moon may be as much as 2,000 feet in height.

SALEM DRIVE-IN THEATRE 2-7829

GATES OPEN 6:45 SHOW AT DUSK STARTS SUNDAY

For Your Labor Day Holiday In Technicolor "RED MOUNTAIN" Alan Ladd

—Plus— "JUST THIS ONCE" Janet Leigh

See a show from your car! Open Rain or Shine!

SALEM DRIVE-IN THEATRE 2-7829

GATES OPEN 6:45 SHOW AT DUSK

ENDS TONITE (Sat.) 2 Big Action Hits And Both in Color "WILD NORTH" Stewart Granger Wendell Corey

—Plus— "KANGAROO" Peter Lawford Maureen O'Hara

See a show from your car! Open Rain or Shine!

CAPITOL

Continuous Brod Crawford Donna Reed "SCANDAL SHEET" —Plus— John Wayne "DARK COMMAND"

GRAND

Mat. Daily from 1 P.M. ENDS TODAY! "IVORY HUNTERS" and "GLORY ALLEY" TOMORROW!

THE ARMY'S DEVIL DRIVERS! THE RED BALL EXPRESS

Starring JEFF CHANDLER ALEX NICOL

Heart-Warming Co-Hit! DONALD REAGAN FRANK LOVEJOY

The Winning Team

STATE

CONT. FROM 1 P.M. ENDS TODAY! "Operation Pacific" and "Harvey"

TOMORROW! (AND CONTINUOUS SHOWS LABOR DAY) "WHISPERING SMITH"</