

In the Valley

By MIKE FORBES

Independence

Independence — Mrs. George Gentman, president of the Independence Elementary P.T.A., called a meeting of the various committees Monday evening to discuss plans for the coming year.

Each committee received instructions stressing their work for the year. Plans for the annual teachers' reception were discussed and will be taken up with the Monmouth and Central P.T.A. units for a joint reception. Date of this reception will be announced later.

The chairman for the year are: Membership, Helen Kreitz; program, Audrey Cawley; hospitality, Evelyn Newton; room representative, Betty Newton; safety, George Gentemann; health, Mildred Worthington; legislation, Fern Gratzke; recreation, Christine Adams; ways and means, Alta Fletcher; budget, Esther Walker; music, Ralph Farrell; child care, Rita Foster; magazine, Lila Erickson; pre-school parent education, Jessie Perkins; co-chairman, Juanita Hering; parent education, Helen Gwinn; publicity-treasurer, Alva Noble.

School buses of District 13C will follow the same schedule as last year, and will make the same stops at approximately the same time.

Parents should call the superintendent's office if they have children who were not regular bus students last year, so that the proper stops can be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Muncie with their father, have moved to Drain, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Drydale of Newport, were recent visitors of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stone.

Mrs. Mary Karbel of Lebanon was in Independence last Tuesday, visiting.

Mrs. Jesse Sohn, Sr., will resume her teaching duties at the Sidney school in the Jefferson district, which will open Sept. 10.

Miss Patty Hanna of Dayton, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dickinson this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Aue left Sunday for Gardiner, where they will make their home. Mr. Aue is employed at the Gardiner Lumber company.

Barbara Jean, Billy and Dennis Bullock of Corvallis, have been visiting their grandparents for a few days, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bullock. Thane Bullock came Sunday for his children, and spent the day with his parents.

Miss Shirley Pippin will leave Sunday for Corvallis, where she will be living at Sacket Hall, following her enrollment at Oregon State college.

Robert Leo Wilkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wilkinson, won fourth place with an A count, in a baby contest at Salem last week. There were 340 entries in the contest. Robert was the only baby entered from Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Smith and family have moved to Salem, where they have purchased a new home. Mr. Smith is employed in Salem.

Rev. Lynn Sparks and family, former pastor of the Assembly of God church in Independence, were visiting friends last Monday.

Mrs. Clifford Hassler, Sr., and daughter, Zada Dell, Mrs. Keith Hassler and Mrs. Frager of Monmouth, returned Monday from an extended trip through Kansas, their former home.

The Independence Christian grade school association, will meet Sunday at 3 p.m., at the Bible tabernacle.

Luncheon guests of Mr. Prusha Sloper Tuesday, were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Newton of Corvallis.

Mrs. Clifford Fratzke attended a committee meeting in Portland recently for some pre-planning for the campaign of Edith Green, who is candidate for Secretary of State.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Foster were in Albany Sunday, visiting their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hathaway and children.

Cecil Weaver enrolled this week at the Willamette University and will stay with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Weathers, for the school term.

Miss Edna Loretta Dotson will enter Oregon College of Education for the Fall term. Miss Dotson is winner of the Independence Woman's club scholarship.

Robert Hedges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hedges, and who is with the Coast Guard, stationed at Alameda, Calif., is home on a 10-day leave.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bryan of Hood River, are parents of a baby boy, born September 8, named William Jerry. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Banks of Independence, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryan of Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gibbons are announcing the birth of a son, born Sept. 7 at the Salem General hospital.

Mrs. Byron Ruddell who has been in the Salem General hospital the past three weeks, was able to return home Tuesday, and is improving.

Mrs. Robert King is in the Emanuel hospital in Portland this week, where she is being treated for Asthma.

Cafeteria in school District 13C will open Wednesday, Sept. 17, since children will remain until 2:30 p.m. Children who intend to eat at the cafeteria regularly, should plan on eating lunch at the cafeteria the first day.

Cafeteria prices this year will be the same as last year. 25 cents for the elementary children and 30 cents for the high school students.

Mrs. Eva Banks and Mrs. Florence Bullock will be in charge at the Central high cafeteria.

Mrs. Opan Bethel and Mrs. Mrs. Mabel Fettes at Monmouth; Mrs. Bernice Fratzke and Mrs. Leta Wunder at Henry Hill; Mrs. Nellie Katter and Mrs. Pauline Housley at Independence Elementary. Weekly tickets entitling the holder to five lunches, or monthly tickets allowing for 20 lunches, may be purchased for the convenience of the children.

The Garden club met Monday evening at the Pythian hall, where discussion of the fall flower show took place together with the regular business.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Etta Welch, Mrs. Erma Cooper, and Mrs. Jesse Moore.

Dayton

Dayton—Electa Chapter No. 29, Order of the Eastern Star, held the first fall meeting Tuesday evening, September 9, at the Masonic hall, with Mr. and Mrs. Earle Coburn W.M. and W.P. presiding.

Mrs. Jean A. Cavanagh of Mission Chapter No. 155, San Francisco, Calif., was a guest for the evening.

Several dates are to be remembered by the chapter members.

September 18 is Friendship night at Newberg chapter, Newberg.

September 22 is Friendship night at Knowles chapter, McMinnville.

September 23, Electa chapter is honoring the past matrons and past patrons.

October 14 is Electa chapter's Friendship night.

A memorial service was held for the late Jennie Senn, a long time member.

Mrs. Manley Borgan, Mrs. Harry Sherman and Dave Ellis told of their vacation trips during the summer.

Refreshments were served by a committee with Mrs. Pauline Belts as chairman.

Miss Phyllis Holman, commercial teacher at the Dayton high school, spent 10 weeks of the summer vacation attending the University of Southern California.

Her mother, who makes her home with her here, also attended the same school.

Mrs. Kate Cousins of Eola Village is the new clerk at Fulghams Market this week. She will replace Mrs. Clara Heider, who has been assisting there for the past few weeks.

Mrs. Gertrude Dryden was again taken to the General hospital for treatment Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Smith and family have moved to their newly purchased farm in Dayton Prairie. The children will attend the Dayton schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson and three children from out the coast way, have purchased the Smith home on Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lang of Litchfield, Nebr., are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mosgrove. They were neighbors in Nebraska.

The Dayton Civic club met Monday evening, September 8 at the club, rooms in the Legion hall.

Mrs. Robert Ryan, president, conducted the business session. Mrs. Cleo Gell had charge of the youth program. Mrs. Russell Lehman spoke on 4-H club work.

Phyllis Finnicum spoke on her experiences at Girl's State this spring.

Mrs. Marvel of Independence talked on Girl Scout work.

Mrs. Geli and Mrs. Ted Grover gave a report on the youth activities in the local churches.

Mrs. Gell served refreshments assisted by several members.

Other members of the committee unable to attend were Mesdames Imah, Hough and Veach.

Miss Anna Mae Stegmon, daughter of Mrs. Mabel Stegmon, has gone to Spokane, Wash., where she entered the

Lyons

Lyons — The schedule for the beginning of the pre-school has been changed. School will begin Sept. 23 instead of the 24th as reported, and school will be held on Tuesday and Thursday instead of Wednesday and Friday. It will be held this year at the Mari-Linn gym with Mrs. Alice Huber instructor. The children may ride the school bus to school but will have to be called for at noon.

The flower show was held at the Rebekah hall in Lyons by the Lyons Garden club, Friday, Sept. 12. Mrs. Alex Kuhn was chairman.

Bertha Silbernagle and Mary Ann Duman have gone to Mt. Angel, where they will enter the Mt. Angel academy.

One hundred ninety-one were on hand for the opening of the Mari-Linn school Monday morning, Sept. 8, reports Orin Morgan principal. The girls are outnumbered by the boys, 105 to 86. Hot lunches are being served again this year, with Mrs. Gladys Hurst, cook, assisted by Mrs. Melvina Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hargreaves and children, who have spent the summer at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hargreaves near Jordan, are moving to Berkeley, Calif., soon. Ted has gone to Berkeley, where he will enter the Pacific College of Religion and will send for his family as soon as he finds a place to live. Joyce and Loren Hargreaves accompanied him to Berkeley, where they will enroll in the Junior college.

Mrs. L. A. Behrens and infant daughter, Lachelle Dawn, have returned home from the Salem Memorial hospital. The little miss has an older sister.

Santiam Valley Grange held its regular meeting at the hall Friday evening with Master John Lambrecht presiding. Plans were discussed for the harvest festival, which will be held at the hall Saturday afternoon and evening, Sept. 27.

The Home Economics club of the Santiam Valley Grange held a meeting at the club house in Mehama Tuesday afternoon. The time was spent in quilting.

Leora Stevens presided over the business meeting with Garnett Bassett secretary. The next meeting will be held Oct. 13 at the home of Mrs. Leora Stevens.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Kuiken was her brother and family from San Bernardino, Calif., formerly of Kokomo, Ind. It was a surprise to Mrs. Kuiken; she had not seen her brother for 28 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gustafson and children from Shell Lake, Wis., have moved into the Fred Lindemann house across the highway from the sporting goods store. Mrs. Gustafson is a sister of Jack Christensen.

A public hearing on the incorporation of Lyons will be held Monday, Sept. 22, at 8 p.m. at the Mari-Linn gym. Joe Devers of Stayton will be present to explain the details and necessary procedure.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Goodell enjoyed a vacation trip to Tacoma, Wash., where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stone and Mr. and Mrs. Chet Barr. Mrs. Stone is a sister of Mrs. Goodell and Mrs. Barr is a sister of Mrs. Goodell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnston have as their guest her brother, Lon Titus, from Fossil, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nye, who have been living in Fox Valley for some time, have moved to West Stayton, where they have bought them a small acreage.

Mrs. Viola Zander has returned home from Sheridan, Wyo., where she visited her sister and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elmer and son Gail were Sunday guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hiatt. Additional guests were Mrs. Hiatt's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reeves and son Billie of Portland.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen were his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Allen from near Belknap Hot Springs.

Visitors last week with Rev. and Mrs. Link Feenstra were Mr. and Mrs. Ole Sjolseth and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Larson of the Vancouver Ave. church in Portland. Monday, Mrs. Len Eakin from The Dalles and Mrs. Mildred Eakin from Powell Butte also were callers.

Mrs. Hugh Johnston was hostess for a group of little folks

Holy Name Academy as a sophomore this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

honoring their son, Kenton, on his sixth birthday anniversary. Present were Kenton, the honored guest, Stanley and Steven Power, Duane and Sue Christenson, Zeanne Bridges, Paul Aronson, Gerry, Terry and Marlene Thayer, Ronnie Jungwirth, Kathryn and Tommy Johnston. Mothers present were Mrs. Charles Power, Mrs. Jack Christenson, Mrs. Sam Bridges, Mrs. Earl Thayer, Mrs. Al Aronson and Mrs. Johnston.

Recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Prichard were Mr. and Mrs. James Myerhofer from Stayton.

Sublimity

Sublimity—St. Boniface High opened Monday with an enrollment of 113 for the first day of the new term.

The freshman class consists of 29 pupils; the sophomores, 35; juniors, 25; and senior class, 24. Sister M. Regina is again principal of the high school. Four new instructors are on the teaching staff.

Going away to school will be Miss Margaret (Peggy) Minden, a freshman who will enroll at St. Mary's of the Valley, Beaverton.

Miss Patricia Roberts is a freshman at Mt. Angel Academy. Miss Joyce Zuber is going to boarding school at Mt. Angel Academy.

Raymond Heuberger is a freshman at Mt. Angel Seminary. Mrs. Andy Silbernagle (Grace Laux) and infant son, Donald John, are at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mamie Laux. The new boy has an older brother.

Melvin Joseph is the name of the son born to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Heuberger, Sept. 2. The new arrival has two older sisters and two brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Koenig are the parents of a boy, born Sept. 7. This arrival also has two older sisters and two brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Welz and Mr. and Mrs. Al Hassler left Thursday by car for a trip to Minnesota. The Welzes will visit Mrs. Welz's father.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zimmerman and Mrs. Charles Bechtold were up from Portland Wednesday to attend the funeral of Roman Kintz.

Woodburn

Woodburn — Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Gardner and baby daughter, Molly, of Richland, Wash., were guests at the home of Mrs. A. E. Austin this week and accompanied by Mrs. Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gustafson and children from Shell Lake, Wis., have moved into the Fred Lindemann house across the highway from the sporting goods store. Mrs. Gustafson is a sister of Jack Christensen.

A public hearing on the incorporation of Lyons will be held Monday, Sept. 22, at 8 p.m. at the Mari-Linn gym. Joe Devers of Stayton will be present to explain the details and necessary procedure.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Goodell enjoyed a vacation trip to Tacoma, Wash., where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stone and Mr. and Mrs. Chet Barr. Mrs. Stone is a sister of Mrs. Goodell and Mrs. Barr is a sister of Mrs. Goodell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnston have as their guest her brother, Lon Titus, from Fossil, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nye, who have been living in Fox Valley for some time, have moved to West Stayton, where they have bought them a small acreage.

Mrs. Viola Zander has returned home from Sheridan, Wyo., where she visited her sister and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elmer and son Gail were Sunday guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hiatt. Additional guests were Mrs. Hiatt's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reeves and son Billie of Portland.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen were his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Allen from near Belknap Hot Springs.

Visitors last week with Rev. and Mrs. Link Feenstra were Mr. and Mrs. Ole Sjolseth and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Larson of the Vancouver Ave. church in Portland. Monday, Mrs. Len Eakin from The Dalles and Mrs. Mildred Eakin from Powell Butte also were callers.

Mrs. Hugh Johnston was hostess for a group of little folks

Holy Name Academy as a sophomore this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Goodrich and Miss Laura Mae Goodrich spent the day Sunday at Pacific City, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crabtree.

Lafayette

Lafayette—Oakes Kay Ames, R.D.S.A., is spending a ten day leave at his home in Lafayette after finishing radar school at Treasure Island.

Kay graduated from high school in 1951, after graduation he accepted a position in the engineering office of the state highway department at Salem where he was employed at the time he was called to active duty from the 13th Naval Electronic Unit of McMinnville of which he was a member. He has been assigned to the U.S.S. Elmerado, a communication ship in port at San Diego at present.

Lafayette school started Monday morning. Mrs. Owens is the new teacher filling the vacancy left by Miss Ruby Winslow, who moved to California.

The school bus carrying the high school pupils to McMinnville has a full load. There are 29 pupils attending McMinnville high school.

Salt Creek

Salt Creek — Rev. and Mrs. Emanuel Wolff and Shirley and Virginia Klassen returned from a month's trip Thursday which took them to Philadelphia, Penn., and other points.

Mrs. Freida May and Luella arrived home Sunday from a month's vacation. They went to the east coast and also attended the conference in Philadelphia, Penn.

Miss Nina Wilson of Hood River and Verne Buhler were married Sunday, Sept. 7, at Valley Christian church in Hood River.

Mrs. Buhler is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wilson of Hood River and Verne is the son of Mrs. Martha Buehler of Salt Creek. Many of Salt Creek attended the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lange have received word that their son Kenneth has been transferred to Corpus Christie, Texas.

Gervais

Gervais — Lawrence Duda, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Duda arrived home Saturday after spending 15 months in the armed forces, stationed in Germany as a cook. He went to Fort Lewis Monday where he will get his discharge.

The first fall meeting of St. Ritas Altar society held Wednesday was attended by 13 members (three of them new) and Rev. Sniderhorn, the pastor. A card social the first of the fall season was planned, to be given Wednesday evening, Oct. 1, at Sacred Heart parish hall, sponsored by the ladies. The parish parties will probably follow every two weeks until advent.

Chris Jorgensen and Ward Manning have been shingling the parish house.

Gervais firemen extinguished a chimney fire at the Donald and Hood home Monday night and a brush fire back of the Dave St. John home Tuesday.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Johnson, Jr., in Canby was the scene of a surprise housewarming Friday night, when a group of friends arrived with gifts and refreshments.

In charge of arrangements were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Priest and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brachmann. Other friends at

Hollywood

ENDS TODAY! "GIRL IN WHITE" "HERE COME THE NELSONS" Starts Tomorrow—Cont. 1:45

H-G-M presents one man's amazing story!

JAMES STEWART CARBINE WILLIAMS JEAN HAGEN WENDELL COREY

JOAN FONTAINE RAY MILLAND GEORGE STEVENS Something To Live For

George Stevens presents

Something To Live For

Something To Live For

Something To Live For

Something To Live For

Something To Live For

Something To Live For

Something To Live For

Something To Live For

Something To Live For

the housewarming were Mr. and Mrs. Parry Rose and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Garmire, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. John Stone and Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Blair Knox and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hrusheim and family, Mr. and Mrs. Burnell Vernon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carroll and Mr. and Mrs. Amos Luginbill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Berkey of Hubbard have purchased a 73-acre farm on the Central Point-Carus road from Mr. and Mrs. John Gelbrich of Lone Elder.

The sale, disclosed this week, was made through the office of L. E. Conrad, broker.

Buford Miller, son of the J. T. Millers of Aurora, recently bought his brother's house and lot on upper Main street.

Severe head lacerations and a fractured right wrist were suffered by Marilyn Welch, 12, son of Mrs. Emil Welch of the Eby district and painful injuries were received by his uncle, Donald Day, 21, of Yoder, in an automobile mishap near Needy Sunday afternoon, en route to the home of Day's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Day.

Pete Ballard of Lone Elder, suffered a left thumb fracture Saturday, while working for John Gelbrich, hop grower.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Harding and son, Jimmie, have returned to their home in Aurora from Madras, Ore. Mr. Harding will join his family here in the near future.

The world land areas have an average population of about 40 people per square mile although many areas have much denser populations and some far less dense.

aid Day, 21, of Yoder, in an automobile mishap near Needy Sunday afternoon, en route to the home of Day's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Day.

Pete Ballard of Lone Elder, suffered a left thumb fracture Saturday, while working for John Gelbrich, hop grower.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Harding and son, Jimmie, have returned to their home in Aurora from Madras, Ore. Mr. Harding will join his family here in the near future.

The world land areas have an average population of about 40 people per square mile although many areas have much denser populations and some far less dense.