Miss Grieve Married Today At St. Vincent's

The St. Vincent de Paul Catholic church was the scene for a pretty wedding this morning when Miss Ottilie Marilyn Grieve, niece of Mrs. Flora A. Donnelly, was married to A-IC Thomas J. Brown, son of Mrs. May A. Brown of Salem and J. E. Brown, now in California.

The 11 o'clock service was solemnized by the Rev. Lowell Blackburn. Lavender and white gladioluses and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the church for the service. Delores Gottfried was soloist.

In Lace and Satin
The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Edward Robert Donnelly. She wore a wedding dress of white nylon lace over heavy white satin with a full overskirt of fine nylon net. The dress was designed with high neckline and a small rolled collar, a row of tiny satin buttons down the front to the waist, and long sleeves with the tiny satin buttons. The fingertip veil was arranged from a cap of nylon lace edged with pearls that looped around the edge of the cap. In memory of her mother, the bride wore her mother's gold locket, and she carried a white prayer book on which was a white orchid.

Miss Joann Brown, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a pastel green nylon net over green tulle. She carried a bouquet of white and lavender gladioluses, tied with ribbon matching her gown. Her headpiece was of flowers matching her bouquet.

Misses Donna Vogt and Patricia Pendergraft were the bridesmaids. Their frocks were lavender net over tulle, identical in style to that of the honor attendant's. Their bouquets were of the white and lavender gladioluses, too, with ribbon matching their dresses, the same flowers making up their headpieces.

Robert E. Brown of Ellensburg, Wash., was best man for his brother, Groomsman were Gene Pfeiffer and Raymond Green. Ushering were Robert Davis, William Godlove, Allen Russell of Brooks and Richard Edwards of Portland.

Go to Washington
For her niece's wedding, Mrs. Donnelly wore a red corded silk dress with white accessories and white flowers. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue crepe dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink tuberous begonias.

The reception was at the Woman's club house. Mrs. Arthur Roethlin, Mrs. Cy Lobb, Mrs. Fred Brown, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. W. B. Russell of Brooks poured. Cutting the cake were Miss Ethel Redden, aunt of the bridegroom, and Miss Vada L. Hill. Assisting were Miss Mary Jo Brown, Miss Sandra Blevin, Miss Betty Lou Beckman, Mrs. R. Hubbard.

For going away the bride wore a gray blue suit with black hat and accessories and corsage of white orchids. Following a trip along the Oregon and Washington coast the couple will be at home at Moses Lake, Wash., Mr. Brown being stationed with the air force there.
