Hopewell

The musical program of the Hopewell EUB church Sunday evening consisted of vocal solos by Mrs. E. J. Kollin, Irvin Widmer, Helen Ojua and Dean Brown. Helen Ojua presented piano solos, and Dean Brown a harmonica solo.

Mrs. Widmer read the story of the origin of the hymn, "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder," and Rev. Widmer gave a scripture reading on song in worship.

Next Sunday at the Hopewell EUB church will be rally day for the Sunday school and world communion service for the morning worship period. A potluck dinner will be served in the basement at noon.

Mrs. Veta Stephens is responsible for the invitations. Mrs. N. O. Pearce for the decorations, and Mrs. David Olke for the coffee.

Sept. 28 was the beginning of a 10-week Sunday school attendance contest, and points will be earned for numbers above last year's average.

Tuesday all day, members of the Hopewell Missionary society will attend a missionary rally at the Lafayette EUB church.

Those planning to go are Mrs. H. E. Widmer, Mrs. Ross Rogers, Mrs. W. O. Moddemeyer and Mrs. N. O. Pearce.

The prayer meeting this week is at the parsonage, with S. C. Waller in charge. Rev. Widmer will be away this week, attending a S.S. evangelistic conference in Spokane, accompanying Rev. Orville Johnson of Philomath church and Rev. H. L. Hines, superintendent of Oregon conference.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Smith and three children of Albany were Sunday afternoon callers at the H. E. Widmer home.

The funeral of Mrs. Gertrude Dryden, sister of Clay Magness, was held at the Hopewell EUB church Monday, Sept. 28. A large gathering of relatives and friends attended the service, conducted by Rev. H. E. Widmer. She had been a lifelong resident of the Wheatland district, though she had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Ida McCafferty in Dayton for the past two years. The burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

Mrs. Carl Pershall of Hamer, Idaho, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lafferty, is now at her home recovering satisfactorily from major surgery.

Miss Bertha Magness is in Salem this week caring for Mrs. Benge, sister of Mrs. Charles Stephens.

Mrs. H. E. Widmer spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Stutsman and son, Ronald, of Woodburn, returning Friday morning.

Mrs. Edward Terrill attended the Oregon Licensed Practical Nurses convention in Portland last Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Dollie McNear of Stayton accompanied her home, and spent the week-end with the Terrills.

Mrs. Hiram Terrill of Sherwood was a Saturday dinner guest of the Terrills. She lived in Hopewell many years, but is now making her home with her son, James LaFollette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy LaFollette, has joined the navy, and reports to Portland Oct. 1, and expects training in San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davidson and family were week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Davidson of Wheatland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Norton of Hayward, Calif., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lafferty. Mr. Horton is a cousin of Mrs. Lafferty.

PTA Convenes At Aumsville

Aumsville — Aumsville PTA held its first regular meeting of the fall Friday, Sept. 26, in the school gym. Alfred Fowler, Boy Scout from Troop 48, presented the flag and Larry Boehme led the flag salute.

Mrs. Harry Way announced the following chairmen for the year; membership, Eileen Mickey; publicity, Gene Siedel; hospitality, Lorraine Mills; health, Ora Boehme; canning, Helen Fowler; refreshments, Violet Pyell.

Giles Fowler, chairman of the playshed committee of last fall reported that the shed was almost completed except for some bracing and that he would need some more volunteer help to finish the work.

Helen Fowler, canning chairman, reported that 169 gallons of beans were canned for the school.

The beans were donated by Elmer Hayes and canned by volunteer help.

They also canned approximately 130 gallons of peaches.

Mrs. Fowler asked that all persons who have canned for the school or those who wish to donate something for the hot lunch program bring it to the school as soon as possible. The reason for the volunteer help and the donations is to maintain the cost of 15 cents per student per day. The school cook is Mrs. Jennie Fry, who is assisted by Mrs. Pedersen.

Laura Bennett and Linda Lee, two local girls who attended 4-H summer school at Corvallis this summer, gave reports on their activities there.

Leonard Lee also gave a report on the 4-H livestock program of the past year. Helen Fowler gave a reading.

The principal, Roy Girod, introduced the following teachers: First grade, Miss Mamie Bostack; second grade, Mrs. Gene Siedel; third grade, Miss Grace Richards; fourth grade, Mrs. Texia Kennes; fifth grade, Mrs. Ruth Schafer; sixth grade, Mrs. Grace Sehon; seventh grade, Miss Donna Reiniger; eighth grade, Mr. Harley Branigan.

Wheatland
