

In the Valley

By MIKE FORRER

Donald

Donald—The Ladies Aid of the Donald Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Mae St. Helens Thursday, Oct. 2. Mrs. Myrtle Anderson and Beane Unsworth both had birthdays and were honored with a handkerchief shower and a birthday cake made by Mrs. Edna Miller.

At the business meeting, plans were discussed for the coming year which is to be held in the basement of the church, Oct. 29.

At Father is in receipt of a letter from his grandson, C. Gordon Haggen, who is in the service and at present stationed in Panama. For the past three months he has been stationed in Greenland. While there, no work was to help keep the time from passing in waiting order. On his way back from Greenland, he visited in both New York and Chicago. He expects to be home about Christmas.

John Felle entertained his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Felle, over the weekend, also his mother, who is over 80.

Mrs. Ruth Matfield attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Bertha Rebecca Sawyer, 74, of Woodburn, Tuesday. Mrs. Sawyer died at a Woodburn nursing home. She had been a Woodburn resident for the past 42 years. Interment was at Belle Park cemetery, Rev. Edward Baldwin being in charge of the service.

Guests in the Thurston Vergen home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Verhaegh.

Mrs. William Quigley has been enjoying the company of her daughter, Anna Hildebrand, the past week. Mrs. Hildebrand lives at Astoria.

W.B.A.'s of Donald lodge No. 13 will hold their regular meeting Thursday evening, Oct. 9, at the Donald hall. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. William Blittich has been ill with pneumonia at her home. However, she is much improved. Saturday evening a gay time was enjoyed by about 100 people at the Baskin club rooms. Mrs. C. A. Blake of Donald was in charge of the program.

Mrs. Aileen Quinn said that it was the first time she had danced in 10 years. Mrs. Ardis Elrife and Mr. Bert Solberg of Donald furnished the music for dancing.

Racette brothers are starting construction this week of an open shed for their cows and several men are employed in the work. They are building up a large dairy on their farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Vargh Manew celebrated their 2nd wedding anniversary by having dinner at the home of Mrs. Manew's daughter, Mrs. Howard Noble of Portland, Sunday, and later they attended a show to round out the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lynd, proprietors of the "Squeeze Inn" in Donald have been entertaining his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lynd, and their daughter and husband and three children. Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Giesman from Vancouver, B. C. They spent four days last week with the Lynds.

Saturday evening, C. A. Blake, the mayor of Donald, is visiting election duties at the city hall when he was suddenly attacked without warning by three men who had just come out of the local tavern. They attacked his face and broke his false teeth, and then went on their way. Mayor Blake is preferring charges against the three.

A number of Donald folks went fishing over the week-end and down on the coast. Included were: Barney Feller and Ed Karschman, who got their fish; Paul Singer and his son Paul went down to Pacific City Sunday but they were unsuccessful.

Mr. and Mrs. Lin Cronmeyer, proprietors of the Donald garage, left Thursday, October 2, for eastern Oregon, where they hope to get a deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Feller had as their guests over the week-end, Mrs. Feller's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper of Crawfordville.

Idanha

Idanha—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Monroe have returned from a two weeks vacation trip in Idaho and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Haseman and Mrs. and Mrs. R. C. Haseman hunted last week-end in the Bend area.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller are the parents of a nine pound baby girl, their second daughter, born Sunday, October 5, at the Salem Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Huber Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Alvin and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Alvin spent the week-end hunting near Burns.

Another hunting party in eastern Oregon included Kenny Burk, Vern Falkner and Al Butler.

Gates

Gates—Members of the Gates Parent-Teachers Association held the first meeting of the fall Thursday evening in the recreation rooms of the high school.

Mrs. Kenneth Marling presided at the business session. Other officers are Mrs. William Pennick, vice president; Mrs. Elmer Stewart, secretary; Mrs. Charles Tucker, treasurer; Don Wiley, Mrs. Pennick and Mrs. Verma Evans who were in charge of the program read and discussed the five bills pertaining to schools which will come before the people at the November election.

Hostesses for the evening were the teachers of the schools, who served refreshments at the close of the program. The next regular meeting of the association will be held the evening of the first Thursday in October at the school.

The Gates Girl Scouts, troop 22, were over the week-end guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. Vester Mills and daughter, Jean, of Cone Bay. Two carloads of girls, accompanied by two Boy Scouts were taken to the coast by Mrs. Walter Thomas and Mrs. Edward Thomas, leader and assistant.

They camped overnight at Sunset State Park, enjoyed a crab dinner given by their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Mills and daughter.

Those making the trip were Ellen and Roberta Thomas, Juanita and Aloha Thomas, Donnie Oiler, Susan Gordon, Sherry Shiner, Joan Hall, Louise Hawn and Billy Matgar. Boy Scouts were Ous Chance and Walter Thomas, Jr.

George Arburs returned home Saturday from Spokane, Wash., where he had spent the week visiting the homes of his brothers, Ray and James Arburs.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Burgess from Klamath Falls were guests at the home of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Devine, the last of the week. They also visited relatives in Mill City and Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Boring have returned to Gates to make their home after having resided in Mill City for several months. They have rented the Helvey home here.

The freshmen class of the high school entertained the other classes of the high school, Friday evening in the gymnasium. Games, dancing and plenty of good eats were the order of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hutchinson returned Thursday from a two week vacation spent in California. Mrs. M. B. Peetz, of Oakland accompanied them home and will make an extended visit here at the Hutchinson home. Mrs. Peetz is Mrs. Hutchinson's mother.

Guests the first of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Struckmeier were her daughter and family of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stutzman and two sons, Billie and Jimmie, of Portland. Arriving at the Struckmeier home Saturday for a visit were his brother-in-law and his sister, Dr. and Mrs. Van Bilyeu, from La-Guna Beach, Calif.

Several Gates folk have been and are on the sick list the past weeks. Clarence Johnson, who has been confined to his bed at home for several weeks following a heart attack, is reported to be much better but still bedfast.

Mrs. Harry Keiser has been ill for the past two weeks and under a doctor's care at her home, but is reported to be much improved.

Billie Heath, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Heath, who fell and broke his leg above the knee is still hospitalized at the Salem Memorial. Billie fell while playing leapfrog and will be in a cast and under tension for at least two weeks longer.

Ed Davis, hospitalized for the past week who was scheduled to undergo surgery Tuesday of last week, the operation was postponed until the condition was checked.

Mr. and Mrs. George Glise have as their guests her mother, Mrs. Ida May Little from Romoland, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Arnold of Compton, Calif. Mrs. Little will remain at her daughter's home while Mr. and Mrs. Arnold visit other parts of Oregon.

Mayor Ray Lord and councilman, Walter Brabin, Albert Millap, and Floyd Volkel have

Jefferson

Jefferson—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shinn at an Albany hospital Thursday, a son weighing 7 lbs. 11 oz. He has been named Paul Alan. He has three brothers.

The regular meeting of the P.T.A. will be held Thursday night, Oct. 9, in the high school building. Panel discussions will be on the program on legislative measures pertaining to schools. Those participating in the discussion will be D. V. Olds, school administrator; Dr. W. L. Van Loan of Corvallis and Mrs. Agnes Booth, currently school superintendent. School policies will also be discussed by D. V. Olds. Mrs. Charles Smith is head of the refreshment committee.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cochran returned from their trip to Fairfield, Iowa, where they were called on account of her uncle's death. They visited their son Charles and other relatives. They came here by way of Wyoming, stopping two days at Casper.

The Jefferson Women's club will have the first meeting of the new year on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 9, at 2:30, in the library rooms in the city hall. Mrs. Mabel Robertson will be principal speaker and will tell of her trip to Europe. Mrs. Earl Stewer and Mrs. John Terhune of Salem, Mrs. Roland Wall of Albany and Mrs. J. G. Pace of Jefferson are the hostesses for the occasion.

Leonard Morris is in the Salem Memorial hospital. He was leading a truck at a plywood mill in Alaska and jumped from the truck, falling and breaking his arm in several places.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Blalock have moved to central Oregon and are building a house at Terrabon. They formerly lived on the Bob Hart place.

Claud W. Tharp of Salem is the new barber at Roland's shop while Roy Williams is taking a vacation.

Patricia Marie Kilgore and Dwayne Madison Donovan, both of Jefferson, were quietly married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hutchings. Judge Hutchings performed the double ring ceremony. Miss Jeanie DeVaney and Glen were witnesses.

Miss Carol Chisholm and Dan Lloyd Barry were married at the home of Judge Marvin Hutchings, who performed the double ring ceremony. They were both from Albany. Mrs. Tom Temple and Wayne Norman were witnesses.

Mrs. Blakes, whose attention had been diverted from the tractor for a moment, was halted from backing further by a horrified onlooker.

The child was taken to a doctor, and although bleeding from the mouth, no skull fracture was found.

Jerome Lamm (Father Timothy) who studied at St. Martin's Seminary, Olympia, Wash., is now taking a course in theology at St. Angel college.

The Lamm family are former residents of Sublimity.

The Junior Girl Foresters met Thursday evening. Plans were started for their booth at the fall bazaar.

Mrs. Ed Walter, secretary, is sending cards for the first fall meeting of the St. Boniface high parents' association to be held in the club room Thursday evening, Oct. 9, at 7:30 p. m.

Nick J. Heuberg is president of the association.

Sublimity

Sublimity—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Luber were the inspiration for a surprise party Saturday evening, when a group of relatives and friends greeted them on their silver wedding anniversary.

Those making up the party were the parents of the honored couple, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Doerflinger, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Luber, others were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Doerflinger, Mr. and Mrs. Don Blakes, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Luber, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Luber, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Cramer, Mr. and Mrs. John Heuberg, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Heuberg, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Kramer, Misses Jane Schumacher and Sharon Meier and Mr. Jack Norman and members of the family.

Mrs. Charley Van Handle was hit by a car and hospitalized with a possible leg fracture and possible internal injuries while crossing a street in Portland. She was taken to Providence hospital where her condition was reported to be fair.

According to the driver of the car who struck her down in a crosswalk, his vision was blocked by a car passing in front of him.

A large number of people attended the Bazaar dinner at Jordan Sunday.

The Altar Society held its first meeting of the fall season with a good crowd in attendance. Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Joe Wolf and Mrs. Joe Heuberg were on the serving committee.

Kathleen Ann is the name given the new arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stuckard. The girl has two brothers and one sister. Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Stuckard and Mr. and Mrs. S. Smith of St. Paul are the grandparents.

Freshman class initiation was held at the high school Friday.

A near-fatal accident occurred Wednesday afternoon when Don Blakes backed up his tractor near his gas tank. Young Wally, 4-year-old son of the Blakes, who had run behind the tractor, was thrown and one wheel struck his head, inflicting serious bruises to his arm, head and face.

Mr. Blakes, whose attention had been diverted from the tractor for a moment, was halted from backing further by a horrified onlooker.

The child was taken to a doctor, and although bleeding from the mouth, no skull fracture was found.

Jerome Lamm (Father Timothy) who studied at St. Martin's Seminary, Olympia, Wash., is now taking a course in theology at St. Angel college.

The Lamm family are former residents of Sublimity.

The Junior Girl Foresters met Thursday evening. Plans were started for their booth at the fall bazaar.

Mrs. Ed Walter, secretary, is sending cards for the first fall meeting of the St. Boniface high parents' association to be held in the club room Thursday evening, Oct. 9, at 7:30 p. m.

Nick J. Heuberg is president of the association.

Detroit

Detroit—Mr. and Mrs. Ota White spent the week-end in Eugene, where they visited their son and daughter, James and Marlene, who are attending school there.

Mrs. Carrie Mason has returned from Tacoma, Wash., where she spent several weeks with her son John, who is receiving treatment at a clinic for multiple sclerosis patients.

J. R. Nuttbrock home. The officers are: Mrs. Guy Remme, president; Mrs. J. R. Nuttbrock, vice president; Mrs. William Ditto, secretary; Mrs. Frank Foster, treasurer.

Mrs. Abrahamson led the devotional period.

"Solems Number One DANCE BAND" ARNIE MANKE & HIS ORCHESTRA PHONE 2-7966

DISTINGUISHED ARTIST SERIES WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

Season Tickets Now 4 GRAND CLASSICS

JAN PEECE—Tenor
MARIAN ANDERSON
Ana Maria's Spanish Ballet
JOSEPH SZIGETI—Violinist

SEASON TICKETS NOW ON SALE
Adult Reserve: Est. Price $7.20
Adult Reserve: Est. Price $6.00
Student Section: Est. Price $4.80

SEASON TICKETS AT STEVENS & SON
★ JAN PEECE Concert date has been changed from November 3 to November 5

Gervais

Gervais high school ag teachers, a group of FFA boys, a Woodburn teacher and group of boys from the Woodburn high school went to Portland to attend the Pacific International Livestock show Saturday, where they spent the day.

A carnival will be held at Gervais union high school Friday and Saturday evenings, Oct. 10-11 at 8 o'clock. Booths and prizes were announced.

The carnival is being sponsored by the student body.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steger and daughters visited Mrs. Steger's niece, Mrs. Jack Day, Mr. Day and their new daughter in Oregon City Sunday.

Mrs. Bruce Thell and two children, her mother, Mrs. Clark and her brother, Albert, visited in Roseburg recently. They also called on the LeRoy Gardners at Myrtle Creek, while in that part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Messick are back in Salem after spending some time in Arizona.

The ladies of St. Ritas Altar society will meet at the parish hall kitchen Wednesday at 2 p.m. with Mrs. Clyde Outforth, Mrs. Ray McCormick and Mrs. M. Vachters hostesses.

ing from eastern Oregon with two deer.

Marion Gresham and John Spinnick and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rich are others who left on hunting expeditions.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Foss and daughter, Carol, of Sidney, Mont., are visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Patter and children who live on Abiqua road.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Potter have purchased the Moser Ranch on Crooked Finger road. The Mosers will move to Silverton.

Mrs. Raymond Heiple and daughter Ellen visited at the home of Mrs. Heiple's mother, Mrs. Gladys Hurst, Sunday.

OPEN 4:45 P.M.
Rita Hayworth
Glenn Ford
"AFFAIR IN TRINIDAD"

—Frankie Lane
RAINBOW
ROUND MY SHOULDER

GRAND Continuous
Ann Rlych
"SALLY AND ST. ANNE"

—Mickey Rooney
"SOUND OFF"

STATE
OPEN 4:45 P.M.
A night in a
Geisha House
"GEISHA GIRL"

—Tom Neal
"DALTON'S WOMEN"

THE SALEM DRIVE-IN Theatre
27829
GATES OPEN 4:15
SHOW AT 7:15
Starts Tonight (Wed.)
"WE'RE NOT MARRIED"
A host of stars
—Plus—
"RED RIVER"
John Wayne
Montgomery Clift
—Tune In—
1 FLIKO 1
This new movie quiz
game is up to $125
Plus merchandise awards
See a show from your car!
Open Rain or Shine!

HELD OVER! CAPITOL
3-5050
MAT. DAILY FROM 1 P.M.

BURT LANCASTER
The CRIMSON PIRATE
with EVA BARTOK
CO-HIT: "ASSASSIN FOR HIRE" SYDNEY PALMER

Scotts Mills

Scotts Mills—Mr. and Mrs. Don Galbraith and sons recently installed the first television set in this community. The Galbraith home is a popular place. Mr. and Mrs. Keilis were next to obtain television here.

The Raymond Moles hunting party returned Monday morn-

SEARS WATCH THIS SPACE

FOR OUR DAILY FLOOR COVERING SPECIALS!

Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back SEARS Phone 3-9191 In the Capitol Shopping Center

DANCE

Wednesday 9 P.M.

OLD-TIME AND MODERN Music by Pop Edwards and His Music
Take Her Dancing Wed. at the

CRYSTAL GARDENS

74c

HOLLYWOOD

STARTS TODAY—4:45

TONY CURTIS-PIPER LAURIE
NO ROOM FOR THE GROOM
DON DEFORE
—TOP CO-FEATURE—
JOEL TYVONNE
MCCREA DeCARLO
THE SAN FRANCISCO STORY
WARNER BROS.

THE HOTEL SENATOR COFFEE SHOP

Takes Pleasure in Announcing the Addition of

CHEF RUSSELL SMITH

Who is bringing to the people of Salem a more diversified and finer menu.

OPEN 6:30 A.M. to 9 P.M. WEEKDAYS
7 A.M. to 9 P.M. SUNDAYS

CARAVAN OF STARS IN PERSON

WOODY HERMAN
AND HIS NEW THIRD HORN ORCHESTRA
FEATURING DOLLY HOUSTON
URBIE GREEN

DINAH WASHINGTON
"MERCURY RECORDS
QUEEN OF THE JUKE BOXES"

LOU DALEY
"MR. EVERYBODY"

HAROLD KING
"ROLLING RHYTHM"

SALEM HI AUDITORIUM
TUES., OCT. 14
Tickets $1.20 & $1.40
Downtown Record Shops

MT. ANGEL THEATRE

Marciano vs. Walcott Fight Pictures!
Wed.-Thurs., Oct. 8-9

with James Mason and Danielle Darvieu in "FIVE FINGERS"

Fight pictures 7:25 & 9:40