Buena Vista

Twenty five members met at the Buena Vista community hall for polluck dinner for the Farmers Union October meeting. Mrs. John Kosanka and Mrs. Jonas Graber were "Kitchen Queens." Walt Steele, manager of Rickreall cooperative and Bruce Strawn of Pacific Supply Co. were guests and supplied the program with a report of business so far this year at the co-op in Rickreall. They outlined how to make more, and receive more dividends, after which Strawn showed three rolls of films, "Pointed Day and Jupiters Help," "Wheat Smut," and a comedy "Crows Corn."

The nominating committee presented the names for new officers who were elected for the coming year. These include those serving this year. President, Fred Detering; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. C. F. Wells. The group voted to pay the registration fee at the state conventions each year.

A vote of "thanks" was given to Cecil Hultman and Victor Bride for wood donated for the hall.

A committee was appointed to buy material for a new porch. Members are Elmer Busby, G. Loy and Harold Withrow.

An invitation to attend a county meeting October 8 at Mt. Pisgah with polluck dinner was read. The speaker will explain "Crop Insurance."

A meeting will be held at the hall October 16 at 8 p.m. when Marvin Shear, engineer of survey work, will give an estimate on the irrigation project.

Fred Detering was elected to represent this local at Dallas Oct. 15 to consider permanent buildings for Polk county fair grounds.

Next meeting will be held earlier than the regular time as speakers on the measures to be voted on November 4 will be featured. Date will be announced later.

"Kitchen Queens" will be Mrs. Allie McLaughlin, Mrs. Elmer Busby, and Mrs. C. O. Johnson; Carrie Withrow, Gib Loy and Cecil Hultman will obtain speakers and arrange time for the meeting.

Fourteen members and three guests answered roll call at the first fall meeting of Buena Vista Womens club in the community hall Wednesday. A letter from Dick Loy was read in which he thanked the club for his scholarship at the 4-H summer school at Oregon State college. It was voted to pay for material for the new porch, which the farmers union will build. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Clara Wells and Mrs. Walter Lierman. Guests were Mrs. Howard Wells and Mrs. Dane Purvine of Corvallis and Mrs. Maud Johnson.

Members present were Mesdames Kate Bride, Harriet Busby, Henrietta Busby, Lula Fickle, Clair Graber, Elma Hultman, Leon Long, Leon Loy, Minnie Osborn, Evadna Prather, Hazel Wells, Clara Wells, Carrie Withrow and Elizabeth Lierman.
