Northwest's Best Pitted Against Carnera

When former world's heavy-weight boxing champion Primo Carnera and his bodyguard, Hardy Krusich, enter the Salem armory ring in a battle royal Tuesday night, they'll have six of the best wrestlers in the Northwest to compete with.

They include Tony Ross, Judo Jack Terry, Jack Kiser, Cal Roberts and Eric (The Great Pederson).

And, as if that wasn't enough for one card, matchmaker Elton Owen has added a special event between Art Kaplan and Jungle Boy.

The management has announced it does not like to raise prices for any attraction, but is forced to Tuesday because of the heavy guarantee for Carnera and the limited capacity of the Salem armory.

General admission will be $1.50 (children 75 cents) and ringside $2. Fans may pick up ringside tickets at the armory during the day Tuesday and avoid standing in line.

Harrison Wins Reno Golf Meet With 271 Score

Reno (AP)—E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Ardmore, Okla., shot a 17-under-par 271 to win the 72-hole Northern California-Reno Open golf championship Sunday.

Harrison overcame a three-stroke deficit in the final round to edge Smiley Quick of Los Angeles for $1,000 first money. Teamed with amateur Bill Ebert, San Francisco, he had picked up $500 by winning the pro-amateur best ball tourney.

Quick, who entered the final round with 86-70-63, went two over par 74 for a total of 273—good for $750 second money.

Harrison's rounds were 69-67-66-69.

Ed Porky Oliver, Lemont, Ill., was Sunday's best golfer, carding a 66 for 276 and a three-way tie for third with Eric Monti, Pasadena, and Jerry Barber, Pasadena. Each got $483.66.

Giardello Meets Giambra in New York Tonight

New York (AP)—Joey Giardello of Philadelphia and Joey Giambra of Buffalo, N. Y., a pair of ambitious young middleweights, clash Monday night in a 10-round feature bout at Eastern Parkway arena.

Giardello was an 8-5 favorite for the scrap, which will be televised in many eastern cities. The Philadelphian has recently risen to ninth ranking in the division after wins over Billy Graham, Georgia Small, and Pierre Langlois.

Giambra has 27 victories in 28 fights, including 18 knockouts.

Oregon Cowboy Wins In Madison Square

New York (AP)—Ross Dollarhide, of Lakeview, Ore., won the saddle bronc riding contest and placed third in the calf roping event during Saturday night's session of the rodeo at Madison Square Garden. Gene Pruett of Yakima, Wash., was first in steer wrestling. He was timed in an even six seconds.

Mathias Had Football With Handle—Really

Palo Alto, Calif. (AP) — Know why Bob Mathias, who seemed well on the way to a fumbling record, didn't boot the ball once Saturday?

Stanford's defensive team — which has done a lot of extra work this fall because Boomer Bob fumbled the ball into opponents' hands—gave Mathias a football with a handle. No kidding.

Two weeks ago Mathias' fumbles set up two Washington State touchdowns. A week ago, Bob fumbled five times.

So Friday, on the eve of the Oregon State game, Stanford's defensive captain Al Kirkland, smiling wryly, handed offensive captain Jim Vick a package.

Inside, a football with a handle.

Vick, quick on the uptake, handed the ball-handle first of course, to Mathias. Bob grinned. "Thanks, I promise I won't fumble"—and didn't.

Father Kills Son in Deer Hunt

Klamath Falls, Ore. (AP)—A grief-stricken father Monday mourned the death of his son who he accidentally shot while hunting on Big Aspen mountain about 30 miles west of here.

Dead was 23-year-old Richard Andrew Moore, Klamath Falls car salesman, who was shot Sunday by his father, Vernon Moore about 11:20 a.m.

Spartans Hold Longest Win Streak--18 Games

New York (AP)—With the unceremonious demise of Princeton, the mighty Spartans from Michigan State today owned the longest winning streak in college football—18 games—and they show no signs of letting up there.

Maryland and Georgia Tech each have gone through 18 games without a defeat, but they've been tied.

Michigan State still has six times to play so it's rather early to be predicting another undefeated season for them, but if they perform in the manner they did Saturday in hanging a 48-6 pasting on Texas A and M, their future opponents are not going to look to the Spartan games with any enthusiasm.

State still has to meet, in order, Syracuse, Penn State, Purdue, Indiana, Notre Dame and Marquette.

Until it took a 22-19 beating from Pitt, Notre Dame probably would have been regarded as a threat to Biggie Munn's lads, who next year start operations in the Big Ten. But the Irish looked bad against the Panthers.

Maryland and Georgia Tech continue to roll along, and neither should be pressed to any great extent this week against respectively, Navy and Auburn. The Terps polished off Georgia, 37-0, and Tech topped Tulane, 14-0, Saturday.

California, which has piled up a staggering 152 points in four games, seems assured of winning the Pacific Coast Conference title, although it still must get past Southern California and UCLA.

Wisconsin, the class of the Big Ten, and No. 1 team in the country in last week's AP poll, was the victim of the biggest upset of the season Saturday. Ohio State soundly passed the Badgers, 23-14.

That made it a brand new race in the Big Ten, although there still is nothing to prevent Wisconsin from winning it. On paper, the Badgers still can field the most potent squad in the loop. However as of today, Purdue which trounced Iowa, 41-14, in its last outing, stands at the head of the class with a 2-0 league record.

Princeton's 13-7 defeat at the hands of Penn, strangely, was not a surprise. The Quakers were known to be power the services of the graduated Dick Kazamaler, was an unknown quantity. Penn now should have no trouble sweeping to the league crown, held the last two years by the Tl-

The Kansas-Oklahoma-Nebraska battle for the big Seven probably ended Saturday when Nebraska's hard luck kid, Bobby Reynolds, was hurt during the manhandling Texas, 49-20, and Kansas annihilating Iowa State, 43-0.

In the traditionally mixed up Southwest Conference, things are traditionally mixed up. There isn't an undefeated team in the loop, which leaves things right back where they were in the beginning of the season, with defending champion Texas Christian still the choice by default.

The Horned Frogs go against Texas A and M this week. The conference goes into full-scale operations Saturday, so the picture should be cleared somewhat in a week or two.

In the Rocky Mountain Conference, the eventual champion probably will be decided this week when Idaho State and Colorado State, the two top powers, tangle at Pocatello. Houston is the surprise leader in the Missouri Valley, after clobbering the defending champion University of Tulsa, 33-7.

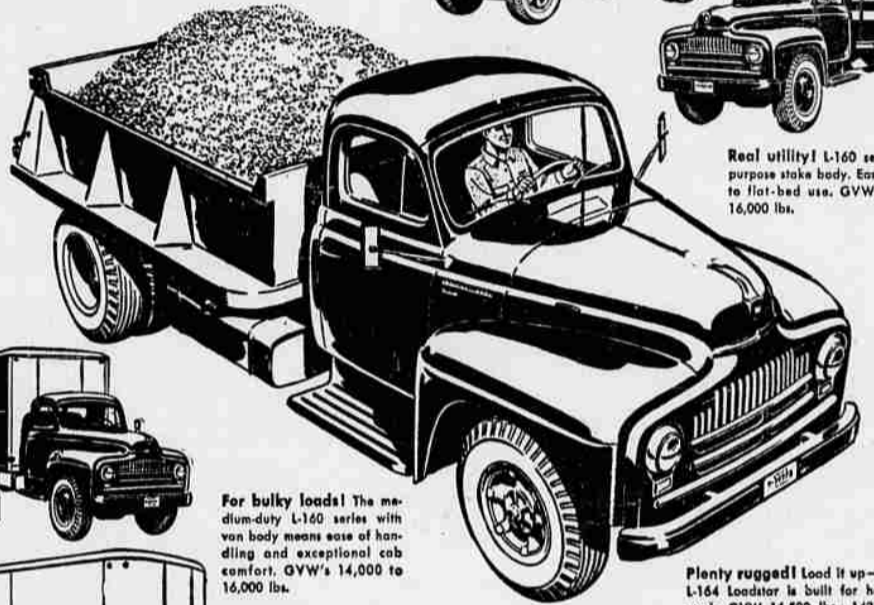

Georgia Tech might get a tussle from Alabama and Tennessee for the Southeastern loop title, while Duke heads the Southern Conference, although Virginia remains unbeaten, too.

USERS REPORT: "Half the wear, twice the mileage"

It used to be that engines at work for Timber Products Company, Medford, Oregon, showed wear of .016" to .020" after 75,000 miles of service. Then came today's Heavy Duty RPM Motor Oil, and just .008" wear after 130,000 miles... or as the lumberman himself says it, "By using 'RPM' we get half the wear in twice the mileage." Cut your repair costs, and get better performance. Spend the money you save on things that are more fun to buy.
