

USC-UCLA Tilt Regarded Nation's Game of the Year

By JOHN GRIFFIN

New York (U.P.)—Hour by hour, as excitement mounts in the city of Los Angeles, Saturday's Southern California-UCLA battle looks more and more like football's game of the year.

The game will lure the season's biggest crowd, 101,403, to Los Angeles Memorial Stadium. Fans in that city are calling it the "game of the century" and are paying scalpers as much as $50 for a ticket. What's more, the game will be nationally televised.

The teams are so evenly paired that oddsmakers have called it even money. It's the last game of the year for UCLA and a victory will complete perfect record. But Southern Cal still must face the old rival Notre Dame next week.

While the PCC settles its title in one spectacular show, the Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl teams will be decided by three different games—Ohio State-Michigan, Wisconsin-Minnesota, and Purdue-Indiana.

Michigan and Wisconsin are tied for the league lead and that means either can win the title by winning its game while the other loses. But oddsmakers foresee both winning, Michigan by one point and Wisconsin by 13. That would end the race in a tie and the Rose Bowl team would be picked by ballot of the Big Ten schools on Monday.

Minnesota can cop the crown by winning if Michigan, Wisconsin, and Purdue all lose. If Minnesota and Purdue win and Michigan loses, it will end in a tie.

Oklahoma can win the Big Seven championship by whipping Nebraska, and Duke can win the Southern Conference title by beating North Carolina. Both are heavy favorites.

Alabama, hopeful of getting an Orange Bowl bid, would almost certainly earn that prize if it can hand mighty Maryland, upset last week by Mississippi, its second straight loss after 22 wins. Syracuse, also an Orange Bowl hopeful, will try to stay in the running by beating Fordham. And both Penn State and Pitt will have their minds on bowl bids in their traditional battle.

Neither bowls nor championships will be involved in the Harvard-Yale clash at Cambridge, Mass., but a tough, hard game is in prospect in football's most storied rivalry.

Other leading games Saturday include:

East: Princeton, second in the Ivy League, tries to keep its title hopes flickering against Dartmouth while leading Penn is idle. Columbia meets Brown in the same league and other top games are Villanova-Boston U., Holy Cross-Temple, and Rutgers-NYU.

South: Bowdoin Georgia Tech tries to clear next-to-last obstacle to perfect season, Florida State, while Tennessee, Tech's chief rival for Southeastern Conference title, faces Kentucky. Other top games: South Carolina-West Virginia, Clemson-Auburn, Florida-Miami, William and Mary-North Carolina State, and Tulane-Louisiana College.

Midwest: Kansas favored over Missouri in oldest rivalry west of Mississippi River. Others: Illinois-Northwestern, Iowa-Notre Dame, and Kansas State-Iowa State.

Southwest: SMU will try to keep hopes of Southern Conference title alive by beating Baylor. Oklahoma Aggies meet Washington State in day's top intercollegiate. Others: Rice-Texas Christian, Tulsa-Arkansas.

Far West: California-Stanford and Oregon State-Oregon.

A very slim schedule of games is in prospect Friday night with Richmond meeting George Washington in Southern Conference game and Utah State playing Denver in the Skyline Conference.

Lincolns Lead Stock Division Pan-Am Race

Mexico City (U.P.)—The 61 automobiles remaining in the third annual Pan-American road race headed Friday for Leon, some 276 miles from this city, with Giovanni Bracco of Italy showing the way to the drivers of sports cars and Chuck Stevenson of Lynwood, Calif., in the van of the stock car pilots.

Bracco, driving a 1952 Ferrari, rolled into the Mexican capital Thursday with an elapsed time of 7:44.31 for the first three laps covering 671 miles of the 1,934 mile course ending at Juarez.

The Italian driver took over the lead after France's Jean Behra, the first day's pace setter, smashed up on a treacherous curve 50 miles from Puebla.

The stock car division, largely of drivers and automobiles from the United States, remained a nip-and-tuck affair with only 37 seconds separating the first three. The four leaders are driving Lincolns.

Stevenson chalked up an 8:42.22 clocking in the two days for a 20-second advantage over Walter Faulkner of Long Beach, Calif.

Two Oregon drivers were still in the running in the stock car division. Herschel McGriff of Portland, driving a 1952 Oldsmobile, was in 13th place with a time of 9:03.51. Bob Christie of Grants Pass held down the 37th position with an elapsed time of 10:40.27. He is driving a 1952 Nash.

McDevitt Named President Men's Golf Club

Chuck McDevitt was elected president of the Salem Men's golf club at a dinner meeting of that organization at Salem Golf club last night.

Bob DeArmond was named vice-president, and Dick Hendrie secretary-treasurer.

In the nine hole sweepstakes preceding the dinner meeting, evangelist Don Spillman, playing from scratch, showed the boys why he carried no handi-cap. He shot a 30-34-64.

Welcome, Champ!

Mayor Elmer Robinson (left) of San Francisco raises Rocky Marciano's hand as he welcomes the heavyweight champ to the Pacific coast. Rocky, who was handed keys to the city, was here to referee a bout between leading middleweight contenders Carl (Bobo) Olson and Lee Sala.

Little Mo, Julie in Gals' Finals

Sydney, Australia (U.P.)—Mau-reen Connolly and Julie Samp-son made it an All-American women's final in the New South Wales tennis tournament by winning their semifinal matches Friday.

Miss Connolly, U.S. champion from San Diego, beat Beryl Penrose, 6-4, 6-4, while Miss Sampson from San Marino, Calif., eliminated Mary Hawton, first seeded Australian, 6-2, 6-2.

OSC-Oregon Tilt Expected To Draw 25,000

Portland (U.P.)—The football game that means as much to the kids at Oregon and Oregon State as the Harvard-Yale or Army-Navy clashes do to others is expected to draw 25,000 fans in Multnomah stadium Saturday.

Both teams are primed for the game. And although both have poor records this season, the record book will be thrown away once the whistle blows at 1:30.

It's the 56th time Oregon and OSC have met. Oregon has 27 victories, OSC has 21 and there have been seven ties. But since the war, the Beavers have dominated the series.

Oregon is a slight favorite on the basis of last week's performances.

Many seniors will be playing their final games, including such stars as Sam Baker, rated the finest fullback in OSC history, and Monte Brethauer, Oregon's line end who is among the top pass receivers in the country.
