

In the Valley

Edited by MIKE FORBES

Silverton

Silverton—Results of the past week's meeting of the board of directors of Silverton school district No. 4, will be to recommend a plan whereby the parents of truant pupils will be brought before the board to "clarify the case." This is being done to give the child aid in counseling and solving his difficulties at home and in school. Hannah Olsen, a primary teacher here for many years, is to serve as visiting teacher with attendance officer authority.

The Martin Weisbacks recently from Colyer, Kans., will be complimented guests at a family reunion on Thanksgiving day. Mrs. John Pfeifer and Mrs. Robert Eberle, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Weisback, are arranging the affair. The new home for the couple is under construction in Pine street.

The Chris Christensons and their niece, Miss Carlene Christenson of Sherwood, N.D., are visiting at the home of a brother, Magnus Christenson, having arrived in Silverton Friday.

Mrs. Ed Lambert of Silverton, whose son, Ronald, attends the Mt. Angel schools, was elected and installed secretary-treasurer of the prep school Mothers' Club of which Mrs. Ed Unger is president, and Mrs. Albert Edner, vice-president. The officers are planning a father-son banquet Sunday, November 30.

Recent visitors at the Robert Scott home have been the family of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dodge and Biff and Danny of Dallas.

Vic Grosnickle has announced that the Silverton Athletic club has been organized with Grosnickle, Carl Budeau and Monte DePeel in charge. Physical culture, boxing, wrestling and weight lifting will be taught. Harold Kottre, Portland boxer, is a portage of the club.

Grand Island

Mrs. Jack Bovard a former resident of Grand Island, died suddenly of a heart attack while on a train in Wyoming en route to visit her mother and brothers at Detroit, Mich., Wednesday, Nov. 12.

Mrs. Bovard resided at the Roy E. Will farm in the Grand Island district for three years later moving to Albany where they operated a grocery store. She was prominent in local civic and church activities.

Mrs. Jack Bovard a former resident of Grand Island, died suddenly of a heart attack while on a train in Wyoming en route to visit her mother and brothers at Detroit, Mich., Wednesday, Nov. 12.

Mrs. Bovard resided at the Roy E. Will farm in the Grand Island district for three years later moving to Albany where they operated a grocery store. She was prominent in local civic and church activities.

Parking Meter Vandal Fined

Lebanon—A $100 fine, with $50 suspended, was imposed by Judge Ruby Moore in municipal court this week to Duane Spencer of Lebanon, on charges of breaking a city parking meter. Police Chief Ben Scheele said the youth was caught using a hammer and said he was attempting to get extra time by hitting the handle a sharp blow after depositing his penny. The meter broke.

The chief called attention to the city ordinance making destruction of any public property a misdemeanor, punishable by fines up to $200 and up to 100 days jail sentence.

Other fines were assessed against Arthur Zerkl and Robert G. Cate for violation of the basic rule; Mrs. J. J. Bilyer, Sweet Home, for being intoxicated in a car; Joe H. Yearous and James Smith on charges of failing to halt at a stop sign.

Police were informed by Lowell Clark that someone stole a camera, cigarettes and two wool blankets from his car while it was parked in an unlocked garage at Second and Ash Sts.

David Hunt, Salem, was fined for being drunk in a public place.

Amity

Edward Noffsinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Noffsinger, has recently visited his parents in Amity and his wife in McMinville, on a 12-day leave from Camp Roberts, Calif.

He left recently for Camp Stoneman and expects soon to be on his way to Korea. He is in the U. S. army.

Mrs. and Mr. J. A. Gibbs attended a turkey dinner Tuesday evening honoring Hugh Lewis, grand patriarch. The dinner was served at 6:30 p.m. Lewis paid his official visit to Shafer encampment.

Mrs. and Mr. Harold Lehman and small daughter, Kathryn Mae, and Mrs. M. J. Lehman, left Sunday afternoon on a trip to Martinez, Calif., for a visit with Mrs. M. J. Lehman's son and family, the Merwin Lehman's.

Gates

Gates—Mrs. Harold Wilson is hospitalized at the Salem Memorial hospital following major surgery performed Monday morning. At latest reports she was doing as well as could be expected. She will remain in the hospital for at least a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haun were in Portland Monday to be with their daughter, Louise, who underwent surgery at the Doernbecher hospital Monday morning. Louise has been in poor health for some time and was bedfast for months a year ago with rheumatic fever. She is a student in the local school.

Mrs. Don Carey of Stayton spent the past week here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson, caring for her mother, who is ill.

Recent guests at the Warren Varcoe home were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Butler from Anchorage, Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brislin left Wednesday of last week for an extended trip through California. They visited in Klamath Falls en route.

Mr. and Mrs. John Toothman are new residents at the Oak Park motel. Mrs. Toothman will take over the management of the motel in place of Mrs. Warren Varcoe, who plans to leave soon on a trip east.

Saturday Mrs. Don Miley and Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson drove to Eugene where they were to participate in the Toastmistress' Council, which was to be held in the Osborne hotel in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson left Sunday morning for central Oregon on a combined business and pleasure trip. Prineville was their former home. They have many friends in that area.

Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Cole and son, Thurlo, were over Sunday visitors in Molalla at the K. Taylor home.

Mrs. Clarence Rush returned home Saturday evening from a week's stay in Salem at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rush. Mrs. Rush was caring for her daughter-in-law, who was ill.

Glen Henness, Lowell Fleetwood, Clare Henness and Clarence Rush formed a bird hunting party over the week-end. They motored to Burns and on to Lakeview. The trip was very successful and they returned with several ducks and geese.

Mrs. Glen Henness and son, Earle, accompanied by Mrs. Clare Henness and daughter, Kandy, and Miss Eida Webster, spent Sunday in Dallas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor. Mrs. Taylor is Mrs. Henness' mother and a former resident of Gates.

The 4-H sewing class under the leadership of Mrs. William Pennick held election of officers at the last meeting, with the following officers elected: president, Ann Marie Hirte; vice president, Roberta Chance; secretary-treasurer, Donaltee Oliver; song leader, Carol Sue Ball; yell leader, Joan Hull, and reporter, Connie Stewart. The next meeting of the class will be held at the home of Joan Hull, Thursday afternoon, Dec. 4.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pennick and two children spent the week-end in Jefferson as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clausie Ammon.

Sublimity

James Nightingale was called to White Lake, S.D., because of the serious illness of his mother. Word was later received that his aged mother, Mrs. Edith Nightingale, 85, had passed away shortly after his departure. Mr. and Mrs. John Nightingale of Stayton accompanied him on the trip.

Mrs. Bernard J. Minden left Thursday for Seattle to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Mary Maxson. A brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Schotthoefer, also went north for the funeral. They returned home Monday evening.

Mrs. Adam Susbauer is convalescing at her home after a siege of pleurisy and pneumonia. Jacob Frank is reported improving after being seriously ill the past 10 days. A daughter, Sister M. Marcine of Tillamook, was a visitor at the parental home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Curt Wilson of Eureka, Calif., have purchased the Leonard Frank home and have moved in recently. They have a small child. Mrs. Wilson is a daughter of the Clarence Ecks.

The Women's Catholic Order of Foresters will hold their Thanksgiving meeting Thursday, Nov. 20. Mrs. Lee Highberger is social chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hassler have returned for a visit with his brother at Seattle, Wash., and other relatives at Everett and Battle Ground, Wash. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Waschl of Perham, Minn.

Coming from Portland for the Speech Contest For Woodburn

Woodburn — Sophomores, juniors and seniors of Woodburn high school are eligible to enter the "Voice of Democracy" contest being sponsored by the Woodburn Junior Chamber of Commerce and will compete against students from North Marion and Gervais high school.

Each contestant will prepare a five-minute speech for a radio broadcast on the subject "I Speak for Democracy." Prizes will be awarded to the winner in each school and a traveling trophy will be awarded to the school of the winner from the district.

District winners will compete in the state and then in the national contests. A recording will be sent to these contests.

The state winner will receive a television set; his speech transcript will be sent to the national contest and the winner there will receive a television set plus $500 scholarship to any college and an all-expense trip to Washington, D.C., and Colonial Williamsburg.

Scio

Mr. and Mrs. William Landreth of Washington were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Shelton.

Mrs. Joe Haller and two sons of Oak Grove visited Mrs. Bess Phillips recently. Mrs. Haller is Mrs. Phillips' daughter.

The Scio Garden club met with Mrs. C. U. Buck, Nov. 19. The PTA meeting for this month will be Nov. 24.

The program committee is Elsie Cunningham, Helen Kins and Mrs. Leslie Finegan.

L. Ketcham has returned to his home after visiting relatives in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Thurston and Glen Thurston made a business trip to Salem Monday.

R. S. Thurston has not been well since having an attack of flu, two weeks ago.

The senior class play "Jane Eyre" was presented last week under the direction of Clay Shepherd.

Mrs. May Thurston, Mrs. Ben Moore and Nell Hatfield served the high school's luncheon Wednesday.

Ronnie Burge returned to his home in Longview after visiting a week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pynch.

Zuber-Norman nuptials Saturday was Mrs. Mary Zuber, a former resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kintz, accompanied by their niece, Miss Linda Neal, returned to their home in Bremerton, Wash., Sunday.

Miss Peggy Minden, student at St. Mary's of the Valley academy was a home visitor over the week-end. She was accompanied by Mother Collette and Sister M. Marciana of Verboort.

Mrs. Fred Hottinger will be hostess at her home on Monday, Nov. 24 to members of the Altar society.

Mrs. Barbara Gehlen of Stayton was hostess at her home to members of the Sublimity Women's club. Three tables of 500 were in play with Mrs. Margaret Hofman receiving first prize. Mrs. Mary Duchateau receive a plant as special prize.

The next meeting will be Thursday, Dec. 4 one week later than regular date, at the home of Mrs. Florence Schmitt.

Miss Patricia Schotthoefer, student at Maryhurst college, was at home over the week-end.

Smithfield

Smithfield — Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Boeder, together with Miss Thelma Brock of Ballston, motored to Monmouth Sunday and had dinner with their daughter, Hilde, at Todd Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wiens and children, Loren and Jo Ann, attended the wedding of Wayne Hiebenthal and Carol Kleeman Friday evening at the Salem EUB church.

Miss Gloria Hopkins of Portland was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sol N. Ediger from Friday through Sunday. She came to attend the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hiebenthal, together with Ernie Ediger and Dan Rempel of Perrydale. Ernie acted as best man for Mr. Hiebenthal and Dan was an usher.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reimer left late last week to attend their church conference at San Jose, Calif., which started sessions on Sunday.

Kathy and Louis Wickander, children of the I. Wickanders of Portland, are spending a winter vacation with their aunt, Mrs. H. W. Boeder. They came Monday.

Mrs. Jess Rieber reports her husband is doing nicely. They are now staying in the Bisner home in Dallas. Mr. Rieber has been ill for many weeks and for a while spent some time with the F. M. Riebers, when Mrs. F. M. Rieber assisted his wife in caring for him.

Rev. and Mrs. Pete P. Wiens of Montana, who are spending some time here visiting relatives and friends, were Saturday dinner guests of Mrs. Wiens' brother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Wall. Their father, Rev. Jacob A. Wall of Dallas, also accompanied them for the visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol N. Ediger

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY PLAYERS
Present
"THE HAPPY TIME"
A Joyful Comedy of Love
NOVEMBER 20, 21 & 22
AT 8:15 P.M.
WALLER HALL THEATRE
Season Tickets $2.25
Single Adm. 75c
Call 3-3688, Drama Dept., Ext. for Seat Reservations entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. L. gene, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Bridges is the child evangelism director of the Eugene area for the International Child Evangelism Fellowship.

Mrs. Ediger has assumed the responsibilities of the Oregon state office of the child evangelism fellowship, which was Bridges, Mrs. Bentley and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beard, all of Eugene, moved to Dallas from Portland a few weeks ago. It is located at 112 1/2 Miller Ave. on can be reached by phoning 2741 or 3686, or writing P. O. Box 227.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Gonshorowski and family and Mrs. G. V. Rempel were among the many neighbors and friends who attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hiebenthal Friday evening at the Salem EUB church.

Little Susie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Koskela of Manning is spending these days with her aunt, Mrs. Harden Smith.

Several of our neighborhood high schoolers took part in the freshman return party given in the Perrydale gym Friday evening. This party was for all the high schoolers.

Among those from here were Marlene Burr, John Barth, Charles Boeder, Marvin Rempel, Richard Gonshorowski, Jean Driscoll, and Margaret Ann Phillips.

Delores Wall and Joyce Ediger are among the young folk

THE SALEM DRIVE-IN Theatre
GATES OPEN 6:45
SHOW AT 7:15
ENDS SATURDAY!
"THE BIG SKY"
Kirk Douglas
— Plus —
"CLANCY STREET BOYS"
East Side Kids
Tonight (Fri.) at 7:15
Our Popular
Cartoon Carnival
See a show from your car!
Open Rain or Shine!

from the Evangelical Mennoite Brethren church who attended a skating party at Salem Tuesday. Arthur Classen transported them in his bus.

ELSINORE
Open 6:45 p.m.
Mario Lanza
Doretta Morrow
in Technicolor
"BECAUSE YOU'RE MINE"
with James Whitmore

CAPITOL
Continuous
John Payne
Susan Morrow
in Technicolor
"BLAZING FOREST"
— Peter Lawford
"HOUR OF 12"

STATE
Open 6:45 p.m.
Narcotics Expose!
"CAIRO ROAD"
Laurance Harvey
— William Bishop
"BREAKDOWN"

GRAND
Continuous
John Wayne
"BIG JIM McLAIN"
— Ray Bolger
"WHERE'S CHARLEY?"
in Technicolor

GRAND
HEY KIDS!
Our
"1-2-3 Free Club"
WILL MEET
TOMORROW!
SPECIAL KID SHOW AT NOON!

FOLLOW THE CROWDS TO THE
CRYSTAL GARDENS
For a Nice Evening of
DANCING SATURDAY NIGHT
Two Floors — Two Bands — One Price
Old Time and Modern 74c

a season of
PROFESSIONAL BROADWAY THEATRE in your town!

CIVIC DRAMA FESTIVAL

3 OUTSTANDING
BROADWAY PLAYS
DIRECT FROM NEW YORK CITY WITH
Distinguished Costs of Actor's Equity Players
PRODUCED BY DRAMA CORP. OF AMERICA

SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN—ONE WEEK ONLY

On Sale: Al Stevens & Son, Jewelers
Sponsored by: 20-30 CLUB
"Glad Tidings," Nov. 24th
"The Fledermaus," Feb. 16th
"Jenny Kissed Me," April 20th

Now Appearing
The original Rick Fay
KRAZY KATS
The Krazy Kats are currently making their initial Salem debut at the New Village Inn. Featuring top quality entertainment the Krazy Kats are one of the nation's leading musical troupes. They have out their numbers on twelve instruments.

The New Village
Inn
3057 Portland Rd.

Enjoy old time mildness!

Old Quaker
FINE STRAIGHT BOURBON

Oregon's popular old time Bourbon

NOW 6 YEARS OLD

$4¹⁰ 4/5 QT.
$2⁶⁰ PINT

and there's a barrel of quality in every bottle!

1878 - 1955
75 YEARS OF QUALITY

SIX YEARS OLD - STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY - 86 PROOF - OLD QUAKER DISTILLING COMPANY - LAWRENCEBURG, INDIANA

Cedar Tavern
DETROIT, ORE.
Elimination Shuffle Board
Every Sunday Afternoon
BRING YOUR PARTNER

HOLLYWOOD
Now Showing - Open 6:45
"DIPLOMATIC COURIER"
Tyronne Power - Patricia Neal
"CARSON CITY"
Randolph Scott

HOLLYWOOD KIDS MATINEE
Tomorrow - 1 to 4 p.m.
1 CARTOONS - SERIAL
Special Matinee Feature
"POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL"
Shirley Temple
Also
BENSON'S BIRTHDAY CAKE
Jean Powell, Larry Wackon, Darrell Corret, Janette Shattuc, Diana Vanderhoof, Wayne Porter, David Marsh, Kathy Donkin, John Rademaker, Jean Vanderhoof, David Nilsen, Alan Whitaker, David Zeit, Leonard Mossbrucker, Johnny Edwards, Gregory Olsen, Therese Schaffers, Darrel Davis, Glen Vanderhoof, Carol Boehm, Pamela Davis, Patrick Albrich, John Whitmore.

SALEM COMMUNITY CONCERT ASSOCIATION
presents
MENAHEM PRESSLER—PIANIST
Friday, November 21 - 8:15 P.M.
SALEM HIGH AUDITORIUM—14th and D STS.
Admittance by membership only.
Tickets for next year may be obtained following Lily Pons and Zino Francescatti concerts next March.

We are proud indeed to announce that this theatre will participate in the gala showing of M-G-M's new and distinguished TECHNICOLOR production and it gives us special pleasure that we can present this event on the perfect holiday occasion ... starting

"PLYMOUTH ADVENTURE"
THE SCREEN'S BIGGEST ADVENTURE!

NEXT WEDNESDAY!
STARRING
SPENCER TRACY
GENE TIERNEY
VAN JOHNSON
LEO GENN

The spectacular production of the sensational best-seller!

With DAWN ADDAMS and LLOYD BRIDGES
Directed by CLARENCE BROWN
Produced by DORE SCHARY
An M-G-M Picture

ELSINORE THEATRE