

Boots and Spurs

By CHARLEN WOODS

It has been a busy month for the horse group.

November 7, fun night was put on by Ralph Bauer from Silverton. Glen Conklin announced.

Monday night, coffee was served by Mrs. Earl Murray. The drill of 28 was called by Ralph Stangeby.

The Monday night meeting was called to order by president Bus Youngquist. Approved for membership were Marion Towery, W. J. Lamar, Sandra Gibson and Calvin Hughes.

All together in the club there are now 235 members.

On Wednesday night, coffee was served by Mrs. Ervin Ward. Mr. Ward called the drill of 30.

The drill team has decided to meet every 3rd Wednesday of the month. This year the team is planning to have new shirts and hats.

All Ingalls is riding again quite regularly with us. Ted Richie from Silverton was also out last week.

The November 4th fun night was put on by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murray and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Seamster. Miss Judy Seamster announced. Fred Lawrence won the special prize which was a box of candy. Thirty-one members rode in such races as the potato race and the turkey ring race.

We also had stake bending. Our stakes are brand new so let's take good care of them.

Members who have only ridden with us a few times so far this year were Mrs. Harry Carlson on Chief and Mr. Walter Leth, both from Silverton. Lawrence DeWitt rode also. Since he has recently moved to Marion county we hope to see him riding with us more regularly.

Also, Mr. Hank Hess is back riding with us again.

Miss Julie Anne Strausbaugh, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Grabenhorst, visited us Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hughes were also out. Mrs. Hughes has belonged to the club since last year but her husband has just joined.

Wednesday night coffee was served by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stephens. The drill team held its first practice by walking through the drill.

If anybody knows an extra special way to stop a horse from rearing, please inform Cecil Moller.

SILVERTON — Mr. and Mrs. Will L. Murphy have written to local friends that they had reached Winter Haven, Florida, where they go annually to spend the months through February. The Murphys made the drive south in eight days, stopping at places of interest en route.

ARTHRTIS SUFFERERS

Mr. Casey: I am so glad I found out about Casey's Compound. It relieves the pain of my arthritis more than anything I have ever tried, even the first bottle helped me so much. I am 70 years old and then aches and pains bother me so much worse than when one is younger. But Casey's Compound helps so much I am glad to recommend it to anyone with arthritis. —Mrs. E. Roberts, 1105 Thirteenth Street, McMinnville, Oregon.

Miss McBee Is Recent Bride

Grand Ronde — Miss LaVelle McBee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McBee of Willamina, and Robert Kerns, son of Mrs. Dorothy Bowens of San Diego, Calif., and Lester Kerns of Sheridan, were married October 27 at the Christian church in Willamina. The Rev. Leo Woodruff read the service.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with lace and her fingertip length veil was of white nylon tulle. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums with blue larkspur. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Alice Yenne of Salem was made of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Carol Pearson and Miss Ella Powers. Junior attendants were Susan Schoppert, Anita Bermifiel and Billy Schoppert.

John Jochen of Richland, Wash., was best man with Roy Zimbeck and Roy Felton ushering.

A reception followed in the church parlors.

Mr. Kerns is serving with the navy overseas and Mrs. Kerns is employed in Salem.

Garden Club at Keizer Entertains

Keizer — Keizer Garden club met Tuesday evening for the annual family turkey dinner. Seventy-five persons attended.

The committee in charge of the dinner were Mrs. Archie Claggett, Mrs. W. E. Savage, Mrs. A. Burr Black and Mrs. Paul Camp. The decorating committee members were Mrs. Robert Copley, Mrs. Jack Henningsen, Mrs. J. C. Mount and Mrs. William Nelson. The tables were centered with an array of fall flowers.

Guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Don F. Smith, Mrs. Ralph Gilbert and son Waldo, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Iufer, Mrs. Floyd Weeks, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Rex I. Peffer.

Entertainment was furnished by Jack Oudean who showed pictures taken of scenes and flowers in Hawaii and California, including pictures of floats in the Rose Bowl parade at Pasadena on last New Years. He also showed some pictures of local scenes and gardens.

During the short business meeting it was announced that Mrs. E. Burr Black and Mrs. V. A. Ballantyne will have charge of setting up an exhibit at the Labish Meadows Green show, December 13 and 14. Individual members of the club will help toward Christmas cheer for needy families in the district; Mrs. Robert Copley is in charge of this work.

The next meeting of the club will be Tuesday, December 16. Officers for the coming year will be nominated. A joint meeting will be held with Labish Meadows Garden club in Keizer for the January meeting.

Auxiliary Asking Gifts for Hospital

Silverton — Mrs. Robert Allen, president, is asking all members of the American Legion auxiliary, Delbert Reeves unit No. 7, and anyone who desires to contribute, to bring unwrapped gifts to the regular meeting at Legion hall Monday evening, November 24.

These gifts are for boys from six years of age through teenage, for babies and girls of any age, and wives of hospitalized veterans at the Portland facility.

These unwrapped gifts are placed in a room at the hospital and patients may select what they wish for their family. Each gift is then wrapped. Christmas wrapping paper and ribbon, as well as gift cards also are welcome. Monday evening is the last opportunity for giving these
