

One Turkey Show Enough

Portland (AP)—The Oregon Poultry council voted at its annual meeting here Monday to ask the legislature to appropriate funds for only one state turkey show.

Two are held each year now, and the council wants the appropriations combined for one single event.

Conrad Burmeister, Portland, was elected president. Other officers: Charles Brewster, Portland, vice - president; Harry Robe, Portland, secretary-treasurer; Barry Brownell, Milwaukie, Roy Martindale, Portland, Harold Davis, McMinnville, and Fred Cockell, Milwaukie, directors.

Cherry Industry To Hold Meeting

Raising and processing of cherries will be subjects of discussion during a meeting called for 1:30 p.m. Friday, Jan. 23 at the Dairy Co-op building, 2135 Fairgrounds road.

The speakers will include Dr. John Milbrath, plant pathologist of OSC and Dr. Quentin Zielinski, associate horticulturalist. The latter will discuss "The effects of growth regulators on cracking and other cherry production problems."

The Willamette Cherry Growers, Inc., will be represented by Bill Shinn, who will speak concerning the brined cherry industry. It is possible a representative of Paulus Brothers company will be present.

Lutherans Schedule Meetings for Week

Silverton — Trinity Lutheran week's schedule of activities includes the Tuesday, Jan. 27, 8 o'clock evening Brotherhood, the guest speaker to be Leonard Sappala, retired Alaskan gold miner and famous Alaska dog team driver.

Rev. Joseph A. Luthro is pastor.

Jan. 30 will be the congregational business meeting; also on Jan. 30, Tuesday afternoon, the Esther circle will meet at the parsonage.

Still Fine $100

Albany — General Bueal Tabner of Harrisburg pleaded guilty in district court to a charge of having a still on his premises together with a quantity of moonshine whiskey, and was sentenced by Judge Wendell Tompkins to 60 days in the county jail and a fine of $100. Tabner paid the fine, and the judge remitted the jail sentence.
