ACORN FROM THE Oak Room
WITH DEL MILNE

Come "Heck" or High Water the Oak Room at the Marion hotel is the place to get a charcoal broiled steak. Well the high water has come so why not come down and find out for yourself just how different a charcoal broiled steak can be from just an ordinary cooked steak.

Not that we want to keep bragging about the Oak Room but the atmosphere is such that you will feel that certain satisfaction when you entertain your friends here.

We had our television set put up on stilts so everyone in the lobby can see the show. Some time the show is good—sometimes not so good but one thing certain, the food in the dining room is ALWAYS good.
