

Salem Folk Listed on Honor Roll

By ALICE LEHMAN
Capital Journal Correspondent

Oregon State College, Corvallis (Special)—A gay and care-free attitude has prevailed over the campus since the beginning of the term, but now students are getting a rude awakening. This is the third week of classes and professors have decided to give their first round of tests. However, some students still have last term grades to bolster their spirits. No one from Salem made the coveted four-point which is all As, but the following students made the honor roll with a 3.5 GPA or better: Agriculture, Rodney Jipp and Gordon White, both of Salem; business and technology, Joanne Lehman of Dayton, Stan Lyman, Earl Schleminger and Donald Young, all of Salem; education, Marjorie Church and Pebble DeSart, both of Salem; engineering, Kenneth Andersen and Rodney Engdahl of Salem and Robert Sharp of Scio; home economics, Lorraine Welling of Salem; pharmacy, Gene Gregory and Alvis Miller, both of Salem; science, Pat Morton and George Porter, both of Salem.

Are Newlyweds — Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoffman (Mrs. Gloria Smith) were married January 4. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. E. M. Hoffman of Salem. (McEwan studio picture.)

Miss Downing will wed Norman W. Walkup, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Walkup, Sr., of Albany on March 14. Sixteen friends of the bride-elect were present for the announcement party.

IN PORTLAND Thursday evening to appear on the semi-finals of the program, Search for Stars, over KEX, will be Misses Laurel Herr, Carol Lee and Sidney Kromer, local high school trio, to sing. They have appeared on the program previously.

Past Presidents of Auxiliary Entertained

Silverton—Mrs. A. J. McCannel was hostess Monday evening to members of past presidents parley of Delbert Reeves unit No. 7, American Legion auxiliary. A dessert supper was served before the business session.

In a fun program, the president of the unit, Mrs. Robert Allen, was received into the membership. The annual late spring program of the members of the parley was discussed. The group decided to put on the program as of past years, and to have a free will donation during the supper hour, rather than the "jitney luncheon" as formerly.

The one outstanding project of the parley is to buy the outgoing unit president her past president's pin when she retires from her one-year presidency.

Assisting Mrs. McCannel at the dessert were Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mrs. C. J. Towe and Mrs. E. L. Starr.

MERRYTIME club is meeting with Mrs. Claude Talmage, 3290 Duncan avenue, Friday, dessert luncheon to be at 1:30 o'clock.

WOMEN'S CATHOLIC Order of Foresters will meet Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. E. M. Payseno, 925 Columbia, at 8 o'clock for a social meeting.

Star Party

Silverton—A feature party, "The Year End Clearance" was given Monday evening in compliance to 1952 officers of Ramona chapter, Order of Eastern Star, No. 58. Mrs. Charles Leonard and Mrs. W. Dale Lamar, who head the 1953 list of officials, were chairmen of plans.

The program began with a no-host dinner at Masonic hall. Following a period of "fun stunts," canasta was played. Gifts were presented to the worthy matron and worthy patron of the past year, Mrs. Harlan Loe and E. A. Finlay.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Loe, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Finlay, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Asboe, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Loe, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sprick, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Riches, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Scarth, Mr. and Mrs. W. Clark Bachman, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Peron, Mr. and Mrs. W. Dale LaMar and Mr. and Mrs. Felix Wright.

Other Salem students in the news this week include Lenore Phillippe and Betty Andresen.

Lenore was elected president of Sackett C. women's dormitory, and Betty was selected for inter-hall council which is the governing body for the women's dormitories on campus. Lela Beach of Independence was elected treasurer of the Women's Physical Education club.

This evening the students will travel to the coliseum to hear Grant Johannesen, the young American pianist. He has traveled around the world on concert tours and was well received, so students are looking forward to his appearance here this evening.

"While the teams are away the students play" would be a good theme for this coming week-end for the basketball team travels to Idaho and that leaves the week-end wide open for activities. Many living groups are having dances or infillations and the sophomores are presenting an all-school dance Saturday night. In all it should be a pretty busy week-end. As we said once before, the theme of the dance is "Stormy Weather" and it couldn't come at a more appropriate time. A small tornado hit Corvallis Tuesday morning and when it left it took along the roof of the downtown bowling alley.

Come rain or high water the classes will go on, except for bowling, and there will be more news again next week.

Ike's Inaugural 42nd in History

Washington (AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower's inaugural address Tuesday was the 42nd in the nation's 164-year history.

How come, since we've had only 32 men in the White House before Tuesday?

It's this way: 17 presidents served one elective term each, making 17 inaugural addresses. Nine — Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson, Lincoln, Grant, McKinley and Wilson — were elected to two successive terms, making 18 more inaugural addresses for a total of 35.

Cleveland was elected a second time after being out of office four years, making two more inaugurals for a total of 37.

Franklin D. Roosevelt's four elections brought four more inaugurals for a grand total of 41. But that accounts for only 28 men making inaugural speeches out of the 32 before Tuesday, doesn't it?

Well, there were four more presidents all right. But each one — Tyler, Fillmore, Johnson and Arthur — moved up from the vice-presidency because of deaths and was never elected president on his own. They took an oath but it was without the frills of pomp and speech.
