

School Board Bans UNESCO

Los Angeles (AP)—The school board has banned the UNESCO program from the Los Angeles public schools.

The board heard four hours of heated discussion for and against the program Monday night, then voted to ban it from the curriculum.

It had been used in modified form since last year, when organized opposition developed to its presentation as a separate, specialized subject.

The school board decreed, however, that the schools shall "continue to teach subjects of human relations and moral and spiritual values."

Opponents of the program said that UNESCO material given students was "designed to promote world government."

Beef Control Scrap Urged

Washington (AP)—Key republicans on the house agriculture committee will urge the Eisenhower administration to scrap beef price controls immediately.

Committee chairman Clifford R. Hope, (R-Kans.) and Rep. Charles B. Hoveen (R-Ia.) in a joint statement blamed the office of price stabilization's pricing and grading regulations for a recent sharp drop in cattle prices.

They said livestock experts assert the regulations as "costing both producers and consumers millions of dollars."

Inauguration Given World in 46 Tongues

Washington (AP)—Accounts of Tuesday's inauguration were carried to listeners around the world in 46 languages and dialects by the Voice of America, the state department's overseas radio.

A special inaugural program, the department said, was beamed simultaneously to Europe, the Near and Middle East, the Far East and Latin America on 42 different frequencies.

In some countries, the program was further relayed locally. The Japanese Broadcasting company, the department said, estimated it had 20 million listeners.

Labish Center

Labish Center—Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Redd and family for Sunday dinner were the Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Lawrence of the Labish Center E.U.B. church.

Mrs. Lyle Klampe and her young daughter Cheryl Lynn came home from the hospital Friday night. Relatives, friends and neighbors called on them over the weekend.

The Men's Brotherhood of the Labish Center E.U.B. church held their monthly meeting at the church Thursday night with a 6:30 pot luck supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard McClaughry are still taking care of the mumps in their home. Their daughter Colleen had them first followed by Kenny and Carolyn.

The touch system of typewriting was little used before 1890, but since 1900, instruction in typewriting has almost universally used the touch system.
