Inauguration Proves Big Experience

"It was a thrilling experience," comments Mrs. Paul L. Patterson, wife of Oregon's governor, in telling of their trip to Washington, D. C., to take in the inauguration.

There were many interesting events to take in in the short time the Pattersons were in the national capital, but there are a few highlights standing out in the memory of the trip, Mrs. Patterson says.

For one, Mrs. Patterson says it was a big moment when the Pattersons' car stopped briefly in front of the reviewing stand during the parade and received the big smile from President Eisenhower.

During the time the parade was being formed, many Oregon people in the capital were around and about taking pictures of the governor's car.

"One of the most democratic scenes I recall was after the ball. Everybody seemed to want a snack. It was quite a sight to see the crowds at a hamburger place — all in their formal clothes, white ties, etc., eating hamburgers, chili — certainly a typical American scene," Mrs. Patterson said.

Mrs. Patterson reports Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Douglas McKay like their apartment very much. It looks out on some trees, a fact the McKays appreciate, too.

Mrs. McKay gave a tea for Mrs. Patterson on Monday afternoon, inviting a small group of Oregon folk back for the inauguration.

ELECTION of officers took place at the Young Matrons club meeting on Wednesday evening at Mayflower hall. Serving this year will be Mrs. Delmar Aleshire, president; Mrs. Robert Price, vice-president; Mrs. Robert W. Sandstrom, secretary; Mrs. John M. Meier, treasurer.

VISITORS here from Santa Rosa are Mrs. H. C. Stanley and son, Larry Dee, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hoyt.
