

Legislature Shows Spurt; Three Bumper Posts Manned

By PAUL W. HARVEY, JR.
(Associated Press Columnist)

After making rapid progress this week on its top legislation, Oregon's Legislature is optimistic again about getting through by the 90th day.

The fact that there have been some 700 bills introduced caused some lawmakers to be gloomy. But Senate President Eugene F. Marsh and House Speaker Rudie Wilhelm, Jr., who have been riding the committees hard to get them to get their work done, say emphatically that this will be a short session.

A 90-day session would be 26 days shorter than the record-long session of 1951.

The chief reason for the optimism is that the committees are far along in their work, and that the Legislature's financial program is well along toward completion.

And whenever the tax and appropriation bills are ready for final action, there is a big drive toward adjournment.

The tax bills, which simplify the tax system, passed the House

The "Lite-a-Bumper" safety campaign of the Junior Chamber of Commerce continued Saturday with Jaycees manning three posts in Salem for mounting reflector tape strips on car bumpers.

To be manned from 9 a.m. on is a station at the Shopper's Car Park, Ferry and High streets, where jaycees will install the red reflecting material at a charge of $1 per bumper.

Two other stations will be manned in the afternoon—at the Capitol shopping center car lot and the Safeway store parking lot in the Hollywood district.

The safety campaign has been approved by the secretary of state and all law enforcement agencies in this area. Joining in safety drive this week was the Yellow Cab company of Salem, who had the Scotch-Lite strips installed on the bumpers of all their cabs.

Marion county sheriff's cars also will have the reflecting material attached to their bumpers soon, Sheriff Denver Young said this week.

Nearly 200 cars took advantage of the offer last Saturday and during this week.

Theron Hupp Rexford Passes in Portland

Theron Hupp Rexford of Portland, formerly of the Salem area, died of a heart attack at his home Thursday afternoon at the age of 35 years.

Formerly known as Theron Hupp, he had attended grade school at North Santiam and had gone to high school at Sandy before moving to the Salem vicinity.

Rexford moved to Portland about 12 years ago.

He is survived by his wife, Jessie; a daughter, Judie; and a son, Terry.

Other survivors include brothers Claude Hupp of Gervais, Frank Hupp of Rainier, and Martin Hupp of Otis Junction and sisters Edna Clark of Columbia, S.C., and Evelyn Kiehl of Albany.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Mt. Scott Funeral home at Foster and 59th in Portland at 1 p.m. Monday.

Elder Njiem in Series of Talks

Elder George A. Njiem, native of the Holy Land, will be guest speaker for the second week of evangelistic endeavor being held by the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. He will speak at 7:45 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

Mr. Njiem's sermons will center on the "Doctrine of the Lord." His background of having lived in Palestine is said to lend an appealing uniqueness to his preaching as he relates his personal experiences of association with biblical culture. His formative years were spent assisting his father in pastoral pursuits, tending flocks and dry farming in Palestine.

HOW TO BECOME A CHRISTIAN

1. RECOGNIZE that you are not a Christian because you are good, for God's Word declares, "There is none that doeth good, no not one" (Romans 3:12).
2. RECOGNIZE that you are not a Christian because you are doing the best you can, for God's Word declares that "All have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23).
3. RECOGNIZE that you are not necessarily a Christian because you are a member of some church, for again the Word of God declares that many have "a form of godliness, but deny the power thereof; from such turn away" (II Timothy 3:5).
4. CONFESS that you are a guilty sinner in God's sight, for you have broken His commandments, and all the world has become guilty before Him (Romans 3:19).

5. CONFESS that you cannot save yourself, for "by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God" (Ephesians 2:8).
6. CONFESS that you are hopelessly lost and under condemnation without Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour, for He said: "The Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10).
7. BELIEVE the good news that Christ died for the ungodly (Romans 5:8). He therefore died for you and settled your sin debt on the Cross.
8. BELIEVE the glorious news that Christ was raised from the dead, and by the power of God is now able to save all who come unto God by Him (Hebrews 7:25).
9. CALL on the Name of the Lord Jesus in prayer, on bended knees, with a sincere desire to be saved from your sins, for God has promised that "Whoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Romans 10:13).
10. RELY on God's sure promise, not upon your feelings, and by faith declare you are saved by the blood of Jesus Christ, "sied for the forgiveness of your sins, and openly confess Him with your mouth as your Saviour and Lord (Romans 10:9, 10).

Marian Anderson, world-famous singer who will be heard in Salem February 24.

Noted Singer Here Feb. 24

A limited supply of tickets will go on sale at Stevens & Son Jewelers for the Salem debut of Marian Anderson, who will appear in a concert at the Salem high school auditorium on February 24, as the final concert of the Willamette distinguished artists series 1952-53 season.

Because of the popularity of America's great singer, and the fact that this is her first appearance in Salem, concert officials are predicting a heavy demand for the limited supply of tickets.

One of the most celebrated of living artists, Miss Anderson has performed some 1,100 concerts before nearly 5,000,000 persons. Millions more know her through her frequent broadcasts on the Bell Telephone Hour, her television appearances and her many recordings on the RCA Victor label.

It was in Europe that the contralto first began a career unique in musical history. Toscanini, hearing her in Salzburg, raved: "A voice like yours is heard once in a hundred years."

In Finland, Sibelius, the world-famous composer, exclaimed: "The roof of my house is too low for your voice!"

S. Hurok, hearing Miss Anderson in Paris, persuaded her to return to the United States for her memorable New York reappearance.

Miss Anderson, probably the world's most honored artist, added four awards to her many trophies during 1952: King Gustav Adolf of Sweden presented her with the coveted "Litteris et Artibus" medal, the Federation of Jewish Women's Organizations named her "Woman of Achievement," Philadelphia's Newspaper Guild made her recipient of its "Page One Award," and Moravia college conferred on her her fifth honorary degree.

In late April, after completing her 50th American concert this season, Miss Anderson will depart for her first tour of the Far East, which will include a series of concerts in Japan.

Of Miss Anderson, The Seattle Post-Intelligencer commented: "The concert of Marian Anderson can best be described by the awed comment of one listener: 'That's the closest I'll ever get to heaven before I die.'"

Fellowship Will Sponsor Dinner

The Wesley Fellowship of the First Methodist church is sponsoring a World Fellowship banquet the evening of February 21. The dinner and the program to follow will take place at the First Christian church at 6:30.

The speaker will be Dr. A. Raymond Grant, bishop of Portland area for the Methodist church, he will speak on the subject "Within Our Hands."

The dinner will be in the nature of a benefit for foreign missionary work and tickets should be obtained not later than Tuesday, February 17, at the First Methodist church office.

General chairman of the program is Tom Foster. The general public is invited to participate.

Spillman to Talk World Situation

With the century's present trend in mind, Evangelist Don Hyatt Spillman will speak on the subject "World Recovery or World Revolution — Which?" Sunday night at the Crystal Gardens.

Spillman states he will reveal the source "of the mighty armies soon to invade this earth."

A community sing, directed by Lewis Lyman, will open the program at 7:20. It is stated that hundreds participate in the song fests nightly except Wednesday and Saturday.
